

X. HISTORICAL MATERIAL

A. HISTORICAL SKETCH

The Western North Carolina Conference shall include all North Carolina west of the North Carolina Conference, except Savannah Church, in Alleghany County, North Carolina; and also that part of North Carolina lying north of the New River, and including that part of Virginia lying south of that river in the loop in Grayson County, Virginia; including all the territory in Carroll and Patrick Counties, Virginia, south of the crest of the Blue Ridge, and west of the Dan River. (Discipline, 1948, ¶ 1957)

This territory is identical with that of the Western North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South. All three branches of Methodism forming The Methodist Church were included in this new conference. From the Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church came 39 ministers and 11,901 church members. The North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Protestant Church contributed 74 ministers and 22,361 church members. The Western North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South, added 377 ministers and 167,028 church members. This gave the new conference 490 members, with 28 others on trial, and 201,290 church members. The Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference has held 62 sessions; the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, 112; and the Western North Carolina, 50 (see Journal, 1939, pp. 115, 169).

The Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church was formed on June 5, 1968, by the merger of the Western North Carolina Conference and that portion of the North Carolina-Virginia Conference situated within the bounds of the Western North Carolina Conference (see Journal, 1968, p. 84). The North Carolina-Virginia Conference had been organized in Greensboro on Aug. 11, 1964, and, in addition to the organizational session, held four sessions prior to the 1968 merger.

F. MEMOIRS OF DECEASED CLERGY AND DIACONAL MINISTERS

DAVID CARTER ARLEDGE

August 9, 1951-December 10, 2013

The Rev. David Carter Arledge joined the Church Triumphant on December 10, 2013. He was born to Harold Sr. and Wanda McCarter Arledge of Shelby, N.C., on August 9, 1951.

The Rev. Arledge was a native of Shelby and attended Shelby City Schools. The first church that he was a member of was Central United Methodist Church in Shelby. He went on to attend Brevard College and received an Associate of Arts degree in 1972. After that, he went to Appalachian State University, where he received a B.S. degree in education in 1974, and following that he was awarded an M.A. degree in counseling in 1977. In 2009, he earned a Master of Divinity degree from Emory University's Candler School of Theology.

The Rev. Arledge was licensed to preach by the Western North Carolina Conference in 2009 and began serving Moore's Chapel United Methodist Church from then until his death in December 2013. While we often think of ministry beginning after a person is assigned to a church, Arledge, similar to others, began his ministry long before then and continued in ministry after then. When the father-in-law of his sister, Susan, passed away suddenly in the middle of January almost 18 years ago, David drove several hours through ice and snow to be there in person and hug all the members of the family. When his grandfather needed care, David interrupted his college years to care for him. While he was attending church in Hendersonville, David helped to feed groups of people through outreach programs, received training and then led DISCIPLE Bible study, served as president of the local chapter of Gideon's International, taught Sunday school, and baked pizzas for the church youth.

After the Rev. Arledge was assigned to Moore's Chapel UMC, he often cooked for the fellowship meal that was held each Wednesday afternoon and the event concluded with a prayer service. As a tribute to him, Moore's Chapel UMC has recently promoted the event as David's Table. The Rev. Arledge loved participating in the Kairos prison ministry, believing that he was uplifted to the same extent as the inmates. He often walked, but he didn't just walk for his own benefit. Through his walking, he supported other pastors by being a dependable companion and he got to know the community by being accessible through that activity. Walking was a form of ministry for the Rev. Arledge.

David Arledge married Faye Tysinger on October 11, 1973, and they added two more to the family. Their first son, Isaac Benjamin Arledge, was born on February 21, 1982, and their second son, Nathan Daniel Arledge, was born on February 10, 1984. After contracting esophageal cancer, David continued to pastor the congregation of Moore's Chapel as well as he could, and the congregation and his family in turn cared for him to the best of their ability. There was a graveside funeral service at 11 a.m. on Friday, December 13, 2013, at Forest Lawn Cemetery, Hendersonville. That service was followed by a memorial service at 2 p.m. at First United Methodist Church of Hendersonville. The following Wednesday, December 18, 2013, at 2 p.m., there was also a memorial service at Moore's Chapel UMC, the church the Rev. Arledge served.

GILES OREN BOWMAN, SR.

February 5, 1931 – October 12, 2013

A statement on the entry wall of a doctor's office in Asheville, N.C., reads, "We make a living by what we get, but we make a life by what we give." Giles gave much to the world – to his family, his church, and those congregations he served as pastor for almost 40 years. He was born on February 5, 1931, in Pinnacle, N.C., the son of the late Abner Gray Bowman and Wylia Needham Bowman.

As a 20-year-old, Giles and I first met when I was assigned as student pastor of his home church, New Mt. Vernon, just south of Winston-Salem. While there, I completed my studies at Duke while Giles served as our youth counselor, dished out barbecue at a popular Winston-Salem restaurant, and commuted to High Point College, from which he graduated in 1956. In 1960, he graduated from Duke Divinity School, was admitted into the Western North Carolina Conference on trial in 1956, ordained a deacon in 1957 and an elder in 1960.

In 1955, when I was assigned to an Asheboro church, Giles was assigned to the nearby South Randolph Charge, which he served for four years. He then became associate pastor of Grace Church in Greensboro, 1959-1960. While there, he met and married Kathryn Betsy Bowman on July 30, 1960. Other pastorates followed: Rockford Street in Mt. Airy, 1960-1963; Cold Springs, 1963-1965; Tuckaseegee Road in Charlotte, 1965-1967; Marshville, 1967-1971; Calvary Church in Greensboro, 1971-1975; St. Luke in Charlotte, 1975-1979; Boulevard in Statesville, 1979-1980; Abernethy in Asheville, 1980-1982; Bethel in Winston-Salem, 1982-1984; Moore's Chapel in Charlotte, 1984-1986; Indian Trail, 1986-1990; and Hudson, 1990-1993, from which he retired.

Like many retirees, Giles continued serving the church as a retired supply at Benton Heights and Hebron in Monroe, 1994-2001. His contagious smile and warm greeting then went beyond the local church as a school bus driver, substitute teacher, and fast food host. A severe stroke in his final years slowed Giles down, requiring the use of a wheelchair. Fortunately, his wife, Betsy, and grandson Joseph Lambert helped to get him about.

Family was always important to Giles. He and his beloved Betsy celebrated their 50 years of marriage with a gala reception at a Charlotte hotel. Even with his disability, Giles was all smiles at this glad occasion. He said of his handicap, "I'm going to keep fighting this," a motto he faithfully kept until the end of his life, dying at a Charlotte hospital on October 12, 2013.

Dr. George W. Thompson, his former district superintendent, and I had the honor of conducting the funeral service for Giles at New Mt. Vernon Church on October 14, 2013 – marking the end to a life that, indeed, "made a life by what he gave."

PAUL EUGENE BRAVENDER

July 17, 1936 – October 10, 2013

The Rev. Dr. Paul Eugene Bravender died on October 10, 2013, while under hospice care at Wake Forest University Medical Center. He was born July 17, 1936, in Flint, Mich., to John and Laila Wahl Bravender, the second of their three sons. He married his college sweetheart, Constance (Connie) Hart Bravender, at Durand Methodist Church in Durand, Mich., on September 7, 1957.

Educated in the Flint Community Schools, Paul graduated from Flint Northern High School in 1954, afterward attending Flint Community Junior College. After furthering his studies at and graduating from Western Michigan University in 1960, with a B.S. degree in theater arts and music, Paul was drafted by the U.S. Army. He served in the Intelligence Corps. His final assignment was to Fifth Army Headquarters in Chicago, Ill., where he served as an intelligence analyst. Deciding to remain in Chicago to pursue his professional music career, Paul became a busy soloist in addition to directing the choir at St. Philip Neri Catholic Church and soloist at the former Temple Habonim synagogue. It was while in Chicago that he obtained a Master of Music degree from Roosevelt University in 1970.

Soon after, Paul and Connie returned to their native Michigan where Paul taught theater and choir at Howell High School in Howell, Mich., while continuing his musical theater career, even appearing alongside Metropolitan Opera star Jerome Hines in "South Pacific." It wasn't long, however, before the need to further his education became necessary, leading Paul to obtain his Ph.D. in music from Michigan State University in 1977. While at Michigan State, he taught as a graduate assistant studio voice teacher and was elected to membership in the Phi Kappa Lambda honor society. He also directed the choir at University United Methodist Church and served as part-time faculty at Spring Arbor University.

His Ph.D. research and subsequent dissertation, "The Effect of Cheerleading on the Female Voice," attracted nationwide attention, appearing in local papers throughout the country through an Associated Press article. In 1977, Paul presented the results of his research at the International Association of Experimental Research in Singing, of which he was a member, at their international conference in Denver, Colo. While not his intent, the resulting debate and discussion surrounding his research seems to have led cheerleading to evolve into more athleticism and less cheering. "The Effect of Cheerleading on the Female Singing Voice" has been and still continues to be cited and quoted in numerous publications, including those of both the choral/vocal and cheerleading realms.

In 1975, Paul became an assistant professor of music at Eastern Michigan University, where he taught studio voice in addition to serving as director of the University Choir and the Opera Workshop. During this time, he also served as choir director at Metropolitan United Methodist Church in Detroit, Mich., conductor of the Ann Arbor Opera Guild, and appeared in productions of the Comic Opera Guild in addition to numerous others. Paul also continued to be an active member of the National Association of Teachers of Singing (NATS).

Paul was offered the position of associate professor and chairperson of the Voice Division, Department of Music, at University of Memphis in 1981. In addition to his studio teaching responsibilities, he was also a member of the graduate faculty, appeared in local theater productions, was named to "Who's Who in American Music: Classical" (1985), and sang at numerous engagements – including singing the national anthem at both Memphis Tigers basketball and Memphis Chicks baseball games.

Moving to North Carolina in 1985, Paul became chairperson of the Fine Arts Department at Elon University while also directing the choir at Mebane United Methodist Church. Still not finding fulfillment while continuing to deny a decades-old calling into ministry, Paul entered the Divinity School at Duke University, receiving a Master of Divinity in 1992. He first served Bynum United Methodist Church as a student pastor in the North Carolina Conference, before transferring to the Western North Carolina Conference and being ordained as an elder in full connection in 1996. In the Western North Carolina Conference, he served the Stokesburg/Germanton Charge, 1992-1995; High Point, Ward Street, 1995-1998; and Wingate, 1998-2002, before retiring.

In addition to his parents, Paul was preceded in death by brothers John Thomas of Flushing, Mich., and Terrill Sr. of Davison, Mich., and nephew Stephen, also of Flushing, Mich. He is survived by Connie, his wife of 56 years; son Robert (Nancy) of Johnson City, Tenn.; daughter the Rev. Ann Kaufman (Jon) of Iuka, Miss.; grandchildren Katie, Scott, Michelle and Morgan Bravender; and Erin, Lauren and Ryan Kaufman. A memorial service was held October 14, 2013, at Jamestown United Methodist Church in Jamestown, N.C., officiated by the Rev. Jim Watford. The interment of his ashes will be in his hometown of Flint, Mich.

DON EDWIN CONRAD

November 25, 1922 – March 2, 2014

The Rev. Don Edwin Conrad joined the ranks of the Church Triumphant on Sunday, March 2, 2014. Don was born on November 25, 1922, in Montgomery County, Ind., to Greg Dewey Conrad and Verna Bell Moore Conrad. He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife, Dorothy Meador Conrad; and his sister, Dallas Sergeant. Don lived a full and active life of 92 years, passing away less than four weeks after his wife, Dorothy, went home to be with Christ.

After graduation from high school, Don joined the Army Air Corps and served as a chaplain's assistant in the Panama Canal Zone during World War II. After military service, Don graduated from Trevecca Nazarene University in 1949, studied at Greensboro College, and received his Master of Divinity degree from Duke University in 1967. Before distinguished service in The United Methodist Church, Don taught in the Guilford County (N.C.) Schools as a speech pathologist.

Like many couples during World War II, Don met his wife, Dorothy, during his time with the Army Air Corps passing through the Overseas Receiving Depot in Greensboro. Don and Dot were married on April 13, 1946. They were joined by family and friends as they celebrated their 67th anniversary together in April 2013. Surviving are his sons, Edwin Conrad and wife Cindi of Charlotte; and David Conrad and wife Amy of Greensboro; and his brother, Fred Conrad and wife Teresa of Indianapolis, Ind. Don also had 11 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. Family gatherings, whether in his home state of Indiana or at the coast of North Carolina, were always special and sacred times for Don and the Conrad family.

Don's connection with The United Methodist Church began when he and his family joined Trinity Methodist Church in Greensboro in 1960. He was licensed to preach in 1965 and received his first appointment from 1968 to 1977 at the Bethany-Cotton Grove Charge and the Bethany-Macedonia Charge near Thomasville. Appointments also included First UMC Landis, 1977-1981; Camp Ground UMC in the Albemarle District, 1981-1985; and Bethel-Flat Rock Charge in the Northeast District from 1985 until his retirement in 1992.

Don will be remembered as a caring and devoted pastor to the members and families of the churches where he served. Testimonies at Don's memorial service at Bethany UMC, near Lexington, paid tribute to the positive Christian impact Don made in many lives. In addition to his work as a pastor, Don served on the board of the John Wesley Camp Meeting in High Point. After retirement, his love for Christ and people found expression in teaching Sunday school and leading Wednesday evening prayer services. From 1992-2009, he volunteered to work with the Good News Jail and Prison Ministry at the McLeansville Prison Unit in Greensboro. Don's teaching and example affected young people through his volunteer work with the City Life Club of Greensboro Youth for Christ. Don amazed youth and adult volunteers with his enthusiasm for Christ and basketball. He was one of the few octogenarians who still enjoyed shooting basketball with the kids at club meetings.

Memorial services were held on Sunday, March 9, 2014, at Trinity Church in Greensboro and a graveside service at Bethany UMC near Lexington.

JOHN POWELL DEASON, JR.

April 12, 1926 – September 30, 2013

Dr. John Powell Deason, Jr., was born in Parrish, Ala., on April 12, 1926, to John Powell Deason and Berniece Moore Deason. He graduated from Oakman (Alabama) High School at age 16, joined the U.S. Navy at age 17 and served two years during World War II on LSM 460. After beginning coursework at Jacksonville State Teachers College, he received his B.S. in education from the University of Alabama in 1949. He received his M.A. in education from the Peabody College for Teachers in 1958 and his doctorate in education from Columbia Teachers College (New York City) in 1959.

Dr. Deason served as principal of high schools in Alabama and Georgia, before becoming superintendent of schools in Troy, Ala., then Alamance County, N.C., and finally was the last superintendent of the North Wilkesboro City Schools. He concluded his service to education by serving as director of Appalachian State University's Wilkes Area Teaching Center, supervising student teachers as they prepared to become public school teachers.

Upon his marriage to Mary Elizabeth Huffaker, on January 14, 1950, he joined the Methodist Church, after having attended the Church of Christ during his youth. After being a layman church member for almost three decades, and before retiring from the public schools, he felt the call to attend the Local Pastor School at Duke University. After several summers of attendance, he became a licensed local pastor and served as minister to small congregations in Ashe and Wilkes counties. They included Helton, 1981-1984; Nathan's Creek, 1984-1988; and Temple Hill-Roaring River, 1988-1990; before his retirement in 1990.

Dr. John Deason was a faithful teacher and preacher.

After his retirement from the pulpit, he was a devoted member of the First United Methodist Church of North Wilkesboro and was active in the Men's Bible Class. He helped fellow Bible class members prepare breakfast for the church each fourth Sunday of the month and delighted in bringing fresh fruits and vegetables from his garden to church members.

Dr. Deason was a loyal member of the Rotary Club and transferred his membership each time he moved for more than 60 years. He enjoyed working the merchandise tent at Merlefest with fellow Rotarians and was instrumental in recruiting new members. He lived his last year and a half at Rose Glen Village Retirement Community in Wilkesboro, where he enjoyed the friendship of both new and longtime friends.

Dr. John Powell Deason, Jr., 87, died September 30, 2013, at Joan and Howard Woltz Hospice Home in Dobson of complications from pneumonia. He was preceded in death by his parents and his wife.

He is survived by son John Powell (Jack) Deason III and wife Tina of Durham; daughter Carol Deason McDowell and husband Mike of Elkin; son Robert Michael Deason and wife Peggy of Jeffersonville, Ind.; five grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.

A memorial service was held at 2 p.m. Thursday, October 3, 2013, in the sanctuary of the First United Methodist Church of North Wilkesboro with the Rev. Keith Franklin and the Rev. Steven Rainey officiating.

WILLIAM HELLER DYAR

May 27, 1918 – October 20, 2013

The Rev. Dr. William Heller Dyar was born May 27, 1918, in Old Pickens, S.C., to Jesse G. Dyar and Marvinjane Seaborn Dyar. He is survived by his wife, Virginia Dyar, and their daughter, Barbara Dyar, both of Winston-Salem, N.C. Bill and Virginia were married June 21, 1941, and celebrated 72 years of marriage.

The value of education was evident in Bill's life as he earned four degrees. Bill received his A.B. degree from High Point College, his B.D. degree from Duke Divinity School and earned his Th.M. and D.Min. from Wake Forest University, Southeastern Seminary.

Bill's dedication to education and ministry was lived out in various vocational callings throughout his life. He was known as a United Methodist minister, teacher, lecturer, and writer. As a minister, he began his first preaching assignment in 1940, with a small mountain congregation in Mountain Rest, S.C. During this time, Bill also simultaneously served as the local school principal. During the years 1955-1957 while in seminary, he served as an assistant in the Church History Department. Since Bill's maternal and fraternal grandparents came from Germany and settled in South Carolina in the late 1800s, he was well-qualified to teach German history and theology. After divinity school, Bill taught in the Philosophy and Religion Department of North Carolina State College from 1958-1959.

Bill's appointment as an elder in the Methodist Church began with Jonesville, Winston-Salem, 1959-1963. He then served Tabernacle in Greensboro, 1963-1971. Bill was then appointed in 1971, by Bishop Earl Hunt, to serve as associate minister at Centenary, Winston-Salem. Centenary's senior minister, Dr. Earnest Fitzgerald, wanted Bill to develop a unique ministry. Bill became the founding director of Centenary United Methodist Church's Pastoral Counseling Program in 1971. He served in this capacity for 13 years, from 1971, until his retirement in 1984.

The Rev. Dr. William Heller Dyar was a cherished member of the Winston-Salem community and The United Methodist Church during his ministry and retirement. A service of worship in celebration of the life of Bill Dyar was held at Centenary United Methodist Church on October 22, 2013. Bill's colleagues and friends, Bishop Thomas B. Stockton, Dr. J. Robert Nations, and the Rev. R. Craig Ford, presided. Following the service, the burial was held at Tabernacle United Methodist Church in Greensboro.

We are grateful for the legacy and life of Bill. As a caring pastor and trained counselor, Bill instilled hope in the midst of despair for all who knew him and sought his wisdom. He was a faithful disciple of Christ who radiated God's love for all. Those of us who were influenced by his life will cherish our memories always.

JOSEPH MARION FULK

July 11, 1927 – June 14, 2013

Joseph Marion Fulk, known to family and friends as "Marion," was born July 11, 1927, to the late Claude Fulk and the late Kate Marion Fulk. He and his five siblings grew up in the shadows of Pilot Mountain in Surry County, N.C. The Fulk family was blessed with a rural life where they felt the presence and guidance of the Lord. They were deeply involved in all facets of church life at Fairview United Methodist Church in Shoals, N.C. Marion was received into church membership at age 12 and was a leader in the church activities program during his teenage years. During his youth, he was known to carry a copy of the New Testament in his shirt pocket as a profession of his strong faith.

Marion married Lucy Elizabeth Creed on October 28, 1945. Their loving union was blessed with four children: Joseph Jr., Colon, Ann, and Pepper.

From an early age, Marion assisted his parents on the family farm. He later became a local barber who was highly regarded for his expert haircuts and friendly demeanor. Prior to entering the ministry, he also served in the U.S. Army. As his call to the ministry grew stronger, Marion soon realized that he would need more education to prepare for serving the Lord and enhancing his study of the Bible. Marion attended Salem College and graduated from High Point College (now High Point University). He also completed additional studies at Duke Divinity School.

Marion was licensed to preach in September 1957 and faithfully served as a minister for 57 years in the Western North Carolina Conference. His first appointment was Blackwater/Pine Hill in Surry County, 1957-1958. He then served the following appointments: New Hope Circuit, 1958-1962; Old Union/Mt. Lebanon, 1962-1966; Fairgrove, 1966-1970; Kannapolis/Mt. Mitchell, 1970-1977; Centenary, 1977-1981; Advance/Mocks, 1981-1984; New Hope/Winston-Salem, 1984-1987; Denton/Central, 1987-1991; and Gay's Chapel, 1991-1993. Marion continued to serve the following churches after his retirement in 1993: Matton's Grove, Knox Chapel, and Zion.

Marion took great pleasure and interest in the youth groups at each of his appointments. His influence led several youth members to eventual ministerial commitments. He also served as a counselor with United Nations Seminars for high school students.

Marion devoted his time and energy to leading building teams on mission trips to Central America and other areas outside the United States. He led a Western North Carolina Conference building team into Cancun, Mexico, to construct the first Methodist church and then preached the initial sermon.

Marion came to draw great strength, comfort, direction, and courage from his personal prayer life. He was often described as the "Visiting Pastor" by church members, visitors, hospitals, community friends, and homebound individuals.

Among Marion's most gratifying occasions was witnessing his eldest son, Joseph Marion Fulk, Jr., being taken into the ministry. A few years later, Marion was also able to see his grandson, Joseph Marion Fulk III, accepted into the ministry. Three generations of the Fulk family answered the call to serve our Lord and Savior.

The Rev. Joseph Marion Fulk passed away Friday, June 14, 2013, at his home in Kannapolis, N.C. He is survived by his wife, Lucy Creed Fulk; two daughters, Ann F. Newsome (Ronnie) and Pepper F. Triplet (Jon); two sons, Joseph M. Fulk, Jr., (Dianne) and Colon R. Fulk (Pam); 10 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren. A service of remembrance, led by the Rev. David Raiford, the Rev. Steve Johnson, and the Rev. Joseph M. Fulk III, was held on Father's Day, June 16, 2013, at Mt. Mitchell United Methodist Church. Those in attendance could only rejoice for the life of this humble servant of God.

BEN TYRA GANTT, JR.

September 12, 1920 – January 29, 2014

Ben Tyra Gantt, Jr., was received into the fullness of God's presence when he died on January 29, 2014, at the Hospice House of Rutherford County. A native of Cleveland County, he was the son of the late Ben T. Gantt, Sr., and Lou Lutz Gantt. He was preceded in death by his loving wife of 65 years, Lourene Walker Gantt. His children are Connie Lail and her husband, Ronnie, of Rutherfordton, and Larry Gantt and his wife, Ann, of Connelly Springs. Two grandchildren, Rachel Owenby and her husband, Nickey, and James Lail and his wife, Elexus, also survive. Four great-grandsons are Avery, Elijah, and Jackson Lail, and Nick Owenby.

Ben graduated from Belwood High School and then answered the call to serve his country in World War II. He served in the U.S. Army Air Corps as a radio operator beginning in 1941. After the war, Ben attended Western Carolina University, earning an undergraduate degree, and then Duke University, completing a master's degree in mathematics. He taught mathematics in Reidsville and at Converse College in Spartanburg, S.C., and was the principal of Sunny View Elementary School in Rutherford County for many years.

In 1970, Ben answered the call to full-time service in Christ's church. He was licensed as a local pastor in 1970, ordained a deacon in 1971, and then achieved full connection/elder status in 1978. Ben faithfully served many churches, in the Marion District primarily, including: Hildebran, 1970-1973; Old Fort-Ebenezer, 1973-1976; St. Matthews, 1976-1980; Friendship-Shady Grove, 1980-1983; Providence-Cool Springs, 1983-1985; and Bethel-Oak Forest in Morganton, 1985-1986. He took the retired status in 1986, and he later served Bollinger's Chapel and Hildebran again.

Ben's gentle spirit, humility, and steadfast dedication to the Lord were evident to all who knew him. Wherever he was appointed, Ben developed deep relationships with the people he served. He often grew and freely distributed produce from his garden to neighbors and friends in the community. Ben was a man of keen intellect, a reader and writer of poetry, and one who embraced lifelong learning. He clung to the simple things of life and found life and love in family and friends. Ben mentored many young pastors, including me in my first appointment, and always gave sage advice when solicited. A trusted friend and confidante to many, Ben epitomized dignity and selflessness.

Family and friends celebrated the life of this humble servant on January 30, 2014, with the Rev. Ned Owens officiating. "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God" are appropriate words to remember in celebrating the life of Ben Gantt.

JACK DEMPSEY HARRIS

March 24, 1925 – August 13, 2013

After he was born on Tuesday, March 24, 1925, Jack Dempsey Harris' father and mother, James and Leala Bostic Harris, named him for one of America's favorites at the time: William Harrison "Jack" Dempsey, boxing heavyweight champion from 1919 to 1926. Jack later proved pugnacious indeed in pursuing his goals to be educated, to marry, and to be one of God's servants as a pastor.

He had to overcome some daunting odds to do so. His mother died when he was four and a half years old, leaving behind his father to care for him and his twin sisters who were only one-and-a-half years old when she died. The Kings Mountain family somehow stayed together until January 1935, however, when an aunt talked to a local Wesleyan Methodist pastor about the children going to Hepzibah Children's Home in Macon, Ga. The three of them went.

Something about Jack stood out to another Wesleyan Methodist pastor in Pennsylvania, who began visiting Jack whenever he was in the South. When he was 16, the pastor invited him to move into his home and become a part of a new family. Three years later, when Jack's sisters became 16, they joined their brother in the new family. Now living in Orchard Park, N.Y., Jack had graduated from high school and was working at Curtiss Aircraft nearby.

To work on his goal of being educated, he attended Bob Jones University in Cleveland, Tenn., for one year before enrolling in nearby Houghton

College. Jack graduated from Houghton, having studied theology, homiletics, Greek, and Bible, as well as liberal arts courses. While still working on his studies, he met all the requirements of The Wesleyan Methodist Church to be fully ordained. He was 21 years old at the time. The Wesleyan Church asked him to organize a church in Cuba, N.Y., at the same time. He married Betty Jean Tickner his junior year at Houghton, and a year later in 1948, he received his degree and a daughter, Sharon Louise.

The family moved to Grand Rapids, Mich., to be nearer his wife's family. While working there, he made a call on a Methodist pastor in Coopersville. That minister was secretary of the annual conference, and he urged Jack to consider the Methodist ministry. Shortly afterward, Jack got a call from the Grand Rapids District superintendent, who talked to him long enough to offer him a church in Kent City. In January 1949, he and his family moved into a rented house there, and Jack became a Methodist pastor.

In Spring 1950, while visiting in Gastonia, Jack thought about the Michigan winters and talked to the district superintendent about a church. The superintendent didn't have any openings, but he had a friend in the Virginia Conference who needed someone to fill a church in Bloxom in the East Shore District. Jack agreed to the "quid pro quo" of serving two years on the Virginia coast for an appointment in the Western North Carolina Conference.

In 1950, Jack, who was an elder in the Wesleyan Methodist Church and who had been on trial and ordained elder in the Methodist Church in Virginia, was transferred as a member in full connection and appointed to Pisgah-High Shoals in the Gastonia District. His appointments included: Pisgah-High Shoals, Lincoln, Gastonia District, 1951-1953; Moore's Chapel, Charlotte, 1953-1958; North, Salisbury, 1958-1963; Homestead, Charlotte, 1963-1968; Ebenezer, Belmont, Gastonia District, 1968-1974; Shiloh, Granite Quarry, Salisbury District, 1974-1978; Black Mountain, Asheville District, 1978-1982; and First Thomasville, 1982-1989.

While serving Shiloh, Jack and his wife divorced in 1974. His daughter, who had graduated from the University of Georgia and was living in Connecticut, was killed in an automobile accident in 1975. On March 27, 1977, Jack married Sarah Josephine Cheatwood Davis who had three children: Michael Davis, Gerald Davis, and Annette Davis Daniels.

Jack retired in 1989, having reached his highest salary of $32,000 and given 44 years to ministry. He and Jo moved to Spartanburg, S.C., and became active in Central UMC.

"Tuesday's child" died "full of grace" on Tuesday, August 13, 2013.

R. (ROBERT) HAROLDEAN HIPPS

August 7, 1920 –February 3, 2014

The Rev. R. (Robert) Haroldean Hipps, a longtime Methodist minister and educator who pioneered development of several areas of leisure ministry and Christian education, went home to the arms of Jesus on Feb. 3 after a brief illness. He was 93.

A native of western North Carolina, Hipps was born and lived in Canton, in Haywood County, before he received his A.B. degree from High Point College (1946) and Master of Divinity degree from Duke Divinity School (1949). He was the son of Charles Hipps and Elise Stamey Hipps.

Hipps received his license in 1943, was ordained deacon in the Western North Carolina Conference in 1948 and was ordained elder in 1950. His first appointment was to West Market Street in Greensboro as associate pastor, 1949-1963.

He then moved to Nashville, Tenn., and joined the staff of the General Board of Education, Division of the Local Church, as director of Leisure/Recreation Ministries of the Methodist Church. He later added director of Leadership Development for Professional Christian Educators to his responsibilities. In 1973, he joined the staff of the General Board of Higher Education and Ministries of The United Methodist Church as associate general secretary of Lay Ministries, changing in 1978 to Diaconal Ministry. In 1979, he became director of Professional Development for Ministry until leaving GBHEM in 1985, to become the full-time executive officer of the Christian Educators Fellowship, until retirement in 1989.

Hipps was still in high school when he left home to join the circus. He broke into the big top shoveling elephant poo while traveling with the Wallace Bros. Circus for four months one summer. He later attended Ringling Bros. Clown College and appeared with that circus during Nashville stops. Thus the future minister and professor made his first foray into higher education amid big floppy shoes and red noses. While he ultimately found his calling in ministry, he never lost his love for adventure that led him to follow that circus, and he never stopped seeking out new experiences and especially new friends during the ensuing decades.

Hipps was also an expert square dance caller and a clogger, to boot. He even danced his way onto the Grand Ole Opry stage at the Ryman Auditorium as a substitute clogger.

In the leisure/recreation area, Hipps pioneered the development of leisure ministry training and a wide scope of national and international projects. He was an organizer of the National Recreation and Park Association and served three terms on its board of directors. He served four years as an American Protestant consultant to the Vatican Council on Leisure/Tourism.

Christian educators past and present owe much to Hipps, who worked tirelessly to develop leaders in the field, then became the "mover and shaker" in creating a national support group for those leaders, the Christian Educators Fellowship.

Hipps was a fearless champion of the rights and privileges, the service and the support of all lay professionals in the church. He helped bring into existence the Office of Lay Worker and guided the establishment of Conference Committees on the Lay Worker. Hipps served as the first and only associate general secretary for the Division of Lay Ministries of The United Methodist Church.

When the Christian Educators Fellowship (CEF) was organized in 1967, Hipps served as the executive officer part-time while serving major staff assignments with the Board of Education, and later the Board of Higher Education and Ministry. Upon his retirement from the board in 1985, he became the first full-time staff employee of CEF as executive officer.

Hipps retired from CEF in 1988, so he could spend more time with his wife, Kitten (Kathryn), as well as volunteering at the Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum, teaching Elderhostel courses at Vanderbilt, Scarritt, and Epworth By The Sea at St. Simons Island, Ga.

Hipps' industrious interpretation of retirement also led to his forming and serving as president of R and Associates, which provided professional meeting management and program planning. With more than 50 years of experience in meeting design, planning, management and leadership, Hipps held the distinctive honor of a certified meeting planner (CMP) and in 1995 received the first ever Legend Award for long, distinguished, and meritorious leadership in the meetings industry and service to meeting professionals from the Tennessee Meeting Professionals International.

R. Harold Hipps married Kathryn Middlebrooks on February 24, 1956, and they had two sons, Jeffery Gordon Hipps (July 21, 1958-January 4, 2000) and Dr. Daniel Baldwin Hipps (July 12, 1962). Hipps was preceded in death by his parents, Charles and Elise Hipps, brother Trevelyn Hipps, and son Jeff Hipps. He is survived by his wife, Kitten, son Dr. Dan Hipps, daughter-in-law Kim Hipps, and grandson Evan, all of Nashville, Tenn.; his sister, Ruth Hipps Hauser and Wayne Hauser; and nephews Johnny and Dewayne Houser of Gastonia, N.C.

A celebration of the Rev. R Harold Hipps' life and homegoing was held Saturday, February 15, 2014, at West End United Methodist Church in Nashville. He had planned his own celebration, and it was carried out as planned by Dr. Michael Williams, senior pastor. Memorials were given to West End's "Living Church Fund."

THEODORE SCHOTT HOFFMANN

April 3, 1930 – July 19, 2013

The Rev. Theodore Schott Hoffmann went to be with the Lord on Friday, July 19, 2013, at the age of 83. He was surrounded by his loving family and wife of 60 years. He was born in Dunbar, W.Va., to Russell and Eva Schott Hoffmann. He was preceded in death by his two brothers, John and Richard. Those who are left to cherish his memory include his wife of 60 years, Carolyn Campbell Hoffmann; daughter Lorie Hoffmann Lowell and her husband, Bill; son Brian of Little River, S.C.; and granddaughters Chelsea Leigh and Alyssa Grace Lowell. His memorial service was held at Mt. Zion UMC in Cornelius on August 2, 2013.

He graduated from Dunbar High School in 1948 where he thoroughly enjoyed playing the trumpet in the marching band and made many friends for life. A lifelong Methodist, he attended a Methodist summer camp for young people interested in pursuing a career in ministry at Buckhannon, W.Va., where he met Carolyn Sue Campbell and sparks flew. Carolyn was already at Duke University, and Ted transferred there and received his A.B. in psychology in 1953, and his Master of Divinity in 1957. Ted and Carolyn married in Summersville, W.Va., on August 30, 1952. Ted's first pastorate was in Morven, N.C., where he served from 1955-1959. He then transferred to North Broadway UMC, Columbus, Ohio, where he served as the associate minister. While Ted and Carolyn were in Columbus, they started their family with the adoption of their son, Brian Campbell Hoffmann (born January 27, 1961). Ted returned to North Carolina in 1961 and served as chaplain of The Methodist Home in Charlotte. Ted and Carolyn adopted their daughter, Mary Lorraine "Lorie" Hoffmann in 1963 (born September 24, 1962). Ted served as chaplain until his retirement in 1992.

The son of a mechanic, Ted could fix or repair anything and enjoyed repairing and cleaning clocks and watches for co-workers. A busy man, Ted was a member of the Order of St. Luke, conference director of the Golden Cross (1988-2000), chairperson of the Conference Commission of Health and Human Services (1992-1996), member of the N.C. Chaplains Association and president of N.C. Chaplains from 1982-1984, and Peer Reviewer for EAGLE (UM Association of Health and Welfare) from 1994-2006.

Ted enjoyed attending Mt. Zion UMC in Cornelius and loved singing in the choir and teaching Sunday School there. Ted received an honorary doctor of divinity from Pfeiffer University in 1980 and joyfully began the Theodore S. Hoffmann Scholarship. It pleased him very much to help others in off-setting the cost of higher education, particularly at a Methodist institution. He will be remembered for his honesty, steadfastness and generosity with the church, friends, and family.

JESSE LOUIS JOHNSON, JR.

March 15, 1918 – July 31, 2013

The Rev. Jesse Louis Johnson, Jr., was born in Siler City, N.C., on March 15, 1918. He was one of 10 children born to the late Jesse Louis Johnson and Eleanor Pugh Johnson. Jesse weighed only 3 pounds at birth. When the doctor told his mother that he would not survive, she replied, "We'll just have to see what the Lord and I can do."

Jesse was a high school valedictorian and went on to graduate from High Point College (B.A.) in 1943, and from the Divinity School at Duke University (M.Div.) in 1946.

While a student at High Point College, Jesse met Agnes Ward, whose father was the pastor of Oak View Methodist Church in High Point, N.C. In 1945, they married and raised three children: Edgar Johnson of Pasadena, Calif.; Ann Harwell of Raleigh, N.C.; and Daphne Saul of Fresno, Calif. Jesse and Agnes were married for 46 years when Agnes died in 1992.

Before her death, Agnes encouraged Jesse to marry again, and indeed, he fell in love and married Virginia Tucker, who died in 2012.

Jesse was licensed to preach in 1939 and admitted into the Western North Carolina Conference on trial in 1945, ordained a deacon in 1946, and received into full connection and ordained an elder in 1947. Over the next 37 years, he faithfully served eight appointments. They were: the Guilford Circuit, 1946-1949; Sparta, 1949-1953; Bethlehem-Bess Chapel, 1953-1957; Wilkesboro, 1957-1963; Maiden: First, 1963-1966; Thomasville: First, 1966-1970; Concord: Forest Hill, 1970-1977; and Charlotte: Memorial, 1977-1983. After retirement in 1983, Jesse served as the associate pastor at Charlotte: Cokesbury for another three years.

He was a thoughtful preacher and caring pastor. In all of his appointments, Jesse was gifted in his ability to grow churches spiritually, as well as numerically. He took seriously the admonition given to every ordinand to "visit house to house" and made a point of visiting everyone he could. Jesse cared deeply for the people in his churches and the communities he served, and he was loved and respected for this.

Having minored in vocal music at High Point College, he loved to teach hymns to the people in his churches. Sometimes the whole Johnson family, including Jesse, would be singing in the choir. He knew singing was a way to help people understand and express their faith, but it was also a way for Jesse to express the joy that was deep in his soul.

Jesse was tireless and energetic all his life and this didn't change in retirement. He painted houses – his own, those of friends and even an episcopal residence – refinished furniture and planted abundant gardens. All these skills he learned from his farmer father. He also found more time for his other passion, golf, and played several times a week. In fact, six weeks before his death, he won the Aldersgate Golf Tournament.

Jesse loved his family, and while many of them moved outside of North Carolina over the years, he still visited them.

After a brief illness, Jesse died July 31, 2013, at Aldersgate Retirement Center in Charlotte where he had lived for the last 21 years. He was 95 years old. In addition to his three children, he is survived by seven grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren, and one brother.

A service celebrating Jesse's life and ministry was held on August 5, 2013, at Myers Park United Methodist Church in Charlotte. Since Jesse loved singing and was known throughout the conference for leading "hymn sings," the service began with the congregation singing some of the hymns Jesse had chosen for the service and included music and readings provided by his children and their families. The Rev. Dr. James Howell and the Rev. Dr. Al Ward, whom Jesse called "my preacher nephew," officiated.

RAYMOND HOWARD KIRK, SR.
April 19, 1925 – April 30, 2013

The Rev. Raymond Howard Kirk, Sr., entered into the eternal rest of his Savior, Jesus Christ, on April 30, 2013, in Melbourne, Fla.

Born April 19, 1925, in Kansas City, Mo., Ray was the second of four sons born to Ernest and Alice Kirk. Growing up on the east side of Kansas City during the years of the Great Depression, he had fond memories of his loving and close-knit family. He and his brothers helped in the family produce business, played sandlot baseball in the hot summers, and grew up with a love for family and an inner self-confidence which would follow them through their lives.

Upon graduation from Central High School in 1942, Ray answered his nation's call and enlisted in the Army Air Corps that same year, eventually being commissioned as a second lieutenant. He trained as a pilot and eventually flew B-17s when the war ended. Returning to Kansas City, Ray met Nancy Galpin, a vivacious and pretty young girl from the neighborhood. They fell in love and married on January 10, 1946. It was a marriage that would last 67 years. From their union, the Lord blessed them with three sons: Ray Jr., David and Wayne (twins), 10 grandchildren, and eight great-grandchildren.

Ray graduated from Nebraska Wesleyan University in 1955, earning a bachelor's degree. He graduated from Garrett Theological Seminary in 1959, earning a Master of Divinity degree. He was licensed to preach in 1951. He was ordained as a deacon in 1957, in the Rock River Conference. He was ordained in as an elder in 1960, also in the Rock River Conference.

During his ministerial career, he served First United Methodist Church, Hallam, Neb. (Nebraska Conference), licensed to preach, 1951-1955; First UMC, Arlington Heights, Ill. (Rock River Conference), associate pastor, 1955-1956; First UMC, Winthrop Harbor, Ill. (Rock River Conference), student pastor, 1956-1960; Elk Grove Village, Ill. (Rock River Conference), organizing pastor, 1960-1963; First UMC, Aurora, Ill. (Rock River Conference), associate pastor, 1963-1965; First UMC, Worth, Ill. (Rock River Conference), pastor, 1965-1969; Elston Avenue UMC, Chicago, Ill. (Northern Illinois Conference), pastor, 1969-1975; First UMC, Mendota, Ill. (Northern Illinois Conference), pastor, 1975-1985; and Grace UMC, Blue Island, Ill. (Northern Illinois Conference), pastor, 1985-1988. In 1988, he transferred to the Western North Carolina Conference. He served Oakdale-Vickery, High Point District, 1988-1989; and Burnett's Chapel, High Point District, 1989-1991. He retired in 1991. In March 1997, he served as a supply pastor at Ebenezer Methodist Church in Nassau, Bahamas, and from 1992 until 2013, he taught the Wesley Sunday School Class at First UMC, Melbourne, Fla.

Ray was a tender man who deeply loved his wife, Nancy, his children, and his grandchildren. He never departed from his deep love of flying and by God's grace, he was able to fly privately for more than 50 years. He loved humor and "kidding" people. He always loved a deep theological discussion with close family that integrated the Truth of the scriptures with current events. But above all, Ray loved Jesus: for His countless blessings; for His infinite grace; and for saving his soul. By the merit of Christ alone, he has entered into the Rest of His Savior.

"Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master"

CARL ANDERSON LAIN
May 9, 1911 – June 25, 2013

The Rev. Carl Anderson Lain was called to be with the Lord on June 25, 2013. He was born to the Rev. Charles Anderson Lain and Bertha Albertson Lain on May 9, 1911. In addition to his parents, he had seven brothers, two sisters, and two half brothers who are all now joined in their heavenly home.

On August 3, 1929, the Rev. Lain and the former Ruby Marie Ballard were joined in holy matrimony. They were the proud parents of four children who were the pride of their lives. Their dedication to their children was to raise them in a Christian home surrounded by love. Surviving are two sons, Robert (Bob), James (Jimmy) and daughter Joyce Nesbit, husband Charles. Carl and Ruby also had six grandchildren. Preceding the Rev. Lain and Ruby in death was their youngest daughter, Barbara Ann Jones, great-granddaughter Karen Denise Nesbit, and daughter-in-law Jeanette Lain.

The Rev. Lain was a very active and successful businessman. He was associated with Hedgecock Lumber Company from 1947 until 1965, and served as president and general manager of Hedgecock Lain Lumber Company in Lexington, N.C., until 1965.

The Rev. Lain answered his calling to the Methodist Church, which he felt was the most important commitment in his life. After attending Louisburg College, he enrolled at Duke Divinity School. Upon receiving his divinity degree, the Rev. Lain was licensed as a minister by the Methodist Church in April 1954, at Oak View United Methodist Church, High Point, N.C. He was ordained as an elder at Lake Junaluska in June 1962. At that time, he entered the ministry as a full-time pastor. Over the span of his career, the Rev. Lain served Fairview, 1956-1960; Erlanger, 1960-1963; Mocksville Circuit, 1963-1966; Union Chapel, 1966-1969; Rockwell-Liberty, 1969-1970; Julian, 1970-1971; and Liberty, 1972-1976. Retired 1976.

The Rev. Lain was active in the mission field, serving on 12-week preaching missions in Panama, Columbia, and Costa Rica, in 1962 and 1965. He was appointed as team leader of the United Methodist Building Team projects of the Western North Carolina Conference for 23 years, serving in Mexico, Puerto Rico, Haiti, Jamaica, Costa Rica, and Panama. He was awarded the Certificate of Appreciation from the United Methodist Volunteers In Mission, Southeastern Jurisdiction of The United Methodist Church, in 1986.

The Rev. Lain was very active in every community he and his family lived in. He was a charter member serving in the offices of treasurer, vice president, president, and chairperson of the board of trustees for John Wesley Camp, an interdenominational camp meeting located in High Point. A refurbished dormitory was dedicated in honor of his 46 years of service, in June 1987. He was a Master Mason in the Lexington Masonic Lodge 473 for 51 years, president of the Oak View Lions Club in High Point, 1985-1986; Lion of the Year 1981-1982 and 1985-1986. The Rev. Lain served as a chaplain for the High Point Regional Hospital during 1980-1984.

The later years of his life were spent living in The Presbyterian Home, and moving to River Landing at Sandy Ridge when it replaced the Presbyterian Home. While at Presbyterian Home and River Landing, he was very active with his Christian life, holding vesper services and having many prayers with the residents living in the senior living center. At this time in the Rev. Lain's life, great pleasure was found with his playing in their homemade band instruments symphony. He played the jug. Many jokes were built around his playing the Little Brown Jug as they visited many church groups around the United States and made several shows for UNC-TV. He really enjoyed seeing himself on the TV and received many comments and letters for this.

Funeral services were held June 28, 2013, at First United Methodist Church of High Point, with the Rev. C.B. Barr, Jr., the Rev. Ray Broadwell, district superintendent, North Carolina Conference; and the Rev. Fran Moran officiating.

The celebration of life in honor of the Rev. Carl Lain was truly a fitting farewell to a servant of God called to be his good shepherd here on earth. He served God to the best of his ability. He never questioned the direction he was ordered to follow.

DONALD ROLLINS MCCORKLE, SR.

January 17, 1938 – April 9, 2014

The Rev. Donald Rollins McCorkle Sr., 76, was called home to be with the Lord on April 9, 2014, at Hospice of Presbyterian Hospital in Charlotte, N.C.

Born January 17, 1938, in Gaston County, he was the son of Mazon McCorkle and Sylvester Nixon McCorkle. In addition to his parents, he was also preceded in death by siblings, Harold McCorkle, Kay Francis Carter, and Mazon McCorkle, Jr.

The Rev. McCorkle attended and graduated from Reid High School in Belmont in 1957. On October 5, 1958, he married his childhood sweetheart, Frances Lorraine Faust of Belmont, beginning 55 years of devotion, friendship, and love. They had eight children: Donald McCorkle, Jr., Maurice L. McCorkle, Sonnie C. McCorkle Diafar, Crystal D. McCorkle, Tygeria S. McCorkle, Shannon C. McCorkle, Donna Hubert, and James Phillip.

The Rev. McCorkle was blessed with many talents as a great fisherman and a great welder. He worked at Westinghouse for 37 years and retired as welding supervisor. The Lord blessed him with many gifts. He was a loving husband and family provider. He was a source of inspiration and encouragement to everyone whom he met, leading him to his calling in the ministry.

The Rev. McCorkle began his official ministry when he was called to preach in 2000. He then attended the Course of Study at Duke University in Durham in 2001. The Rev. McCorkle served in the Western North Carolina Conference as local pastor and was appointed to Ebenezer UMC as senior pastor from 2001-2005 in the Charlotte District. He was supportive and led the church to obtain the first Five Star Award plaque, which was a great accomplishment for the church. Health issues and the strain of serving as senior pastor forced him to slow down in 2005-2006 with no appointment. He was appointed to Burge Memorial-Rock Hill Charge as local pastor assistant in 2006. The Rev. McCorkle retired from the pulpit due to declining health in 2008-2009. He continued his strong, unwavering faith in the Lord until his appointment with the Lord on April 9, 2014.

Funeral services for the Rev. McCorkle were Sunday, April 13, 2014, at his home church, Burge Memorial United Methodist Church, 312 W. Glendale Drive, Mount Holly. The pastor, the Rev. Shirley Lee Canty, officiated. The Rev. Dr. Vance Hunt delivered words of comfort. The visitation began at 1 p.m., followed by the funeral service at 2 p.m. at the church. Burial followed at West Creek Cemetery in Mount Holly.

ROBERT HOWARD MCDOWELL

January 16, 1930 – May 18, 2013

The Rev. Dr. Robert Howard McDowell, 83, of Gastonia, N.C., succumbed to cancer and entered into eternal life on Saturday, May 18, 2013. He was born January 16, 1930, to the late George McDowell, Jr., and Mary Edna Rozzelle McDowell in Stanley, N.C. He became a member of Springfield Baptist Church at an early age and was very active in the life of the church. After a short stay in the U.S. Army of five months and six days, the Rev. Dr. McDowell answered the call to the ministry at the age of 19. He was very active in the civil rights movement and was the local NAACP president for a period of time.

The Rev. Dr. McDowell was a graduate of Highland High School. He earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in English from Johnson C. Smith University in 1974, and he also earned a Master of Divinity degree from Hood Theological Seminary at Livingstone College in 1977. He was ordained elder in the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church in 1977 under Bishop L. Scott Allen. He received an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree from Emmanuel Baptist University in 1998.

During his years in active ministry, the Rev. Dr. McDowell served the following appointments: Brown's Chapel and Mott's Grove Methodist churches, 1950s; Galilee and St. Paul Methodist churches, 1959-1965; The Lowesville Circuit, which included five churches, 1968-1975; Durham and Philadelphia United Methodist churches, 1975-1981; and Simpson-Gillespie United Methodist Church, 1981-1983. He took a sabbatical leave in 1984. Returning from leave, he served Epworth and Mt. Pleasant United Methodist churches, 1985-1992, and Wells Spring and Mundy's Chapel United Methodist churches, 1992-1996. He retired in 1996.

The Rev. Dr. McDowell was a piano tuner by trade and tuned pianos all over Gaston, Mecklenburg, Cleveland, and Lincoln counties. He was often asked the question, "Reverend, how can you tune and not play?" He would quickly respond, "How can you play and not tune?" The Rev. Dr. McDowell had an insatiable love for reading, evidenced by his vast collection of books. He also wrote short stories, some of which became published. He loved beautiful music, especially the hymns of the church. He also loved to laugh and often entertained congregations with his jokes.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by six brothers: Leonard McDowell, George McDowell III, Dwight McDowell, Glenn McDowell, Clyde McDowell and Eugene McDowell. He leaves to cherish loving memories his wife of 54 years, Peggy Fishe McDowell of the home; his only daughter, Heather Taiasha McDowell of Charlotte, N.C.; one brother, Dillard Preston McDowell (Mary) of Stanley; and one grand puppy "Gizmo." Funeral services for the Rev. Dr. McDowell were held Wednesday, May 22, 2013, at Springfield Memorial Baptist Church in Stanley. The Rev. Albert Mills was the eulogist. Visitation began at 1 p.m., followed by the funeral service at 2 p.m. Entombment followed at Gaston Memorial Park Mausoleum in Gastonia.

WILLIAM TRACY MEDLIN, JR.

January 8, 1916 – December 24, 2013

The Rev. Dr. William Tracy Medlin, Jr., a resident of Arbor Acres United Methodist Retirement Home, died December 24, 2013, at the Kate B. Reynolds Hospice Home. He was born January 8, 1916, in Raleigh, the son of William Tracy Medlin, Sr., and Ruby Jones Medlin.

W.T. graduated from Hugh Morson High School in 1935, from Louisburg College in 1938, from Wofford College in 1940, and from Duke School of Religion (now Duke Divinity School) in 1943. He joined the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church in 1942. During his last year at Duke (1942-1943), he served the Roxboro Circuit as a student pastor. Upon graduation from Duke in 1943, he was assigned to the Hatteras Charge. On February 1, 1944, he was transferred to the Western North Carolina Conference where he served the following appointments: Hiwassee Circuit, 1944; Highlands, 1944-1945; Robbinsville Fontana, 1945-1948; Central: Clyde, 1948-1952; Faith: Gastonia, 1952-1956; Spindale, 1956-1960; Winston-Salem: Green Street, 1960-1962; Cherryville: First, 1962-1966; Albemarle: Central, 1966-1970; Greensboro: Centenary, 1970-1974; Marion District superintendent, 1974-1980; and Kannapolis: Trinity, 1980-1982. In 1982, W.T. retired but continued to serve in Haywood County for 20 more years, serving Faith, Frances Cove, and Fincher's Chapel, 1982-1985, and Crabtree-Davis Chapel, 1985-1996. He continued to serve Crabtree until 2002. He and June moved to Arbor Acres in Winston-Salem in September 2007.

W.T. was awarded an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree in 1977 by Pfeiffer College. He served as the secretary of the Western North Carolina Conference for seven years. In 1945, W.T. married June Thompson in Highlands Presbyterian Church in Highlands, and he shared a happy life with her until her death in December 2010. They had two sons: William Tracy Medlin III, born 1947, a pastor in the Western North Carolina Conference, and John Thompson Medlin, born 1951. Bill and his wife, Sarah, have three children. John and his wife, Nancy, have three sons. W.T. died December 24, 2013 after a brief illness. A memorial service was held on Saturday, January 4, 2014, at 2 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall and Worship Center of Arbor Acres. He was just 15 days short of his 98th birthday. Internment was held at the Crabtree United Methodist Church Cemetery in Clyde.

I first met W.T. when we entered Louisburg College as freshmen in 1936. When we transferred to Wofford College two years later, we became roommates and continued to room together during our three years at Duke. During these five years, we not only roomed together, we ate together, we studied together, and we dated together. I knew him better than I knew my own brothers. When I married, he was my best man. When he married two years later, I assisted June's uncle, Dr. Tollie Thompson, a professor at Union Theological Seminary, in the officiating. We remained the closest of friends across the years. In 1957, we purchased houses adjacent to each other at Lake Junaluska. After we retired, we lived there as neighbors for 17 years. W.T. was completely dedicated to June and his boys. Then came his grandchildren, followed by the great-grandchildren, and his pride increased. He had a great sense of humor. He genuinely liked people and enjoyed their company. His pastoral ministry was very effective. His excellent use of the English language increased his ability to proclaim "The Word" effectively. As a pastor dedicated to the service of Christ through The United Methodist Church, he found great joy in his work. He served his Lord through the Church in a most excellent way. Thanks be to God.

LOUIS MILES

November 15, 1932 – April 26, 2014

Louis Miles was born November 15, 1932, in Waverly, W.Va., son of Thomas and Blanche Miles. He graduated from high school at age 16. Too young to enter college, he went to work in the local bank where he was given the opportunity to make a career of banking. But characteristic of a lifelong learner, he opted to attend Berea College, graduating with an A.B. degree in 1954.

Feeling a call to some type of ministry vocation, he continued his education at the Boston University School of Theology, graduating with a Bachelor of Sacred Theology degree in 1957. While in seminary, he was admitted on trial and ordained deacon in the West Virginia Conference in 1955.

Upon graduation, Louis was recruited by the Oregon Annual Conference, where he served one year as an associate at First Methodist Church in Ashland, Ore. However, he began to realize that his ministry lay in teaching and he returned to Boston University to begin work on a Master of Sacred Theology degree, which he completed in 1962. He was admitted to the Oregon Conference in full connection and ordained elder in 1959.

In 1960, he heard about a small Methodist college in Brevard, N.C., applied, and was hired to teach religion and history. He became a member of the Western North Carolina Conference by transfer in 1962 and spent the rest of his active ministry teaching in the mountains of western North Carolina at Brevard College and later at Warren Wilson College.

Louis was a much beloved teacher at Brevard College from 1960 to 1973 and during that time he chaired the Division of Social Studies and Religion. For one year, he served on the five-member Presidential Council, appointed by the college trustees to oversee the college while the search for a new president was undertaken.

Louis had a profound and life-changing impact on the lives of many students in their formative years as a teacher of Old and New Testament at Brevard. His students still remember how he made the Old Testament prophets come alive and leap off the pages of the Bible with their mighty words. His lectures on the Sermon on the Mount were so powerful and profound that the words still reverberate today.

In 1973, he left Brevard College to become assistant professor and part-time chaplain at Warren Wilson College, where he remained until his retirement in 1994.

On August 31, 1977, Louis married Celia Hooper, who had also been a faculty member at Brevard College, and they made their home in Asheville, where she was on the faculty at Asheville-Buncombe Technical Community College.

Louis Miles was a lifelong learner and a true "Renaissance man." In addition to his graduate degrees from Boston University, he later went to Drew University and earned a Doctor of Ministry degree in 1979. Also, while still teaching full-time, he attended Asheville-Buncombe Technical College and earned a two-year A.S. degree in carpentry and cabinet-making, only one of his many interests.

In retirement, Louis continued earning degrees with another two-year A.S. degree from Haywood Community College in jewelry making and a Th.D. from Newburgh Theological Seminary. Shortly before his death, he completed another Master of Theology degree from Providence School of Theology, with a thesis on the theory and practice of worship in the Unitarian-Universalist Church. He also took a number of courses at UNC-Asheville.

In addition to these academic degrees and his artistic interests, Louis and Celia traveled extensively in Europe, especially in Italy. One of his academic interests was the history of the Shakers. Thus, he taught a course at Warren Wilson and lectured at the John C. Campbell Folk School on this subject. He wrote a novel which takes place in the Shaker community and collected a volume of short stories about Shaker life. He also authored several volumes of poetry. In his "spare time," Louis made most of his own clothes and was a gourmet cook. He was a master artisan at whatever he undertook.

We feel honored to have prepared this memoir with the significant help of his wife, Celia Miles. Betsy was a student of Louis Miles at Brevard College in the early 1960s, and he had a strong influence on her life. Wannie served with Louis on the Brevard College Presidential Council in 1968-1969 and taught with him in the Religion Department.

Louis Miles was a scholar, lifelong learner, devoted teacher, artist, writer, and good friend to many students and colleagues across the years of his teaching ministry and beyond. He exemplified what it means to live a life of service to others as well as becoming the truly authentic self God created him to be.

After a brief illness he died in Asheville on April 26, 2014. Friends and colleagues honored his life at a reception in Asheville on May 8, 2014, and a memorial service was held for him on May 14, 2014, at Wayside UMC in Vienna, W.Va.

Thanks be to God for the life of this unique and talented teacher and minister of the Gospel.

Wannie and Betsy Hardin

CHARLES RUSSELL MOORE

September 29, 1934 – January 15, 2014

The Rev. Charles Russell Moore, 79, loving father and grandfather, was placed into the arms of God and reunited with his sweet Rosemary and other family gone on before him, while surrounded by his daughters and grandchildren on Wednesday, January 15, 2014, at the Joan and Howard Woltz Hospice Home.

Charles was born September 29, 1934, in Asheville, to the late Arthur Decanter Moore and Hazel McElrath Moore. He attended Duke University Divinity School and went to undergraduate school at the University of Richmond. Charles was a true man of God who touched many lives. He served God until his last day. He saw many people through birth and baptism into marriage and then helped see them into their heavenly home. He made three pilgrimages to the Holy Land and baptized many in the Jordan River. Charles was an avid sports fan and an even bigger Duke fan.

During his tenure as a United Methodist pastor, he and his wife Rosemary served Bessemer City, Bethea UMC 1981-1982; South Point UMC, 1982-1985; Maylo UMC 1985-1989; LaFayette Street UMC, 1989-1992; and Bradley Memorial UMC, 1992-1995. His last appointment was the Fellowship Church in Ararat, Va., 1995-2001. He and his wife, Rosemary, chose to retire in this beautiful little town in the foothills of Virginia.

Left to cherish his memory are his daughters and sons-in-law, Cathy and David Lusk of Ararat, Va., and Joy and Jonathan Large of Ararat, Va.; grandchildren Kayla Siebert (Jon), Hannah Hobbs, Christian Ruscelloni, Elleigh Large, Nathan Large and Aubreigh Large; a very special mother-in-law, Nellie Wylie; sisters and brother-in-law, Freda Mainwaring of Monroe Township, N.J., and Nancy and John Gillespie of Pensacola, Fla.; first wife Joan Scott; and special extended family members, Ronald Hobbs and Marco Ruscelloni. In addition to his parents, Charles was preceded in death by his second wife, Rosemary Wylie; brothers Arthur Moore, Jr., Frank Moore and Alan Moore; and step-father Harry Weber. A celebration of life service was held on Saturday, January 18, 2014, at 1 p.m. at The Fellowship Church in Ararat, Va., conducted by the Rev. Monte Mitchell and grandson Christian Ruscelloni.

"We thought of you with love today,
"But that is nothing new.
"We thought about you yesterday.
"And days before that too.
"We think of you in silence.

"We often speak your name.
"Now all we have is memories.
"And your picture in a frame.
"Your memory is our keepsake.
"With which we'll never part.

"God has you in his keeping.
"We have you in our heart."

JAMES ALLEN NORTINGTON, SR.

October 21, 1921 – January 5, 2014

James Allen Northington was born in Washington County, Ga., to Mattie Hattaway Northington and Comer Northington, Sr. He had a most happy childhood spent on a Southern plantation, where he rambled the 400 acres of fields, woodlands, and streams hunting, fishing, and doing the fun things a boy enjoys. His father provided a homemade "Hoover buggy" and Old Nelle, a worn-out mule, for transportation, but mostly he was powered by his own skinny legs. He had a philosophy of "why walk if you can run." He spent lots of time and energy bringing rocks from the woods to landscape his mother's yard. His love of flowers and growing things lasted a lifetime.

James was the third of four children reared by his loving and devout Christian parents. Church was an integral part of James' life. He accepted Christ as his savior at an early age and sang his first solo and became a member at age 5 in the Ruth Aldred Memorial Methodist Church in Davisboro, Ga., where his father served as chairperson of the building committee. James' children were always fascinated by a photo showing him laying the second brick in the church building, as the youngest member of the church. In his old age, James stated there was never a time in his memory when he didn't know about and love Jesus.

James credited his mother's influence on him for his optimistic attitude. She taught him to jump out of bed every morning, rain or shine, and sing, "What a beautiful day it is today!" For most of their young lives, his children were awakened by James singing a beautiful Christian hymn. Praising God was a natural attribute of his life.

As a teenager, James was fortunate to have a couple from his church involved in youth ministry form a band in which James played the trombone. The Lillies carried the youth each year to Indian Springs Holiness Camp Meeting in Flovilla, Ga., where the band played for 10 days. Here, they were exposed to spiritual giants and preachers of commitment and holiness, such as Dr. Henry Clay Morrison, president of Asbury College; Dr. J.C. McPheters, president of Asbury Theological Seminary; Dr. Paul Rees, and Dr. John Church, Western North Carolina Conference evangelist.

James graduated from Davisboro High School in 1938 and attended Carolina Business College in Charlotte, N.C. Realizing he did not wish to pursue a career in business, he returned to rural Georgia. He was invited by a group who needed a bass singer to sing for a shut-in. At this home, he met Mary Cobb, whom he married on December 25, 1941. James proudly served in the USCG Merchant Marines during World War II. Upon returning, James farmed extensively, spent much time working in the church where he served as Church School superintendent, sang in the choir, and served on the Official Board. Always seeking a closer walk with the Lord, they joined three other couples in a prayer group. While attending a revival meeting in a neighboring community, James went to the altar, where God laid it on his heart to go into Christian ministry. Upon returning home, he went out to a silent place to seek God's guidance about this decision, and Mary knelt beside a chair and made a complete surrender of her will to God's. Neither of them spoke of the event, and when he returned to the church the next morning seeking an assurance of the call, he returned home to tell Mary. She told him she already knew. God had called him to preach!

James made immediate plans to sell his farms and enter college. His wonderful sister and brother-in-law, Louise and Everett Allen, opened an apartment in their home to the Northingtons and their four children, and in 1952 they moved to Charlotte and joined Dilworth Methodist Church. James enrolled in Charlotte College, now the University of North Carolina at Charlotte, and Mary entered the work world. James had always had a love for Asbury College, so after a year in Charlotte, they moved to Wilmore, Ky., and he enrolled in Asbury for a year and a summer. He served as a student pastor at Mt. Zion Methodist Church in Shakertown, Ky.

Dr. Frank Jordan, Charlotte District superintendent, and Dr. Charles Bowles contacted James with the news that the Hebron Charge in Monroe, N.C., wanted him as their pastor. They were looking for a minister with a family, and he certainly fit that description. He received his local pastor's license on August 5, 1954, and arrived to begin his first pastorate in the Western North Carolina Conference in October 1954. The charge consisted of Hebron, Bethel, and Mt. Carmel Methodist churches. A new church was built at Bethel. Remodeling and new construction was added at Hebron and Mt. Carmel during this pastorate. The support and encouragement he received at this first appointment helped prepare him for a happy and successful ministry for many years.

James graduated from High Point College in 1956. By choice, he completed the Courses of Study for Ministerial Training of the Methodist Church through summer sessions at Duke Divinity School and Candler School of Theology, and by correspondence courses at these institutions. He was ordained deacon on June 6, 1958, and elder on June 10, 1960.

He entered the ministry on an anointed call by God to serve his Heavenly Father and had a deep love and Godly fear of God. He did not fear the criticism of man but tried to be sure he pleased God in everything he did. He freely expressed his faith to anyone who would listen. He enjoyed the fellowship of peers and the teachings of professors who believed the Bible is the inerrant word of God. At one of the ministers' meetings he attended, James recalled to me that after he had expressed his views on a subject they were discussing, one of the fellow ministers remarked, "James is a rank conservative." James was not offended by this observation, rather he considered it a compliment. He believed there was only one way to eternal life and that was by the shed blood of Jesus Christ as a remission of sins. He held himself to high moral standards and taught others to do the same.

James had great rapport with his parishioners. They loved his Southern accent, his clear sounding voice, his love of music and the way he used music in his ministry. His love of the outdoors, hunting, fishing, and his background as a farmer made him popular with rural churchgoers. Shut-ins loved him because of his frequent visits. The sick and elderly loved his prayers. Church attendance was very good in his churches. His sermons were preached on a level the attendants understood. At the advice of his first district superintendent, he "stayed out" of the business of the WSCS, but he loved the faithfulness of the women of the church. He was always thrilled by the programs presented by the children. Realizing the importance of children and youth to the future of the church, he placed a lot of emphasis on their activities.

The Rev. Northington served the following United Methodist churches: Hebron, Bethel, and Mt. Carmel of the Hebron Charge, Monroe, October 1954-1958; Moore's Chapel, Charlotte, 1958-1962; Rehobeth, Greensboro, 1962-1966; Bethel, Greensboro, 1966-1969; Shiloh, Lexington, 1969-1977; Central, Denton, 1977-1981; and Coburn Memorial, Salisbury, 1981-1985; when he took early retirement because of his health. He served as a member on the Board of Pensions of the Western North Carolina Conference for several years.

James and Mary built a retirement home in Holiday Shores on Lake Tillery and retired there, where they pursued their favorite hobbies of fishing and growing flowers. James served as caretaker and Mary as secretary and treasurer of the association for a number of years. They attended

Main Street United Methodist Church in Albemarle, N.C., for 19 years, and in 2004 they moved to Thomasville, N.C., to be nearer their children. Their daughter, Mary, and her family attended Mt. Zion Wesleyan, and the Northingtons attended there until James was called to be with the Lord.

Preceding James in death were his son, Ralph, and a great-granddaughter, Sarah Bozardt. He is survived by his wife, Mary, and children Janice N. Bozardt, James Allen Northington, Jr., Mary N. Beasley, Beth N. Evans, and Sandi N. McClanahan and their spouses. Eleven grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren, and a great-great-grandchild also bless this family. After being blessed with 92 years of living and 72 years of marriage, James went to be with the Lord on January 5, 2014. A celebration of the Rev. Northington's life was held January 10 at Mt. Zion Wesleyan Church, in Thomasville, with Dr. Keith Carroll, Dr. Chris Fitzgerald, and grandson Matthew Beasley officiating. Daughter Janice N. Bozardt sang Great is Thy Faithfulness, and daughter Sandi N. McClanahan read a poem she'd written for her Dad. Grandson Jamie Northington recounted many precious memories and performed When the Saints Go Marching In and I'll Fly Away with a jazz ensemble for the burial. James was buried in the church cemetery.

I enjoyed being the helpmate to this man of God! I have utter faith that when God called him home the greeting was, "Well done, good and faithful servant."

DERRELL LLOYD PARRIS

September 13, 1934 – November 19, 2013

The Rev. Derrell Lloyd Parris passed away on November 19, 2013, while in the care of Hospice at his home. He was surrounded by his loving family. Derrell was a native of Landrum, S.C., and was born on September 13, 1934. He was the only child of William Lloyd and Maysie Forrester Parris.

He was a graduate of the Landrum Public Schools and played basketball and baseball during his high school years. He attended Spartanburg Methodist College (Spartanburg Junior College) and received a B.A. degree from Scarritt College in Nashville, Tenn., and then in 1965, he received a master's degree in theology from Candler School of Theology at Emory University in Atlanta, Ga.

He was predeceased by his parents and his wife, Louise Tweed Parris, in 2005. Survivors are daughter Laura Louise Larsen and her husband, Jeffrey, of Charlotte; two grandchildren, Michael Larsen and his wife, Melissa, and Jennifer Schultz and her husband, Dean. Derrell had four great-grandchildren, Zachary, Sophia, Owen, and Graham, and two very special cousins, Janice Forrester Adams and her husband, John, of North Augusta, S.C., and a number of nieces and nephews.

The Rev. Parris served as a pastor in the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church. Early appointments included the Bald Creek Charge, 1958-1960; Calvary Methodist associate pastor of education, Charlotte, 1960-1962; and chaplain of the North Georgia Methodist Children's Home, 1962-1965. He was ordained deacon in 1964 and elder in 1966 and received into full conference membership in 1966.

Appointments in later years included the Dellwood charge, 1965-1968; Boonville-Mitchells Chapel, 1968-1972; Shiloh-Granite Quarry, 1972-1974; Weddington, 1974-1978; Purcell-Big Springs, 1978-1984; Trinity, 1984-1988; St. Luke, 1988-1992; Covenant in Gastonia, 1992-1996; and West End in Thomasville, 1996-1997. At his retirement in 1997, he received a commendation for 40 years of service to The United Methodist Church.

During Derrell's life, he enjoyed fishing, golfing, and watching all sports. He also enjoyed telling a good joke and hearing one, too.

Visitation was held on Saturday, November 23, 2013, from 12:30 to 2 p.m. at McEwen's Funeral Home located at Sharon Memorial Park, 5716 Monroe Road, Charlotte. A celebration of life was held at 2 p.m. after the visitation. Burial was at Sunset Memorial Gardens at 3:30 p.m. The Rev. Gerald Ramsey and the Rev. Keith Howell conducted the service, and Dottie Ramsey and Aaron Ratcliffe provided special music. The pallbearers were Roy Casstevens, Mark Hucks, David Casstevens, Bryan Moore, George Pounds, and Tom Ratcliffe.

Donations may be made to Hospice and Palliative Care Charlotte Region, 1420 E. Seventh St., Charlotte, N.C., and also to The Louise Tweed Parris Educational Endowment. Please send a check to the Carolinas HealthCare Foundation at PO Box 32861, Charlotte, NC 28232, and note that your gift is in memory of Louise and Derrell Parris.

JOHN JAMES POWELL

September 15, 1917 – December 24, 2013

The Rev. John James Powell was born in Polk County, N.C., on September 15, 1917, the son of the Rev. Hubert Lee Powell and Margaret V. Hague Powell. His father was a Methodist minister, serving as a missionary in Cuba early in his career. J.J., surrounded by a large family with four sisters and two brothers, learned how to be resourceful, even when his father's salary was paid in cord wood just before a move. While his father was minister at Mount Pleasant, J.J. graduated from high school and then went on to Brevard College. While a student at Brevard, J.J. felt the calling to become a minister, changing career paths from medicine after spending a sleepless, starlit night on the side of a hill asking for God's guidance. He continued his college education at Lenoir-Rhyne College, where he received an A.B. degree in 1939, and then at Duke Divinity School, where he received a B.D. degree in 1944. While attending meetings at Lake Junaluska, he met and fell in love with Martha Lee Martin, and they were married July 21, 1942. They had two children, the Rev. Dr. James Lee Powell, who following his father's example became a Methodist minister, and Dr. Martha Jane Powell, who following her mother's precedent became an educator. Martha Lee Martin Powell passed away in 1981 from a brain tumor despite the loving care J.J. gave her. On March 13, 1983, he married Irene C. Murphy, with whom he shared retirement years until her death in 2008. At the age of 90, J.J. proposed marriage to Anne Elizabeth Bennett Dodd, a long-time family friend dating back to their Duke University days who is also the child of a Methodist minister. They were married February 15, 2009, with son James Lee performing the ceremony at Alexander United Methodist Church where J.J. was still minister. They had almost five years to share in the ministry of the church, to care for each other during times of illness, and to entertain each other with their telling of stories.

J.J. became a member of the Western North Carolina Conference on October 23, 1942, and was admitted into full connection in 1944. He was ordained as a deacon in 1942, and as an elder in 1944. He filled appointments at: Main Street and Rowan, Salisbury, 1938-1939; Lee's Chapel, Greensboro, 1941-1943; Lindsey Street (now First Church), Reidsville, 1943-1946; Purcell (first called Camp Greene), Charlotte (which he organized), 1946-1950; Thrift, Charlotte, 1950-1951; Epworth, Concord, 1951-1955; Boger City, 1955-1959; Mt. Olivet, Kannapolis, 1959-1960; Calvary, Greensboro, 1960-1963; Hoyle Memorial, Shelby, 1963-1965; First Church Sylva, 1965-1969; Sedge Garden, Kernersville, 1969-1972; Proximity, Greensboro, 1972-1975; Oak Grove in Ellenboro-Salem in Bostic, 1975-1979; and Concord in Catawba-Hopewell in Sherrills Ford, 1979-1983. He retired in 1983 and was appointed to the Mill Spring Charge in Polk County, 1983-1988, and then Alexander in Forest City, 1988-2013.

J.J. was a historian. His B.D. thesis was "The Origins and History of the Methodist Camp Meeting Movement in North Carolina." He preached at camp meetings himself, at Climax and Ball's Creek. He served as secretary of the Conference Commission on Archives and History. In retirement, he was active in the Polk County Historical Association.

J.J. served his conference in many ways. One of the most notable is the many years he served as conference registration secretary. He also served on numerous committees including, Conference Board of Christian Social Concerns, District Camp Board, Conference Committee on Publications, District Committee on Ordained Ministry, District Mission Society, District Committee on Communications, and District Council on Ministries.

J.J. was a builder. He built a log cabin on land at the Powell family home place that was a constant work-in-progress and the getaway place for family vacations and gatherings, a site where he taught his children the Christian's responsibility of caring for and protecting God's creation. The cement slab front porch to the cabin remains unfinished to this day, because J.J. was called back from a family vacation for pastoral responsibilities and ministering to a family in death. He had worked and farmed the bottom lands at the home place as a boy, and wherever the conference sent him he enjoyed the magic of planting seeds and harvesting produce from his gardens as an adult. With the assistance of a fellow minister, he prepared for his eventual retirement and built his retirement home in the foothills of the mountains in Polk County and enjoyed it for more than 30 years. He also was a builder as a minister. One of his earliest appointments was Purcell in Charlotte, which met in a motorcycle showroom before building the church and expanding the congregation. During his ministry at Boger City Methodist Church, a new parsonage was built. While serving Epworth in Concord, he worked nights with others in rebuilding Center Church and organizing its membership.

Throughout his life, the calling to serve God through ministry to others was a steadfast roadmap. In his senior years, still serving as a minister, he would state, "As long as the Lord has a need for me, I want to serve." He did not believe in making decisions based on political expediencies, but in "doing the right thing for the right reason." He strongly believed the church was not a building but the people who filled the building and the church should serve the community and the world. In 1958, Boger City Methodist Church sent J.J. on a mission trip to Cuba through the International Evangelism Exchange program, and he could stand in places where his father had served decades before. He, along with other ministers, was able to work with the Cuban Methodist minister the church supported. J.J. worked diligently in preparation of his sermons, the Holy Bible and Interpreter's Bible at his side. He was a master of storytelling and loved humor, both of which were woven into his sermons. Many themes were perpetuated through his sermons for adults and children, and they echo again as we miss J.J.'s presence with us on earth: live life with a purpose; care for those who care the least about themselves; how wondrous is God's love and forgiving mercy; we are stewards of all of creation; live life such that you are worthy of God's grace.

J.J. served the people of his region, his congregation, and his calling to the end. He worked closely with the local Yokefellow Service Center and its mission as a crisis-relief agency, and he was president of the Tryon Lions Club at the time of his death. He preached on Sunday, visited a sick church member in the hospital on Thursday, became ill the following Sunday morning, and passed away from a pulmonary embolism two days later on Christmas Eve, December 24, 2013, in Polk County. On the day of his funeral, members of Alexander United Methodist Church testified to the meaning J.J. had brought to their own lives in his 26 years of ministry with this church. At the funeral, young ministers spoke of being blessed by his jokes and stories, but even more importantly by his inspirational support of them in the ministry.

J.J. loved music. On the morning of the day of his death, he was saddened that he might not be able to make it to the church service the upcoming Sunday and would miss the choir's Christmas music presentation. Often, while traveling in the car, he would sing gospel hymns, among them I'll Fly Away. So we can imagine his spirit soaring as it leaves this earth with faith in an eternal greeting, "Well done my good and faithful servant."

The funeral service was held on December 29, 2013, at Alexander United Methodist Church in Rutherfordton, with the burial service following at Lebanon United Methodist Church in Polk County, with the Rev. John Boggs and the Rev. Ned Owens officiating.

BAXTER WILLIAM PROFFITT

July 13, 1931 – December 1, 2013

Baxter William Proffitt was at home when he entered the Church Triumphant in the early hours of Sunday, December 1, 2013, with family members at his side. He was born in Watauga County on July 13, 1931 to the late Henry and Mae Norris Proffitt. Baxter made his profession of faith at Pleasant Valley Methodist Church, but he grew up attending Hopewell Methodist Church, for he was descended from those who gave land for the church and cemetery. Hopewell is also where Baxter responded to the call to ministry. He married Geneva Main on September 20, 1950, whom he had known since early childhood. They were blessed with six children: Julia Ann Proffitt Owenby of Kingsport, Tenn. (born January 1, 1954); David Baxter Proffitt (born August 15, 1955, died April 27, 2006); Margaret Elizabeth Proffitt Bowman of Morristown, Tenn. (born December 13, 1956, and married to Scott Bowman); Barbara Kay Proffitt Blood of Mount Airy (born January 19, 1958, and married to Larry Blood); Charles Harrison Proffitt of Lenoir (born August 27, 1960); and Martha Gail Proffitt-

Kernodle of Mount Airy (born October 14, 1964). Baxter is also survived by 11 grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren; a sister and brother-in-law, Viola and Russell Norris; and a sister-in-law, Mary Nell Proffitt.

Baxter worked for years as a logger and operated a sawmill. In the early 1960s, Baxter felt God calling upon his heart to enter the ministry. This was quite a struggle for him, given his love for the logging industry. He was licensed to preach in July 1964, received his first appointment in 1966, and was ordained deacon in 1968. Baxter served Red Hill-Tipton Hill, 1966-1968; Nathan's Creek, 1968-1972; Hot Springs, 1972-1975; Ebenezer (Catawba County), 1975-1977; Rocky Springs, 1977-1979; South Macon Charge, 1979-1981; and Surry Circuit, 1981-1982. Baxter did not receive an appointment in 1982, and in 1983 he was discontinued as a local pastor. He was reinstated as a local pastor in 1994, when he entered the retired relationship. Following his years as a pastor, Baxter remained in Mount Airy, working as a logger and operating a sawmill. This writer first heard about Baxter Proffitt nearly 30 years ago while serving the South Macon Charge, which Baxter had previously served. He was remembered by the people of that charge as one who loved the Lord and who loved people. He was a bit of a shock to some of the members of that charge, for he was the first pastor that they had seen on a motorcycle. He was most appreciated by the people there as one who identified himself as one of them – a mountain man with no false pretenses. He was there to love the people and do whatever he could to help them. It was quite a surprise to both of us to meet years later at Central United Methodist Church, Mount Airy, where his wife, Geneva, is a member. Reminiscing about the churches and people whom he had served brought him joy during his months of declining health.

The funeral service for Baxter Proffitt was conducted on December 3, 2013, at Howell Funeral Home, Mount Airy, with the Rev. Dr. Roger Gilbert, senior pastor of First Baptist Church, Mount Airy, and this writer officiating. A graveside service and burial followed at Hopewell Community Church in Watauga County that same afternoon, with the Rev. Charles E. McDowell and this writer officiating.

CHARLES LEE ROWLAND

April 26, 1929 – March 19, 2014

The Rev. Charles (Chuck) Lee Rowland was born in Money, Miss., on April 26, 1929. He was one of six sons born to Bishop and Inez Rowland. Shortly after his birth, the family moved to Greenwood, Miss., where he grew up and attended school. Upon graduation from high school he attended Ole Miss, where he received his B.S. degree.

Soon after completing his education, Chuck enlisted in the U.S. Marine Corp. on October 25, 1950. Being called to serve his country during the Korean War, he served faithfully with courage. During the battle of Chosin Reservoir, his brother was killed, when a motor shell fell among several of his comrades. He was granted permission to escort his brother's body home. Shortly after the funeral service, he returned back to Korea to complete his tour of duty. During this battle at Chosin Reservoir, Chuck was wounded and required extensive reconstructive surgery. After eight years of faithful service, he was discharged in 1958, receiving seven commendations – one of which was the Purple Heart medal. After his return to civilian life, Chuck had a successful career in the textile industry, where he worked until 1979.

On July 8 1967, Charles "Chuck" Lee Rowland and Lois Ruth Mitchell were joined in holy wedlock. Theirs was a life of dedication and service. During their years together, they served as foster parents to 49 children, five of which they adopted and raised as their own, along with two girls by a previous marriage. Terry McGinn of Taylors, S.C.; Beth Rogers of Hiddenite, N.C.; Bobby Rowland of Seagrove N.C.; Barbara Hodges of Reidsville, N.C.; Laura Beggan of Louisville, Ky.; Sarah Campbell of Silk Hope, N.C., and Terry Rowland of Chapel Hill, N.C.; Grandchildren Bryan, Josh, Tiffany, Niki, Devan, Nikki, Ayden, Gavin, Chelsey, Hagan, and Kaydee; Great-grandchildren, Jordan, Drake, Weston, and Ethan.

In 1979, after retiring from the textile industry, Chuck was called again to do battle. However this battle was for the souls of men! Faithfully, he once again accepted the challenge, enrolling in the Duke Course of Study. He received his license to preach. In 1985, he received his Deacons orders and continued to serve churches in the Western North Carolina Conference from 1979, to his retirement in 2005. His Service Record includes: Watauga from 1979-1986 in the North Wilkesboro District; Bethlehem from 1986-1994 in the Greensboro District; Hinshaw from 1994-1997 in the Greensboro District; and Burnett's Chapel from 1997-2005 in the High Point District. In 2010, he served Mt. Zion-Pleasant Hill.

When his health began to deteriorate, he faithfully continued to serve when and where he could. I asked him, "Why he kept on keeping on?" He replied, "This is what keeps me going." And so it was! On March 16, 2014, he finally retired when he went to be with his Lord. He was preceded in death by his parents and three brothers. A Celebration of Life service was held at Bethlehem UMC, on Wednesday, March 19, 2014, in Climax, N.C. Graveside services followed in the church cemetery. Faithful to his God and his Country, Chuck truly ran the race set before him. He finished the course, He kept the faith to the very end! "Well done thou good and faithful servant!"

"Day is done,
Gone the sun.
From the hills,
From the lake,
From the sky.
All is well,
Safely rest,
God is nigh."

GEORGE WESLEY RUDISILL

July 3, 1921 – August 29, 2013

George Wesley Rudisill was born on July 3, 1921, in Lincolnton, N.C. His father ran a grocery store, and his mother was a homemaker and textile worker. He had a sister, Mrs. Charles Ridenhour, and a brother, Lender Rudisill.

George was a child of the Great Depression. During World War II, he served in the U.S. Army and fought in some of the worst battles in the European Theater. Because of his bravery in one battle, he received a battlefield promotion.

After the war, George found a good friend, Dr. P. E. Lindley, the beloved dean of High Point College. From there, George went on to Harvard Divinity School. George graduated from High Point in 1949, from Harvard in 1951, and in 1976, he received an honorary degree from Pfeiffer.

On June 15, 1949, George married his college sweetheart, Ellen Ruth Lewis. This happy union was blessed with a son, Jeffrey Thomas Rudisill (Nancy), a daughter, Becky Rudisill Haynes, and two grandsons, Jacob Michael Haynes and Jason Thomas Haynes.

George served the following appointments in the Western North Carolina Conference: Polkton, 1951-1954; Weddington, 1954-1955; Director of Adult Work, Conference Board of Education, 1955-1959; Charlotte, Christ, 1959-1963; Statesville, Wesley Memorial, 1963-1967; Eden, Leaksville, 1967; Albemarle, First, 1969; Thomasville District Superintendent, 1971; Director, Conference Council on Ministries, 1976; Salisbury First, 1981; retired, 1983.

George Rudisill was a very talented man, who, during the course of his ministry, could be found in a variety of places, performing a lot of tasks, all of them quite well. There was one undertaking that set George apart from all of his other responsibilities. It was his management of Camp Tekoa, the conference's summer camp for teens at Hendersonville, N.C. Some people who passed that way are still around, and they will tell you in a heartbeat that nobody ever ran Camp Tekoa like George Rudisill. His gentle spirit, kind ways, and fatherly manner, endeared those kids to him forever.

One day, not long after George went to be with the Lord, I said to his wife, Ruth: "What made George tick?" She said, "There was hardly anything broken that George couldn't fix, and if he couldn't, he was quick to find somebody who could."

Ruth had it right! Whatever the Church was trying to do, George Rudisill was a mighty good man to have around.

ROBERT GLENN RUSSELL, JR.

June 13, 1932 – February 8, 2014

The Rev. Robert (Bob) Russell, Jr., 81, passed away after a brief illness on February 8, 2014. He spent his last eight years at Arbor Acres Retirement Community in Winston-Salem following a traumatic brain injury. Born June 13, 1932, in Greensboro, he was the only child of Robert Glenn Russell, Sr., and India Winfree Russell.

At the age of seven, Bob was called to the ministry. He responded by living a life of faithful service. He graduated from High Point College in 1954, and received his Master of Divinity degree from Duke Divinity School in 1957. He was licensed to preach in 1948, ordained as a deacon in 1956, and ordained as an elder in 1959. During his 37-year ministry as a pastor in the Western North Carolina Conference, the Rev. Russell served in numerous churches, including Alleghany-Grayson, 1957-1958; Arbor Grove-Millers Creek-Union, 1958-1961; Dellwood-Elizabeth Chapel-Maple Grove, 1961-1965; Salem, 1965-1967; Trinity, 1967-1971; Fairfield-Randolph Hills, 1971-1973; Cramer Memorial, 1973-1977; Pisgah, 1977-1982; Grace Chapel-Ebenezer, 1982-1986; Mays Chapel-St. Paul, 1986-1990; and Ebenezer, 1990-1994.

After his retirement, Bob was an active member of First United Methodist Church in Newton, where he taught the Men's and Ladies Bible Class. This class was broadcast live on the radio and is the longest continuous Christian Sunday School broadcast in the world. After becoming a resident of Arbor Acres Retirement Community in Winston-Salem, he served on the Residents' Council and attended worship services there.

Bob loved to sing in church choirs and community choral events. He was an avid reader and a lifelong learner. He was a member of the Rotary Club and volunteered as camp chaplain with the Boy Scouts. Bob enjoyed working with the Methodist Youth Fellowship, making an impact on the spiritual development of many youth. Yet, Bob's favorite activity was to be with his wife and family, where he was always present and supportive.

Bob married Jean Eller on April 26, 1959, and had 48 wonderful years full of love and devotion. Bob is survived by his son, Robert (Rusty) Glenn Russell III (Michele) of Clemmons, and their children, Robby (Tatiana), Matt, Isaac, and Elizabeth; and his daughter, Kathryn Jean Russell Baucom (Lee) of Louisville, Ky., and their children, Maggie and Harrison. He is also survived by his brother-in-law, Charles Eller (Dorothy) of Millers Creek.

Funeral services for the Rev. Russell were held February 15, 2014, at Salem Funeral Home in Winston-Salem, followed by a graveside service and burial at Arbor Grove UMC in Purlear. He was laid to rest next to his beloved wife.

JOHN PERRY SPILLMAN, JR.

November 9, 1926 – May 18, 2013

The Rev. John Perry Spillman, Jr., was born on November 9, 1926, in Louisville, Ky., to John Perry Spillman, Sr., and Willie Bryan Lawrence Spillman. He died at his home on May 18, 2013, after a long battle with cancer. Funeral services were held May 26, 2013, in the sanctuary of St. John's United Methodist Church in Greensboro, N.C. Interment followed at Parklawn Memorial Gardens in Winston-Salem, N.C.

John married his beloved Ouida Love Hayes on January 21, 1950, and they had four children: Karen Leigh Spillman Elledge, born May 17, 1953; John Mark Spillman, born September 5, 1955; Stephen Lawrence Spillman, born November 18, 1958; and Lori Ellen Spillman, born November 16, 1965. John and Ouida have four grandchildren: Matthew Shaver, Ashley Shaver, Jennifer Spillman, and Cassidy Spillman Holmes. Hailey Moody is their great-granddaughter.

After serving in the U.S. Army from 1944 to 1946, John received his A.B. degree from Duke University in 1948. He began a career in banking with City Savings Bank in Charlotte, N.C. However, he felt a strong call to the ministry of the church and eventually answered that call. In April 1954, he was licensed to preach by the Western North Carolina Conference. The conference ordained him as deacon in 1956. John graduated from Duke Divinity School with a B.D. in 1958, and was ordained elder the same year with full membership in the Western North Carolina Conference.

During John's 37 years of ministry, he served numerous congregations. He was appointed to: Ansonville, Concord, Cedar Hill, and Salem United Methodist churches in Anson County, 1954-1956; Union, Campground, Bonds Grove and Wesley Chapel United Methodist churches in Union County, 1956-1959; Pineville UMC, 1959-1965; Jackson Park UMC in Kannapolis, 1965-1969. While he was at Jackson Park, the area's pastors chose him as head of the local ministerial association. Other appointments were: Rose Chapel UMC and Providence UMC in Statesville, 1969-1973; Whitnel UMC and Maria's Chapel UMC in Lenoir, 1973-1977; Central Terrace UMC in Winston-Salem, 1977-1988; and St. John's UMC in Greensboro, 1988-1993. While at St. John's, he led the congregation in building a Habitat House. His ministry at the church was celebrated by members naming a Sunday school classroom, "The Spillman Room," after he retired. He retired in 1993, but retirement did not end his service to the conference. He became a supply pastor at Lowe's UMC in Rockingham County and minister of visitation at Grace UMC in Greensboro.

John held positions on boards in the conference, including the Board of Church and Society and the Board of Discipleship. He was especially interested in spiritual growth, and as director of the Yokefellow Retreat Center, sought to nurture the inward and outward journey of Christians so that they embodied the love of God and became impassioned witnesses and servants. He was a certified graduate of the Academy for Spiritual Formation sponsored by the Upper Room in Tennessee. John was a friend of Gordon and Mary Cosby, who were instrumental in founding The Church of the Savior. He embraced their dual emphasis on the journey inward of faith and prayer and the journey outward of love and service.

John was a servant in the communities in which he was appointed. In the Statesville District, he was involved in prison ministry and taught English to prisoners. He was instrumental in refurbishing the Chestnut Grove Community Center and coordinating community members as they developed an active program at the center. He served on the board of directors of Samaritan Ministries and the Sunnyside Neighborhood Association, both in Winston-Salem. While he was at St. John's in the Greensboro District, John was the district disaster relief co-coordinator.

John was a deeply committed follower of Christ, a devoted husband and father, and an effective and dedicated minister of the church. He was humble, never seeking tributes for the work he did. He was strong but gentle, kind yet truthful, committed to Christ above all, and like Christ, a friend to sinners. John's insights and encouragement will be missed. Well done good and faithful Servant!

NEVILLE BRANDON STOREY

August 26, 1935 – January 4, 2014

Neville Brandon Storey was born August 26, 1935, at Stanly General Hospital in Albemarle, N.C. He was the oldest of four sons born to parents John V. Storey and Mary Emma Baldwin.

He was baptized August 13, 1939, at Norwood Methodist Church. Neville was a graduate of Boyden High School. Neville married Vivian Rachel Walker on January 28, 1954. Out of this union were born three biological children: Susan E. Martin (deceased), Lynn S. Messick of Woodleaf, and John Rayford Storey of Salisbury, and an adopted daughter, Debbie K. Hudson of Salisbury.

Neville worked as a truck driver for many years for Thomas & Howard, Johnson Motor Lines, and IMASCO. He was a member of Park Avenue United Methodist Church and served as a lay speaker. In 1982, he answered the call to service and attended Emory University in Atlanta, Ga. He was licensed to preach in 1985 and entered the ministry as a local pastor for Center Grove and Saint Paul. In 1989, he was appointed to Grace and Dix Creek and then to the Morganton Charge in 1995. He took a retired relationship in 2002, but he still continued to serve at Elbaville and Fulton. In 2004, he retired again, but he served at Bethel and Bailey's Chapel. In 2006, he took on the Yadkin Charge as his final pastoral appointment.

Neville's hobbies included writing poetry, music, bird watching and gardening. He was recognized for his quick wit and contagious smile. He loved God and loved to share his experience of how God had changed his life. He enjoyed spending time with his wife and family.

Having been already diagnosed with diabetes, heart problems, and a form of muscular dystrophy, he was suffering, as well, from Alzheimer's disease. At the age of 74, he was diagnosed with stage four mouth and throat cancer. He took extensive radiation treatments, and as a result, a feeding tube was needed. With his memory failing and his mobility decreasing, he was admitted to the Laurels of Salisbury for care. He remained there for three years.

On November 15, 2013, Rachel died after a brief illness as a result of heart and kidney failure. After Rachel's death, Neville lost his will to live. He told his family and friends his only wish was to be with Mama (Rachel). His wish was granted on January 4, 2014, as he died in his sleep, just 24 days short of 60 years of marriage.

Neville was cremated at Summersett Funeral Home. A memorial service was conducted at the Summersett Chapel on Wednesday, January 8, 2014, at 11 a.m. Officiating was the Rev. Dr. Albert J. Aymer. His remains were laid to rest with Rachel at City Memorial Cemetery in Salisbury.

Neville's memory will be cherished by his brothers, his three remaining children, six grandchildren, and 11 great-grandchildren.

JAMES THOMAS TROLLINGER

February 8, 1945 – July 20, 2013

James Thomas Trollinger was born to the late Henry Rupert and Ellen Brown Trollinger on February 8, 1945, in Asheboro, N.C. On December 29, 1967, Jim married his college sweetheart, Sue Norwood. Jim and Sue had two sons, Greg and Jonathan; and two daughters-in-law, Eleanor (Greg) and Chrystal (Jonathan). He was the endearing "Jim-Pa" to five grandchildren: Charlotte, Caroline, Charlie, Lilly, and Julia. Jim is survived by his sisters, Sara Trollinger and Jane Chambers (Rick); two sisters-in-law, Joann Trollinger and Faith Trollinger; and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his two brothers, Bill and Paul; and his sister, Betty Sheets.

Jim graduated from Asheboro High School in 1963, Guilford College in 1967, and Duke Divinity School in 1970. The Western North Carolina Conference licensed him to preach in 1964, ordained him a deacon in 1968 and elder in 1971.

Among his 45 years in the conference, he gave superior service in these churches: First Lexington, 1970-1973; Salem, Albemarle, 1973-1975; First Charlotte, 1975-1979; Oakley, Asheville, 1979-1981; Dilworth, Charlotte, 1991-1995; and Jamestown, 1995-1998. Being a person of many talents and gifts, Jim gave outstanding service and direction in these other appointments: executive director at the Givens Estate United Methodist Retirement Community, Asheville, 1981-1991; Gastonia District superintendent, 1998-2001; Waynesville District superintendent, 2001-2005; Western North Carolina Conference Director of Connectional Ministries, 2005-2007; assistant to the Bishop, 2007-2012; and assistant to the Cabinet for Transitions, 2012-2013.

In February 2011, Jim was diagnosed with a brain tumor. Like a warrior going to war, he vowed to fight it with all his strength and will. Who of us will ever forget the video of Jim played at the 2012 annual conference ... a witness of his faith and hope. And he did exactly what he promised. The prognosis for his cancer was a year at best, but he beat those odds by 17 months, finally losing the battle on July 20, 2013. Watching the war as it raged, we all were touched by Jim's faith and resolve as he was ultimately cured by death and given the reward of resurrection.

We who are left have been given a host of memories to sustain us in the days to come. Jim was such a positive person who enjoyed his life. He always enjoyed the humor of a good joke or of a life experience. But we will remember also his caring and compassion and thoughtfulness as expressed through his prolific note writing. Who among us hasn't received a note from him that lifted our spirits or encouraged us?! I continue to hear many who speak of the specialness of one of his notes in the midst of a crisis or difficult time. These things about Jim's personality are what made him such a good leader and friend to so many people.

Another memory that is reflected in Jim's list of suggested memorial gifts at his death was his caring for "the least" and those with special needs. That list included the "Muffin Ministry" for Homeless Friends at First Church Charlotte, the September Barnabas Camp at Tekoa (for UMAR residents and other special needs adults), and the Supplemental Assistance Fund of Givens Estates UM Retirement Community. Character is always reflected in those things dear to one's heart.

Romans 5:3-5 declares: "We are glad for our troubles also. We know that troubles help us learn not to give up. When we have learned not to give up, it shows we have stood the test. When we have stood the test, it gives us hope. Hope never makes us ashamed because the love of God has come into our hearts through the Holy Spirit Who was given to us." (NLV)

Through his courage and faith in the battle with cancer, Jim stood the test and displayed his hope. Following his example, may we resolve to never give up in the midst of our journeys and to hope in the one who loves us most. Thanks be to God for the life and witness of Jim Trollinger!

ALLEN BAKER WEAVER

November 17, 1935 – April 19, 2014

Allen Baker Weaver, better known as "A.B.," was born on November 17, 1935, in Ashe County, N.C., the son of the late Wiley and Faye Burkette Weaver. He received his A.B. degree from Pfeiffer College and attended Duke University as a Course of Study student. He received his license to preach in May 1963, and was received in full connection with our annual conference in 1974.

In 1963, he received his first appointment to Antioch-Trap Hill in the Northwestern District. He took no appointment in 1964-1965, but in 1966 he was appointed to Richfield-New Mount Tabor in the Albemarle District. In 1968, he was appointed to Salem in the Albemarle District, serving there as a local pastor. His next appointment was Wesley Heights in Lexington. During this time, he was received into full connection in 1974. He continued his ministry in Lexington until 1982, when he was appointed to Spruce Pine in the Marion District. In 1984, he was appointed to Christ Boulevard in Statesville, serving there until 1991 when he took disability leave due to health problems. He continued on disability leave until 2001, when he entered into a retired relationship with the conference.

Following retirement, A.B. continued to serve in a spectacular way. He went back home to West Jefferson and became involved in the welfare of that area. Even with severe disabilities, he ministered in a way that touched the West Jefferson area. He served on the Ashe County Board of Education. He served as mayor of West Jefferson, and he was instrumental in establishing the Weaver UMAR home. His many accomplishments were recognized by the State of North Carolina, as he was a recipient of The Order of The Long Leaf Pine.

A.B. is survived by his wife of 57 years, Joan Krider Weaver; one daughter, Joallen Lowder and husband Trent of West Jefferson; two sons, Matthew Weaver and wife Judy of Pawley's Island, S.C., and Charles Allen Weaver of West Jefferson; two grandchildren, Henry and Joseph Lowder of West Jefferson; one sister, Anita Yates and husband Gwyn of West Jefferson; and a number of nieces and nephews.

Following a long period of physical difficulties, A.B. departed the Church Militant for the Church Triumphant on Saturday, April 19, 2014, while a patient at Wake Forest University Hospital in Winston-Salem. A memorial service was held at West Jefferson United Methodist Church on Tuesday, April 22, 2014, with the Revs. Perry Miller, Jim Allred and Chris Fitzgerald taking part in the service.

Special thanks to the Rev. G. Craig Allen and Dianne Beam for their work of editing the memoirs.

"In the lives of the servants we remember this day, this scripture has once again been fulfilled. Empowered by the spirit's presence in their lives they persevered by envisioning a world which could be different, could look like God's kingdom, and holding on to that dream, that hope, they persevered, as they proclaimed the good news in word and more importantly in deed, throughout the world."
