

X. HISTORICAL MATERIAL

A. HISTORICAL SKETCH

The Western North Carolina Conference shall include all North Carolina west of the North Carolina Conference, except Savannah Church, in Alleghany County, North Carolina; and also that part of North Carolina lying north of the New River, and including that part of Virginia lying south of that river in the loop in Grayson County, Virginia; including all the territory in Carroll and Patrick Counties, Virginia, south of the crest of the Blue Ridge, and west of the Dan River. (Discipline, 1948, ¶ 1957)

This territory is identical with that of the Western North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South. All three branches of Methodism forming The Methodist Church were included in this new conference. From the Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church came 39 ministers and 11,901 church members. The North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Protestant Church contributed 74 ministers and 22,361 church members. The Western North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South, added 377 ministers and 167,028 church members. This gave the new conference 490 members, with 28 others on trial, and 201,290 church members. The Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference has held 62 sessions; the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, 112; and the Western North Carolina, 50 (see Journal, 1939, pp. 115, 169).

The Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church was formed on June 5, 1968, by the merger of the Western North Carolina Conference and that portion of the North Carolina-Virginia Conference situated within the bounds of the Western North Carolina Conference (see Journal, 1968, p. 84). The North Carolina-Virginia Conference had been organized in Greensboro on Aug. 11, 1964, and, in addition to the organizational session, held four sessions prior to the 1968 merger.

F. MEMOIRS OF DECEASED CLERGY AND DIACONAL MINISTERSMICHAEL FRANKLIN BURRIS*SEPTEMBER 29, 1955 – DECEMBER 20, 2015

The Rev. Michael Franklin Burris entered into the eternal rest of his Savior on Sunday, December 20, 2015. Mike was born on September 29, 1955, to the late Roy "Short" Burris and the late Betty Morgan Burris. Mike graduated from Mt. Pleasant High School in 1973, North Greenville University in 2003, and Hood Theological Seminary in 2007.

He answered the call to pastoral ministry after he began attending Love's Grove United Methodist Church in 2000. The body of believers at Love's Grove quickly became Mike's home. He grew and served among them until God called him to begin a relationship with the Western NC Conference, as a candidate for pastoral ministry. Mike was admitted into provisional membership in 2007 and ordained as an elder in 2015. He served the Cedar Grove-Green Memorial Charge, 2006-2012; and Pinewoods UMC, 2012 until his death.

Mike married Kathy Paige on February 1, 2004, and they quickly became a wonderful ministry team. They were the proud parents of three sons and two daughters: Troy Franklin (deceased), Marcus Lynn, Joshua Adrian, Emily Ann Mullis Tucker, and Caroline Beth Mullis Love. Mike and Kathy were also blessed with four beautiful grandchildren whom they dearly loved.

Possessing an endless supply of energy and enthusiasm for the calling God had placed upon him, Mike never met a stranger, and sharing his faith came easy for him. Mike was passionate about helping those who had lost their way, those who needed a friend, and those who suffered under the bondage of addiction. He was one of the founding board members of The Bridge to Recovery, a safe-house for those struggling with alcohol and drug addiction. Throughout his years of ministry, Mike worked tirelessly with others to help move men and women into long-term counseling and treatment. He was a gifted teacher, preacher, and friend to many.

Mike preached a message of grace, love, and accountability to his people. He was committed to this holy task right up until the end of his earthly life, as God called him home during the interim between worship services.

A service of thanksgiving for Mike's life was held at Love's Grove UMC on December 23, 2015, and a memorial service at Pine Woods UMC on December 27. Both services were filled with story after story of how God used Mike's life and witness as a powerful, redemptive force in the lives of others.

Mike's sacrificial love for people, his preaching, his pastoral care, his intensity, and his unwavering faith in the goodness of God were the marks of one who was dedicated to the call. In all his ways, Mike sought to be the bond-servant of his Master and Savior, Jesus Christ. Mike's life, ministry, and friendship were a precious gift to all who knew him.

CLARENCE JACK CAUDILL*AUGUST 30, 1925 – DECEMBER 25, 2015

The Rev. Clarence Jack Caudill, a resident of Arbor Acres United Methodist Retirement Community in Winston-Salem, died there on December 25, 2015.

Born in Millers Creek, N.C., on August 30, 1925, Jack was the third of six children of Ethel Long Caudill and Herman Dewey Caudill, Sr. He served in the Armed Guard as a signalman in the U.S. Navy during World War II. He graduated from the University of Tennessee in December 1949, with a major in history and graduated from Duke University's Divinity School in June 1954. He completed two years of training in clinical pastoral education at Central State Hospital in Milledgeville, Ga., 1968-1970.

On April 10, 1954, Jack married the love of his life, Elizabeth "Libby" Wellborn Alexander, of Wilkesboro. Libby, a music major, often served as a pianist or choir director in Jack's churches. Jack dearly loved his family. He is survived by his three daughters, Elizabeth Gray Caudill, Mary Lynne Caudill Melton, and Virginia Louise Caudill Snow; three grandchildren, Elizabeth Claire Melton LeJeune and husband Andrew, Christopher David Melton and wife Hannah, and Mary Katherine Melton; and two great-granddaughters, Lianna Lynne Melton and Sophie Lynne LeJeune. Jack and Libby celebrated 60 years of marriage together before she died on November 10, 2014. Jack was a cousin of the Rev. Dr. R. Paul Caudill, originally of Dockery, N.C., who served as pastor of First Baptist Church, Memphis, Tenn., for many years and as president of the Tennessee Baptist Convention.

Jack was ordained as a deacon in the Western NC Conference in 1953 and as an elder in 1954. His first appointment was to the five churches of the Millers Creek Charge, 1951-1955. While there, he helped several of the churches, including his home church, Millers Creek Methodist, merge and build a new church building. He then served Crews (Winston-Salem), 1956-1960; and Main Street (Kernersville), 1960-1964; during which times he also served on the Western NC Conference's Board of Hospitals and Homes and the board of the Wesley Foundation in Winston-Salem. He also served First Church (Liberty), 1964-1966; Memorial (Charlotte), 1966-1968; Pitts Chapel (Macon, Ga.), part-time while a CPE student, 1968-1970; Fairgrove (Hickory), 1970-1974; and Concord United Methodist and Linville Falls Community churches, part-time, while working as a pastoral counselor at The Foothills Mental Health Center in Marion, 1974-1982. He also served as the center's director during his last six years there. Later, he served Beaverdam and Rockwood (Canton), 1982-1983; Prospect (Monroe), 1983-1984; and served as an associate minister in pastoral counseling and outreach at Centenary (Winston-Salem), 1984-1993. When he retired in 1993, he and Libby moved to Waynesville and Jack served part-time as associate at Central (Canton), 1993-2001. The Caudills returned to Winston-Salem, where they lived for many years before moving to Pleasant Garden to live with their daughter, Lynne, and her family, due to declining health. After Libby's death, Jack's health continued to deteriorate. He was able to move into the good care of the skilled nursing unit at Arbor Acres a few months before his death.

The family received friends at Reins-Sturdivant Funeral Home in North Wilkesboro on December 28, 2015, which was followed by a graveside service at Millers Creek UMC cemetery. A memorial service was held December 30, at Centenary UMC in Winston-Salem.

Jack was a beloved and devoted husband, father, grandfather, and friend. An avid gardener, he also loved beautiful wood and antique furniture, which he collected and refinished. Always a hard worker, he possessed a good sense of humor, a fine speaking voice, and was an articulate and intelligent preacher. He was also an insightful pastoral counselor who found much fulfillment in helping his counselees.

JOHN HARLEY CECIL

JULY 30, 1928 – DECEMBER 9, 2015

John Harley Cecil graduated from what he considered to be his “earthly classroom” at age 87 on December 9, 2015. Harley was youngest of three sons born to Otis Wayne and Bertha Moore Cecil on July 30, 1928, in Guilford County. At age 12, he joined Pleasant Grove Church near Thomasville. In his home congregation, where he later was licensed to preach, he was involved in youth activities and served as a pianist and organist.

After his graduation from High Point College (now High Point University) in 1948 with a Bachelor of Science degree in business administration, he worked for a plywood manufacturer in High Point for three years and served in the U.S. Army, Finance Corps, 1951-1952. In the summer of 1953, he served as a student local pastor of the West End congregation in Thomasville. The same fall, he entered Candler School of Theology, Emory University, Georgia, and in 1956 graduated with a Bachelor of Divinity degree.

He was ordained as a deacon and received into the Western North Carolina Conference on trial in 1955. He was ordained as an elder and received into full connection in 1958. His first appointment was to the Trinity, Bethel, and Johnstown churches in Thomasville, 1956-1959. From there, he went to Lexington to serve the newly-formed Wesley Heights Church and also to organize the St. Timothy’s congregation. After his 1959-1964 pastorate in Lexington, he began a two-year chaplain internship at Murdoch Center, Butner. As he pursued his clinical pastoral education, he completed his academic work for his Master of Theology degree in pastoral care at Duke Divinity School in 1966. In the same year, he was appointed senior chaplain at Murdoch Center.

Serving on the Murdoch Center campus for 30 years, he was a pastor and innovative worship leader, a sensitive counselor with a special gift to help individuals find dormant abilities and build their self-esteem. He was an advocate and a fund-raiser for the needs of persons who live with mental and financial limitations, a spiritual support for their families in joy and grief, and an educator for those who wished to serve and learn along with him in a pastoral setting. To those who knew him, if only by reputation, his name was synonymous with a specialized and pioneering ministry. In the mid-1970s, when the WNCC was initiating ministries with persons with handicaps, he was a part of the first Committee on Persons with Special Needs. He assisted both annual conferences in North Carolina in developing their philosophies for, as well as their formations of, camping ministries for persons with handicapping conditions and their families. He was one of the writers for the first published interdenominational special education curriculum. As a pioneer, his parishioners were telecast in religious television programming. He was a trailblazer in helping the general public become more sensitive to the strengths, as well as the needs, of persons with mental limitations. He was a part of the inception of WNCC’s United Methodist Agency For The Retarded, Inc. He made the first monetary contribution to UMAR and served with the UMAR’s original board of trustees for seven years. For the same number of years, he was the first director of the Southeastern Jurisdiction’s Pilot Project of Vacation Retreats, held at Lake Junaluska, for persons with handicaps. He was a board member of Southeastern Methodist Agency For The Retarded, Inc., 1981-1984.

A long-time dream of Cecil’s was for the parishioners at Murdoch Center to have an appropriate place to worship. This dream became a reality in 1983 when his 18 years of fund-raising and cutting through mazes of red tape finally resulted in the erection of a chapel on the North Carolina state-owned campus where he served. And in that chapel was his life remembered in a service held on December 18, 2015.

One of the greatest joys of his career was embracing more than 350 seminarians from Duke Divinity School and Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, and incorporating them in learning/serving opportunities in his parish. While under the supervision of Cecil and his staff, the students were a part of his ministry in field education placement, supervised ministry practicums, and the academic courses he taught on campus. From his involvement with divinity school students, he had a reservoir of teachable, usually humorous stories he loved to tell of how Murdoch parishioners, with their unique ability to “accurately read people,” unexpectedly trained future ministers. After his retirement from the WNCC in 1993 and from Murdoch Center in 1994, he was involved in volunteer work with The Salvation Army.

Harley is survived by his wife of 53 years, Jo Ann Cook Cecil; daughter Connie Cecil Wendt (Dan); son Harley Wayne Cecil (Wendy); and grandchildren Jonathan Wendt (Kaitlin), Andrew Wendt, William Wendt, and Daniel Wendt; and his very special 100-year-old mother-in-law and friend, Annalee P. Cook. Harley leaves behind a legacy to his family, friends, and all associates he met as he lived out his calling and passion – a legacy to live, learn, and teach in our “earthly classroom” of life. He lived out and modeled this legacy daily with uncanny quick-wittedness, always showing a courteous deference toward those who had the privilege of knowing him and being under his tutelage.

TALMADGE CLINGMAN CHEEK, JR.

APRIL 26, 1951 – OCTOBER 25, 2015

The Rev. Talmadge Clingman Cheek, Jr. entered into the eternal rest of his Savior, Jesus Christ, on October 25, 2015, at Duke Medical Center in Durham, N.C. Born April 26, 1951, in Davie County, N.C., Talmadge was the son of the late Talmadge Clingman Cheek, Sr. and Dorothy Irene Shore Cheek.

Talmadge was a graduate of Catawba College in Salisbury, N.C., and a U.S. Air Force veteran who served during the Vietnam War as a Russian linguist. After his military service, he worked with the U.S. Postal Service for more than 20 years, retiring as the postmaster in Woodleaf, N.C. Talmadge was participating in the Course of Study at Duke University in Durham, N.C.

Talmadge was a former member of First Baptist Church of Hickory, N.C. While attending this church, he was active as a Sunday school teacher and choir member, and served as a deacon. Talmadge was as much a blessing to First Baptist Church as they were a blessing to him. Talmadge served as part-time chaplain of Frye Regional Medical and Catawba Valley Medical Center and had also led worship services and a Bible study at Kingston Residence in Hickory. The residents of Kingston thoroughly enjoyed the time they were able to spend with Talmadge. While a member of First UMC in Hickory, Talmadge taught Sunday school and sang in the choir. Talmadge’s greatest love in life was spending time with his family, especially his grandchildren.

He began serving as a local pastor in the Western NC Conference in June 2008 in the Statesville District under district superintendent Dr. Mary John Dye. Talmadge’s first appointment was Fairgrove (Hickory), where he served from June 2008 until November 22, 2009; and then Christ

(Hickory) as an assistant pastor through June 2010. Though not appointed again until 2014, Talmadge continued to bless others with his ministry. On August 7, 2014, he was appointed as an assistant pastor of pastoral care to the Plateau-Wesley Chapel Charge, Catawba Valley District, where he served alongside Senior Pastor Bobby Petree. Talmadge was a great blessing to this charge, though he only served a short few months until October 2014. Talmadge began serving the Mt. Harmony-Burke Chapel Charge (Burke County) on October 1, 2014, and served until his passing.

Talmadge was a faithful servant of God in all areas of his life as he lived as a strong witness for everyone. He was married to the love of his life and best friend, Jennie Phillips Cheek, on March 23, 1971. They were blessed by the birth of two sons, Jarrett Heath and Jason Whitfield. Before his death, Talmadge underwent successful heart-bypass surgery. After surgery, he developed an infection which led to his death.

A Celebration of Life service was held at 2 p.m. October 31, 2015, at First UMC, Hickory, with the Revs. Craig Langston, George Williams, and Jeff Sweeny officiating, with burial afterward in Catawba Memorial Park in Hickory.

Talmadge is survived by his wife of 44 years; his sons, Jarrett and wife Leslie of Mebane, N.C., and Jason and wife Kirby of Cranford, N.J.; his sisters, Cindy Foster and husband David, and Sherry Roberts; and grandchildren Morgan, Shelby, Jordan, and Sidney.

Loving and caring toward his wife, sons, sisters, grandchildren, colleagues, and friends, Talmadge was a strong man of faith and service, and loved being the hands and feet of Jesus everywhere he went. He was thankful for the countless blessings that he continuously received from God, especially being able to see again after being legally blind. Talmadge was a man of stories who could keep people's attention with no trouble. He always thought things through thoroughly using the wisdom that he had learned through his life. Talmadge loved sharing life with others through his pastoral care in many different and blessed ways. He could bring a smile to anyone's face. Those who knew him can say that they were truly blessed to know him.

"His master replied, 'Excellent! You are a good and faithful servant! You've been faithful over a little. I'll put you in charge of much. Come, celebrate with me!'" Matthew 25:21 (CEV)

CHARLES RAY DAVIS

JULY 15, 1955 – JULY 28, 2015

The Rev. C. Ray Davis, 60, entered into the eternal rest of his Savior, Jesus Christ, on July 28, 2015 at his home in Marion, N.C.

Beginning his life in Shelby, N.C., Ray was born July 15, 1955 to Dean Davis, Jr. and the late Mae Sisk Davis.

Upon graduation from Shelby High School in 1973, Ray began his career with the Bi-Lo grocery chain as a meat market manager. Ray was being promoted to regional manager when he answered the Lord's call to preach.

Ray met Jeannie Hoyle while working for Bi-Lo. It was love at first sight for both of them. They were married on Easter Sunday, March 30, 1975. It was a marriage that lasted 40 years, 30 of which were spent as partners in ministry. They have two sons, Jim and Matthew, and two daughters, Amy Davis Lunsford and Jennifer Davis Styles.

Ray was licensed to preach in 1986. He graduated from Montreat College in 1988, earning a bachelor's degree, and completed Duke University's Course of Study in July 1996. He was ordained as a deacon in 1999 in the Western NC Conference. During his tenure as a United Methodist pastor, he served the Pleasant Hill-Trinity Charge, Marian District, 1986-1992; Clinchfield-Pleasant Hill, 1992-2004; and Clinchfield from 2004 until his death on July 28, 2015.

Having served his entire ministry in McDowell County, Ray not only touched and transformed the lives of his congregations but also those in the community and throughout the county. He served as chairperson for the American Cancer Society's Relay for Life in McDowell County. He volunteered in a local elementary school, and during that time he realized the real, basic needs of many of the children were not being met. His deep compassion and a God-given vision led him to start the "Meals That Heal" ministry at Clinchfield UMC in 2010.

Recognized as a man making a difference, Ray received the North Carolina Governor's Award for Volunteer Service in 2013, the McDowell County Citizen Award in 2011, and the 2015 McDowell County Health Coalition's "Champion of the Community" award. Ray remained a humble servant, always giving God the praise and glory. His greatest joy was leading someone to Jesus Christ. Ray was a devoted husband, father, and grandfather. He was a good shepherd to his congregations, but above all a faithful servant to his Lord, Jesus Christ.

A celebration of life service was held on Saturday, August 1, 2015, at Clinchfield UMC with the Rev. Rick Wisor and the Rev. Dr. John Boggs officiating. Members and friends shared the impact of Ray's ministry on their lives. The congregation and guests joined in singing Ray's favorite hymns, Victory in Jesus and To God be the Glory.

Surely he heard the words he longed for, "Well done, good and faithful servant."

CHARLES THOMAS DAVIS

MAY 28, 1940 – DECEMBER 11, 2015

Charles Thomas Davis, fondly known as "Charlie" to friends and family, began this life on May 28, 1940, when he was born to Henry Thomas and Ruby Parish Davis in Goldsboro, N.C. He died of a heart attack December 11, 2015. A Celebration of Life service was held for Charlie at Whitley's Funeral Home in Kannapolis, N.C., on December 15. His 75 years, lived fully, compassionately, and full of grace, are, indeed, worth celebrating.

Charlie grew up in the Neuse Forest Presbyterian Church in New Bern, N.C., and graduated from New Bern High School. As a young person, according to his brother, Don, he was already modeling behaviors and abilities that others looked up to and wanted to emulate. Upon graduating from high school, he received a full athletic scholarship from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill to play football. After a year, though, he interrupted his college career to enlist in the U.S. Army. He served as a paratrooper in Germany for two years, and while there, he played football for the Army team. He then returned to UNC-Chapel Hill, and resumed his place on the football team. He graduated in 1967. After a short stint as an assistant coach at Charlotte Country Day School, Charlie's restless spirit carried him to Washington, D.C., where he tried out as a walk-on for the Washington Redskins. They hired him as a running back, but after a year, a serious elbow injury ended his professional football career. This event prompted Charlie to listen to an inner voice which had been plaguing him. He felt and answered a call into ministry and enrolled in the Duke University Divinity School, graduating in 1974. In 1975, he was ordained as an elder in the Western North Carolina Conference.

Charlie married Mallie Moore on March 14, 1970. Their children are Mike Davis and Shannon Davis Bradley. On February 14, 1985, he married Patsy Lambert Rumble. They would have celebrated their 31st anniversary on Valentine's Day 2016. Surviving are Mallie, Mike, and Shannon; Patsy (Pat) and children Cindy Jeanifreau, Todd Rumble, Chad Rumble, Nicole Dodson; and a great-granddaughter, Jaycie, adopted by Charlie and Pat, and known as Charlie's "little shadow." Other survivors include a brother, Don Davis; a sister, Louise Davis Andrews; seven grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Wherever Charlie served, his unpretentious nature, his unbridled compassion, his keen insights into the nature and needs of people, and his stands for justice were reflected in his preaching and in all aspects of his ministry. He had the ability to communicate Biblical truths and theological concepts in plain language and to help others relate these to everyday life.

He began his ministry in the Waynesville District serving Maggie Valley and Peachtree, 1974-1977. During these years, he also worked for two summers in youth ministry at Lake Junaluska. In 1977, he moved to the Salisbury District and served Center (Concord) until 1980.

The struggles, the needs, and the potential of young people were always a passion of Charlie's, and in 1980, he began 13 years as chaplain of Stonewall Jackson Training School in Harrisburg. It was said that nobody could more fully take to heart and more effectively act on the students' interests than Charlie. At the same time, he held them accountable and extended to them a lifeline of hope. The staff, too, looked to him for guidance and support. During those years, he served as part-time pastor of Bethany and Mt. Carmel churches, 1982-1988.

In 1993, the N.C. Department of Corrections asked him to become their supervisor of chaplains for the Southern Piedmont Area, a position he held through 2003. In 2004, he began serving a joint appointment as an assistant clinical chaplain at Northeast Medical Center in Concord and as pastor of Center Grove and St. Paul churches in the Salisbury District. Retirement in 2008 did not lessen his concern for people of special needs. Many individuals could testify to this, not the least of whom would be those who have been rescued by the homeless ministry which he was instrumental in establishing.

Charlie had a mischievous streak about him that further endeared him to all who knew him. Many of us have been enriched by his love, fun, and friendship. All who knew him will continue to celebrate the vitality, enthusiasm, years of service, and sacrificial love of this servant of God.

RICHARD HAL FINNEY

JANUARY 29, 1929 – OCTOBER 22, 2015

The Rev. Richard Hal Finney left this earth at sunrise on Thursday, October 22, 2015, at the Joan and Howard Woltz Hospice Home in Dobson, N.C., after a long-fought battle with cancer.

Hal was born in East Bend, N.C., on January 29, 1929, to parents Clement and Marie Matthews Finney. Hal's grandfather was Dr. Johnathan Finney of Boonville, who delivered his grandson at home. Hal grew up with his brother, the late Gerald (Buck) Finney, and Wilma (June) Finney Brooks.

After high school, Hal married Virginia Long of Winston-Salem, and they had five children. He attended High Point College before entering and graduating from Asbury College in 1957. He continued his education at Emory University and graduated from the Candler School of Theology, where he earned a Bachelor of Divinity degree in 1960.

Licensed to preach in 1954, Hal served as pastor to churches on the Murphy Circuit while a student, 1957-1960. He was ordained a deacon in 1958 and an elder in 1960, serving Linville Falls, 1960-1961; Mill Spring, 1961-1964; and Connelly Springs, 1964-1965.

In 1966, Hal left the ministry to work with N.C. Social Services. In 1968, he returned to school at the University of Georgia, where he earned his master's degree in social work. He then worked with Veterans Administration hospitals in West Virginia and Virginia for 20 years and achieved Chief of Social Work while counseling many veterans and helping them find a purpose again.

When retiring from the Veterans Administration, Hal contacted his family and his friend, the Rev. John Duvall, about his wish to return to his love of ministry with The United Methodist Church. He was told to follow the guidance of his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

In 1988, Hal was readmitted to full connection with the Western NC Conference, and in 1991-1993, he was appointed to Bethel-Piney Grove in Waynesville; East Macon, 1993-1995; Love's Chapel-Wesleyanna, 1995-1996; and Faith-Francis Cove, 1996-1999. Hal retired in 1999 at age 70, but he served Whittier 2000-2003, and Peachtree from 2003-2007.

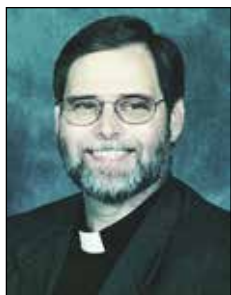

Hal loved his time in Maggie Valley as he made many friends in the churches, as well as the Maggie Valley police and fire departments. He often golfed with friends at the Lake Junaluska golf course. He was also an avid University of North Carolina Tar Heel fan, and his family and friends knew not to call him during the games!

In the last years of Hal's life, he moved to be closer to his family in Yadkin County, N.C., and attended Boonville United Methodist Church, where he loved to worship. He also found his ministry was still needed, and he became a chaplain with Mountain Valley Hospice and continued to fill in as needed in surrounding churches in his home area.

Hal lost his only son, Richard (Dickie) Finney, to cancer in 1974. He leaves behind four daughters, Janet Lineberry and husband Carroll, Sharon Wright (husband Keith, deceased), Pat Finney and wife Karen, and Becky Finney. He is survived by four grandchildren and six great-granddaughters.

Hal chose Prospect United Methodist Church in East Bend as his final resting place, where he is buried next to his beloved mother and father.

GARY BRUCE FOSTER*FEBRUARY 17, 1949 – MAY 29, 2015

The Rev. Gary Bruce Foster died May 29, 2015. He was born February 17, 1949, to Bruce L. and Bertie Lanier Foster. Gary and his wife, Penny Hutchins Foster, were married March 22, 1981. Their son, Alan Gary Foster, was born November 23, 1983.

Gary began his college education at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill before eventually graduating from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, with a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1983, and a master's degree in 1985. After completing the Five-Year Basic Course of Study for Ordained Ministry at Duke Divinity School in 2001, Gary continued his ministerial education at Hood Theological Seminary in Salisbury, receiving a Master of Divinity degree in 2004.

He was licensed as a local pastor in 1996, commissioned in 2002, and ordained an elder in the Western NC Conference in 2005.

Gary served Mt. Olivet, 1996-2002, and Reeds, 2002-2013, serving both congregations from January through June of 2002. He served as the Lexington District's first local pastor mentor coordinator. His service was in the former Lexington district and the Uwharrie district before going on medical leave in 2013.

Gary lived a rich and full life. His education, along with his many talents and interests, provided ample career options. In addition to his ministerial vocation, over the course of his life he worked as a journalist, a college professor, and a successful entrepreneur. Before answering the call to ministry, he worked as a newspaper reporter for The Thomasville Times, taught in the communications departments of UNC-G and High Point University, and also opened and operated a number of successful barbeque restaurants in the Lexington area.

Disturbed by examples of racial injustice and gender inequality which he observed at an early age, Gary became a voice for social justice and a champion of equal rights for all people. He had a heart for people, especially the poor. His passion for ministry was evidenced in his pastoral leadership, as he led and encouraged his congregations to go beyond the walls of their church buildings to be in ministry to the world. Aided by his effective grant-writing skills, keen eye for administration, and vision for ministry, he helped his congregations make a significant impact in their communities.

He was instrumental in helping to establish a dental clinic in the Mt. Olivet community. He helped his congregation at Reeds enter into a partnership with a local elementary school, leading to an after-school program that served the community for several years. He organized area churches and led the effort to establish the West Davidson Food Pantry and Clothes Closet, which has served numerous families since its formation in the Reeds community.

Gary was faithful in his service to the church. He loved the people he was called to serve, both within the church and the surrounding communities. He was a beloved and well-respected figure in the communities where he lived and served.

He continued to utilize his considerable skills in the kitchen throughout his ministerial career, frequently preparing meals for both church and community on a variety of occasions. He was a skillful and engaging storyteller. He laughed easily and listened intently. He had a remarkable gift of hospitality. People mattered to Gary.

He had a sharp mind, a keen wit, and a big heart. He loved his family. He was a good friend. His vision and passion, his gifts for ministry, and his heart for people continue to bless the church. Gary served The United Methodist Church, the Kingdom of God, and the cause of Christ well.

A Service of Death and Resurrection for Gary was held at 11 a.m., June 1, 2015, at Reeds UMC, conducted by the Revs. Duncan Martin and Randy Lucas. His body was laid to rest in the church cemetery. Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord.

JAMES WILEY FOWLER III*OCTOBER 12, 1940 – OCTOBER 16, 2015

James Wiley Fowler III, son of James Wiley Fowler, Jr. and Lucile Haworth Fowler, was born in Reidsville, N.C., on October 12, 1940. He grew up in Ruffin, Concord, Spruce Pine, Forest City, and Lake Junaluska, N.C., graduating from Waynesville Township High School in 1958. He earned degrees from Duke University (BA, 1962), Drew Theological Seminary (BD, 1965), and Harvard University (PhD, 1969). Jim was received into the Western North Carolina Conference and ordained as a deacon in 1964. He was ordained as an elder in 1970.

On July 7, 1962, Jim married Lurline Powell Locklair of Moncks Corner, S.C. In addition to Lurline, Jim is survived by daughter Joan Smythie Fowler Ray and her spouse, Kellie Louise Ryan; grandsons Nathan James Ray and Alexander Graydon Ray; daughter Margaret Lesesne Adams and her spouse, Robert Denson Adams; granddaughters Mary Grace

Lesesne and Anna Lucia Lesesne; sisters Margaret Fowler McCleskey and her husband, Lawrence, and Nina Elizabeth Fowler and her dear friend, Helen House; and numerous nieces and nephews.

After his doctoral class work, Jim spent a year at Interpreters' House, Lake Junaluska. In 1969, he returned to Harvard Divinity School as faculty and director of continuing education, and from 1976 to 1977, Jim taught at Boston College. In 1977, he joined the faculty at Candler School of Theology, Emory University. During his nearly three decades there, he was named Charles Howard Candler Distinguished Professor of Theology and Human Development, director of the Center for Research on Faith and Moral Development, and director of the Center for Ethics. He received global acclaim in recognition of his work in shaping a new understanding of faith and practical theology. In 2005, after experiencing the onset of Alzheimer's disease, Jim was granted medical leave. In 2010, he retired.

Growing up with a birthright Quaker mother and a Methodist clergy father, Jim was shaped by that rich mixture of heritages – the Quaker witness to the Inner Light and the commitment to peace and social justice, along with the Methodist witness to the prevenient, saving, and perfecting grace of God. These influences, combined with his intellectual curiosity, resulted in Jim's becoming the undisputed authority in the field of faith development. He influenced a generation of theological students at Candler and beyond, and his writing continues to shape the church and theological education. An article in the Atlanta Journal-Constitution after his death said: "As an educator, ethicist, and theologian, James W. Fowler Ill gained international renown for his trailblazing work on faith development and practical theology. He also was admired for his humility, generous spirit, and for helping others to find their purpose in life." Following his death, tributes to his life and work came from around the globe. This one from Margaret's and my friend, Walter Klaiber, retired professor and bishop in The United Methodist Church in Germany, is representative: "My most intensive encounter with him was in a seminar at the Oxford Institute which we led together: He as expert in faith development and I as a New Testament scholar. ... I studied his famous book, Stages of Faith, very thoroughly and used it quite often in my teaching in the seminary, especially when we spoke about conversion and about nurture and maturing of faith. Jim has close friends here in Tubingen, and his theory is used...for the work with young people here in Germany. Therefore we are very grateful for...all he has done for a better understanding of Christian faith."

Jim loved his work. He also loved music, singing, and the mountains of western North Carolina. Most deeply, he loved his family. Strengthened by a profound personal faith in God, he lived a full and accomplished life. His last decade was lived in the grip of Alzheimer's disease. Jim knew when it began something of what was in store, for he and Lurline saw his mother through the last years of her life in the same circumstance. Nevertheless, he maintained remarkable courage and grace, facing each day with an infectious enthusiasm. He never lost his essential kernel of caring and concern for others.

Jim died on October 16, 2015, surrounded by people he cherished, at Fountainview Center for Alzheimer's Disease, where he was lovingly cared for by his devoted wife and excellent staff through the last year of his life. Two memorial services were held. The first was at Glenn Memorial United Methodist Church in Atlanta, Ga., on October 24, 2015, presided over by the Rev. Dr. Alice Rogers with participation by James Laney, Rick Osmer, Kathy Kinlaw, William J. Everett, Nathan Ray, Alex Ray, Margaret Lesesne Adams, Joan Smythie Fowler Ray, and Bishop J. Lawrence McCleskey, and with music by Jim Gibson, Timothy Miller, Ben Leaptrott, and Don Saliers. The second was at the Lake Junaluska Memorial Chapel on All Saints Day, November 1, 2015, presided over by Bishop McCleskey with participation by Alyce Fowler McKenzie, Reid Locklair, Margaret Fowler McCleskey, William J. Everett, Margaret Lesesne Adams, and Joan Smythie Fowler Ray, and with music by Steve McClure. Jim's ashes were committed to the columbarium at the Lake Junaluska Memorial Chapel.

Both services included words from a poem written by Jim years ago:

*"If anyone doubts resurrection
"If anyone despairs
"Of the journey from ashes to fire,
"Let him/her attend to this:
"Where there was grief and grimness
"There now is bliss."*

ARELIN RAY FRESHOUR

AUGUST 28, 1926 – DECEMBER 22, 2015

The Rev. Arelin Ray Freshour, 89, of Marion, went to be with Jesus on Tuesday, December 22, 2015. A native of Madison County, he was born August 28, 1926, to the late Floyd and Doshia Fender Freshour. Freshour was a veteran of the U.S. Army who served during World War II, a fitting testament to his noble sense of duty to God and country. He lived his life in service to the Lord as a United Methodist pastor for churches in Polk, Rutherford, Burke, Ashe, Buncombe, Haywood, McDowell, and Avery counties. He will be remembered as a loving husband and father.

Licensed to preach in 1958, and ordained as a deacon in 1965, Arelin was admitted as an associate member of the Western NC Conference in 1969. A record of his 42 years of pastoral service is as follows: Fairview-Arney, 1961-1963; Nathan's Creek, 1963-1966; Burke-McDowell, 1966-1969; Mill Spring, 1969-1972; Crabtree, 1972-1976; Pigeon Valley, 1976-1978; Laurel Hill-Brown's View, 1978-1979; Bethany-Tweeds, 1979-1981; Fairview-Sharon, 1981-1982; Toe Valley

Charge, 1984-1988; St. Mark's-Cross, Marion, 1988-1991; and retired in 1991. Arelin continued to serve in retirement, first as the beloved assistant pastor at Minneapolis UMC, Toe Valley Charge, 1991-1994; and on to Old Fort-Bethel, 1994-1996; Mill Spring associate, 1999-2000, and pastor in charge, 2000-2002; finally retiring in full in 2002. Arelin was named pastor emeritus of Minneapolis UMC in the Toe Valley Charge in 1993.

Pastor Freshour was noted for his wit and wisdom in preaching, utilizing a humble and gentle approach to inviting people to faith in Christ. He was also known for counseling other ministers, church members, and people outside the church. He had a genuine and sincere passion for helping people find assurance of their salvation in Christ, and he was noted for convincing non-churched persons to trust Christ for their salvation and follow Him in baptism. This made church folk love him even more, because it was often church members' non-churched family whom he brought to faith. What impressed me most about his nature as a pastor, and as a friend, was his unassuming posture. He never claimed any esteem due him from the high influence he wielded. He just assumed he was talking about Jesus, and for him, that was enough. My uncle, Al Hughes, was among those whom he convinced. He also had a great sense of humor. I ran into him at a sexual ethics seminar (required of all ministers, active or retired), when he and I were laying out of the presentation on "Dating." He came up to Freida and me, and with a wry grin he said, "Hazel won't let me date."

Among the many Christians left to cherish his memory are his wife of 72 years, Hazel Plemmons Freshour; his daughters, Nancy Freshour Elliott and husband Charles, and Linda Freshour Bonorden and husband Brian; his daughter-in-law, Lynda Barton Freshour; his brother, Johnny Freshour and wife Jean; six grandchildren, Sam and Tim Freshour, Weylin and Westin Bonorden, and Natalie and Angela Elliott; four great-grandchildren; and two great-great-grandchildren. Then, of course, there were the numerous pastors whom he mentored and counseled. Arelin's only son, Donald Ray, survived his father for just two short weeks, before joining him in heaven.

A funeral service was held on Saturday, December 26, 2015, at 3 p.m. at Clinchfield United Methodist Church, with the Revs. Richard Anderson, Don Morrison, and Sarah Fouts officiating. The family met friends at the church prior to the service. Interment followed at Pleasant Grove Cemetery. Military honors were provided by the Rutherford County Honor Guard.

DONALD RAY FRESHOUR*OCTOBER 14, 1944 – JANUARY 5, 2016

The Rev. Donald Ray Freshour lost his battle with cancer and entered eternal life with the Lord on Tuesday, January 5, 2016, at Hospice of Rutherford County in Forest City, N.C.

Don was born in Marion, N.C., on October 14, 1944, the son of Hazel Plemmons Freshour and the late Arelin Ray Freshour. In addition to his parents, he had two sisters. He loved and appreciated his roots in Sugar Hill in southern McDowell County, where he often returned to visit and eventually retired.

After graduation from high school in McDowell County, he attended barber school and entered a profession as a local barber for several years. In 1970, Don answered the call to Christian ministry in his home church, Pleasant Grove United Methodist Church, in McDowell County, and began the journey with the Lord in The United Methodist Church.

Don married the love of his life, Lynda Barton Freshour, on March 13, 1965. They shared 51 years of mutual love and service together. They had two sons, Samuel Ray Freshour and wife Sherry, and Timothy Darrell Freshour; one grandson, Dustin Freshour and wife Casee; and two great-grandsons, Corbin and Turner Freshour. Amid a health crisis and Don's willingness "to slip on out" in November 2015, Lynda reminded Don of looking forward to Christmas with the great-grandsons. He rallied to celebrate the birth of the Christ Child with his great-grandsons and the rest of his family. He truly cherished his family as a husband, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather.

Forty years of full-time ministry began in 1970, at the Avery Circuit (Marion District). He served the circuit as a local pastor while pursuing his education at Appalachian State University. From 1974-1979, Don served the Table Rock Charge while continuing his education. He was ordained as a deacon in 1972, received his two-year CCS degree from Appalachian State University, and became an associate member of the Western NC Conference in 1978. He served: the Sunshine-Cedar Grove Charge (Bostic), 1979-1986; Pleasant Grove-Alexander (Forest City), 1986-1987; Pleasant Grove (Forest City), 1987-1992; and Salem (Morganton), 1992-2009. In 2009, Don retired. He then served a retired interim appointment beginning in February 2012, and retired supply from 2012 to March 30, 2015, at the Old Fort-Bethel Charge. He served faithfully and capably in all appointments and served on the Marion District Committee on Ordained Ministry and the WNCB Board of Ordained Ministry.

Throughout his ministry, Don would steal away to the Sugar Hill community to sit by the creek or walk the hills to do, as he said, "read and study Scripture, be alone with God, talk with God, listen to God, and to re-enter the world of ministry." His time alone with God was evident in his preaching, which he loved to do. Don often said, "I love to preach." One of his wonderful strengths was that he was very proud of who he was, his family, and from where he came. He was comfortable among people with his unique combination of wit, seriousness, sarcasm, and just plain bull. It made him an effective and valuable servant of the Lord. This life robbed Don of the body, but nothing of this life ever touched the love, quality, and depth of his soul in Christ Jesus whom he served.

A Celebration of Life service was held at Marion's First United Methodist Church on January 9, 2016, at 2 p.m. Don was laid to rest at Cedar Grove UMC's cemetery in Bostic. Well done, Don, good and faithful servant!

DONALD KILLIAN FUNDERBURK*JUNE 20, 1921 – MARCH 7, 2016

The Rev. Donald Killian Funderburk, 94, went home to be with the Lord early Monday, March 7, 2016, at Forsyth Medical Palliative Care Unit in Winston-Salem, N.C., after a brief illness. His funeral and celebration service were conducted March 11, 2016, at Ardmore United Methodist Church in Winston-Salem by the Revs. Jock Ollis and Lisa Tanico. Interment was at Center UMC cemetery in Welcome, N.C.

Donald was born the third son of Thomas Lee and Rena Harwood Funderburk in Matthews, N.C., on June 20, 1921. The Rev. Funderburk and his wife, Marian, had a son, Frank Edward, born October 14, 1946, who passed away in 2001 in Houston, Texas, after serving as a major in the Green Berets in Vietnam. They also had a daughter, Rena Anne (m. Meredith), born June 18, 1950. Funderburk and his wife had six grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

He was a valedictorian graduate of Matthews High School in 1937. He attended Brevard Junior College, 1939-1941, where he met his truly beloved wife of 73 years, Marian Louise Callis. They married December 20, 1942. He was a veteran of the U.S. Army and served during World War II. He was honorably discharged in November 1945.

Funderburk was called into the ministry of the Methodist Church in 1949, and began his service at Grace Chapel near Granite Falls, N.C., and also studied during this time to graduate salutatorian of Lenoir-Rhyne College, in 1951. He then went on to receive his Bachelor of Divinity degree from Candler School of Theology, Emory University, Atlanta, Ga., in 1953, while serving a church in Sugar Hill, Ga. He was admitted on trial into the Western NC Conference of The Methodist Church on September 30, 1951, into full connection in 1953, ordained as a deacon in 1953, and ordained as an elder in 1954.

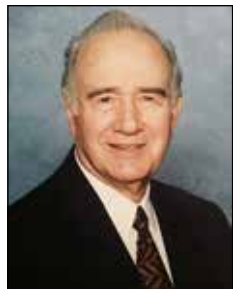

During his ministerial career, he served Grace Chapel (Granite Falls), 1949-1951; Shiloh (Catawba), 1953-1958; Triplett (Mooresville), 1958-1962; Davidson (Thomasville), 1962-1966; Center (Welcome), 1966-1972; and Bethlehem (Advance), 1972 until 1986, when he retired. After retiring, he continued serving as a local pastor at Oak Grove (Mocksville) until 1991. He continued to fulfill his driven call to help those less fortunate by supporting local and international missions.

Gifted in many ways, Funderburk began crafting exquisite dulcimers during retirement and spreading joy through music. He was an avid farmer throughout his life, having learned the skills in Robbinsville, N.C., from his grandparents and having taught in a veterans' farm program after the war. With help from his nephew, Jim Funderburk, he embraced new methods of spreading the Gospel at <http://www.dkfsermons.com> and in a booklet of sermons. He published a book in 1985, John R. Church, Evangelist: a Biography Including Dr. Church's Personal Testimony and His Memorial Service. Donald was a member of Ardmore Community Club, recently receiving the 2015 Man of the Year award.

The Rev. Funderburk was an excellent student of the Word and a preacher who tended to his "flock" wherever he was sent. In his nearly 40 years of service as a pastor, he never had any secretaries, only his typewriter. He was an avid reader and poet, with a photographic memory that cultivated a vast knowledge of poems, scripture, hymns, and corny jokes. He loved his work and lived a contented, dutiful life. He was a wonderful life partner.

"His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord" – Matthew 25:21 (KJV).

PHILIP HAMILTON GIBBS

APRIL 22, 1928 – AUGUST 30, 2015

After 87 years of Sundays dedicated to faithful church attendance and service to the Lord, on Sunday, August 30, 2015, the Rev. Philip Hamilton Gibbs began the resurrected life he had preached for nearly 40 years from United Methodist pulpits.

All his life centered on the church. He was born into a Methodist parsonage family, son of Sam and Grace Gibbs. It was at church that he met his future wife, Sue Evelyn Jenkins. They married on August 12, 1952, and for 63 years, they joyfully shared life and service to the church. They raised their children in church and faith: Philip H. Gibbs, Jr., Bryon Lee, Karen Ann, and Christy. They broadened the welcome of their hearts as their children married, and shared their rich faith heritage and their delight in life with six grandchildren as they added to the family circle.

Phil graduated with an Artium Baccalaureus degree from Wofford College in 1951, and a Master of Divinity degree from Duke Divinity School in 1954. Putting his calling, heart, and education to practice in an exemplary life of love, he served the Asheboro Circuit 1952-56; Asheboro Circuit and Cooleemee 1956-60; as an associate at Dilworth (Charlotte) 1960 to Sept. 1961; Marvin (Winston-Salem) 1961-63; Proximity (Greensboro) 1963-67; Mt. Zion (Cornelius) 1967-72; Abernethy (Asheville) 1972-76; Wesley Memorial (Statesville) 1976-80; Bradley Memorial (Gastonia) 1980-85; Hawthorne Lane (Charlotte) 1985-87; and Stanley from 1987-91.

Phil's love of people and love of God combined to distinguish his life and service as a Methodist pastor. While he officially retired from active ministry in 1991, until his last breath, he continued an "every Sunday" ministry of encouraging presence and Christian example to all.

The Rev. Dr. Mary John Dye led a Celebration of Resurrection Life for Phil Gibbs at Mt. Zion United Methodist Church on Wednesday, September 2, 2015, followed by inurnment at the Mt. Zion Columbarium. There in worship, as well as ongoing in the lives of family and those touched by his ministry, the life of Phil Gibbs was remembered as an inspiring presence, faithful witness, and cherished gift of God's love.

LILLIE MAE MADISON JONES

DECEMBER 8, 1942 – OCTOBER 27, 2015

The Rev. Dr. Lillie Madison Jones, 72, accepted the final call to enter eternal rest from her earthly labor on October 27, 2015, at Forsyth Medical Center in Winston Salem, N.C.

Lillie is survived by her husband of 50 years, Frederick Nathaniel Jones, Sr.; a daughter, Dr. Adelina Giselle Jones-Jones (Ronald); a son, the Rev. Frederick Nathaniel Jones II (Lynette); grandchildren Ashley Madison Jones, Morgan Idella Jones, Micah Alexander Jones, Eden Amelia Jones, Ronald Jarin Jones, Neriah Avery Jones, and Jairus Arthur Jones; and a host of relatives, friends, and colleagues near and far.

Lillie was born December 8, 1942, in Brevard, N.C., to the late James Arthur, Sr. and Lillie Reesie Norman Madison. The oldest of six children, she grew up in a four-room house and spent many years being trained in ministry at Bethel

"A" Baptist Church. From her formative years, she went on to spend her life in humble, selfless service that bloomed into an illustrious career in education, ministry, and coaching.

A Bennett Belle, Lillie earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in English and French from Bennett College in 1965, a Master of Science degree in education administration from North Carolina A&T University in 1977, a Doctor of Education degree from Virginia Polytechnic State University in 1986, and a Master of Divinity degree from Hood Theological Seminary in 2003. She later participated in a two-year Colleague Forum at Hinton Rural Life Center. An advocate of lifelong learning, she was a graduate of the Shalem Institute of Spiritual Formation with a certificate in leading contemplative prayer groups and retreats. She was among the first groups of women inducted into the Society of Our Wise Women at Bennett College.

Lillie taught high school English and later served as a principal, associate superintendent, and then deputy superintendent. Lillie retired as interim superintendent of the Guilford County Schools, after 35 years in education. Through her leadership in forming a strong connection with parents, the community, and local businesses, the school system worked to enrich its schools and improve the lives and success of its children. While serving as president of John Wesley College's board of trustees, she received the Order of the Long Leaf Pine award for her career and work in education. Additionally, she received the Leadership in Education Award from the Yale Child Development Center, the NAACP Woman of the Year Award, the United Negro College Distinguished Service Award, the Altrusa Woman of the Year Award, Woman of Achievement Award in Education, and Woman of Distinction. A $100,000 scholarship was established in Lillie's honor at Bennett College, and to further her legacy, the Lillie Madison Jones Foundation was founded to bestow scholarships at Bennett College and Hood Theological Seminary.

Beyond her first career, Lillie answered the call into ministry and began her studies at Hood in 2000. She was licensed for ministry in 2001, commissioned in 2003, and ordained an elder in the Western NC Conference in 2006. Her mission as a pastor was that "all persons, saved or unsaved, are God's creation and worthy of love and respect." Thus, her commitment to personal empowerment and spiritual development were at the center of her willingness to contribute her talent and her wisdom. She served as pastor of Faith and St. Paul United Methodist churches (Mooreville), 2001-06. During her tenure, she initiated a summer camp to prepare K-12 students for school and began after-school tutoring, as well as an annual banquet for community youth. Lillie served as director of WNCC Ethnic and Justice Ministries, 2006-08. She served as district superintendent for the newly-created Lake Norman District, from 2008 until her retirement in 2012. Lillie was a highly sought-after speaker and retreat leader, and continued with speaking engagements, instruction, writing, consulting, and coaching.

Lillie was a community activist, organizing Mooresville's annual community MLK service and was a catalyst in organizing the first MLK community breakfast. She served on three United Way boards across North Mecklenburg and Iredell counties, on the Conference's Council on Finance and Administration, as chair of nurture for the Rural Life Fellowship, and was a board member of the Hinton Rural Life Center. Lillie was a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Inc., Gulfside (Assembly) Association Inc., and the Piedmont Emmaus Community.

In her senior/post-retirement years, Lillie stepped into her own coaching business, Full Measure Living Coaching and Consulting, LLC. She remained steadfast in her commitment to empower and educate her clients, and was coaching several clients through Passion in Partnership in Charlotte upon her demise. She received training and licensure as an appreciative inquiry coach as well as a CPLC board certified coach from the Professional Christian Coaches Institute.

In 2012, Lillie and Frederick moved back to High Point and reconnected with their home church, Memorial UMC. Lillie established The School of Prayer and held sessions at the church and at the St. Francis Prayer Center. She is a published author, and her latest project, How I Got Over, will be completed posthumously by Lillie's daughter, Dr. A. Giselle Jones-Jones. To further honor her mother's legacy, Dr. Jones-Jones created a blog, online at <https://bloominglilliesblog.wordpress.com>.

Funeral services for Lillie were held at 12:30 p.m., November 3, 2015, at Wesley Memorial United Methodist Church, High Point. The Rev. Paul Milton and the Rev. Dr. Al Ward officiated. The Rev. Belvin J. Jessup, dear friend of Frederick and Lillie, was the eulogist. Interment followed at Guilford Memorial Park in Greensboro.

Though it seems she left this earth too soon, Lillie most certainly lived and loved well. "In the rapture of her soul, God left us another gift in her place – the gift of her spirit as we remember her days with us – as mother, wife, grandmother, sister, niece, aunt, cousin, prayer warrior, educator, administrator, leader, preacher, coach, servant, friend. ...We can weep now, but we shan't weep for long – for God's Saint has gone Home."

HENRY ADOLPHUS JUSTICE

NOVEMBER 1, 1935 – APRIL 23, 2016

The Rev. Henry Adolphus Justice went to be with his Lord and Savior on April 23, 2016. Born in Anderson, N.C., on November 1, 1935, he was the only child of Harley Garrett Justice and Nina Lee Sluder-Justice. He was a loving husband to Renee Kemp Justice for 53 years and a devoted father to Lee Kimrey Justice-Black. His two granddaughters, Taylor and Hannah Black, affectionately called him, "Daddy Dee." He was a fun and very much loved grandfather.

Henry attended Brevard College, receiving an associate degree in 1955. He then went on to Duke University, receiving an Artium Baccalaureus degree in 1957, and the Bachelor of Divinity degree in 1960. Henry was licensed to preach in 1953; ordained a deacon in 1959; ordained an elder, 1961. Henry met his future wife while working as an associate pastor at Centenary United Methodist Church in Winston-Salem, from 1960-1962. They were married in December 1962, in Morehead City, N.C., while he was serving Robbinsville, 1962-1966. Henry went on to serve in Oteen (Asheville), 1966-

1968; St. John's (Greensboro), 1968-1971; and Cokesbury (Charlotte), 1971-1976. There, he built a new church from a brick building where the church began.

Possessing a love of youth and young adults, Henry joined the Western NC Conference staff to direct youth and young adult ministries, 1976-1988. During those years, he served as a director at Camp Tekoa for five summers in Hendersonville. After serving on the conference staff, Henry returned to the local church, serving Andrew's (Charlotte), 1988-1994, where he led a building campaign to add a new sanctuary. Henry's last appointment was at Myers Memorial (Gastonia), 1994-1999, retiring in 1999.

Yet, Henry never fully retired. He worked at the Blumenthal Performing Arts Center in Charlotte for 16 years, as a house manager for Broadway shows. For the last few years, he was the head of volunteer services. Henry was always ministering to the employees at the Blumenthal by performing weddings, funerals, and baptisms.

At the end of Henry's life, there was an outpouring of love from friends, relatives, and colleagues for the way he touched people's lives. Henry is remembered for always smiling, always laughing, always being a great friend, and helping those in need. His beautiful service was held May 2, 2016, at Myers Memorial UMC, where many people gathered to remember a very special man.

RONALD ALVA KOONTS

NOVEMBER 21, 1938 – MAY 13, 2015

The Rev. Dr. Ronald "Ron" Alva Koonts died at Haywood Lodge in Waynesville, N.C., on May 13, 2015.

Ron, the son of Archie Alva and Helen Snider Koonts, grew up in High Point attending Wesley Memorial with his three sisters, Rebecca, Carolyn, and Sandra. He graduated from High Point High School and received a Morehead Scholarship to the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, where he graduated in 1961. He went on to Duke Divinity School, earning a Bachelor of Divinity degree in 1964 and a Master of Theology degree in 1965. In 1980, he earned a Doctor of Divinity degree from Princeton University. Ron was ordained deacon in 1962 and elder in 1966.

Ron's early appointments were in Asheville, first at Oak Hill, 1965-1969, and then French Broad and Central (associate), 1969-1972. He then served: Thrift, 1972-1976; Cullowhee, 1976-October 1980; Matthews, 1980-1984; Central (Mooresville), 1984-1988; Central (Shelby), 1988-1990; Central (Asheboro), 1990-1995; and Central (Mount Airy), 1995-1996. Chronic depression cut his ministry short, and Ronald was on medical leave until his retirement in 2004.

In 1962, Ron married his high school sweetheart, Patricia Flythe. The couple had two children, Ronald Christopher and Katherine Patricia. Ron enjoyed a yearly camping trip with the family for many years. He also enjoyed golf, tennis, washing the family cars, and working in his yard at Junaluska. He was an active member of local Rotary clubs in many towns where he served.

Ron used his training in counseling to supervise Duke Endowment students, and minister to individuals in his community and church. These one-to-one encounters were some of his fondest experiences during his ministry. He served the Western North Carolina Conference as chairperson of the board of trustees and as a member of the insurance committee.

Ron's memorial service was held on May 18, 2015, at First Church Waynesville, and was led by the Rev. Sandy Giles, senior minister, and David Baxter, a long-time friend. David and Ron grew up together at Wesley Memorial and were roommates at Duke. At Ron's committal service in High Point later that day, David closed his remarks by saying: "Ron signed his letters, "Grace, Mercy, Peace." The other morning, while we slept, grace, mercy, and peace called him home."

CARROLL CRESCENT LUPTON, JR.

APRIL 10, 1938 – MARCH 26, 2016

The Rev. Carroll Crescent Lupton, Jr., 77, passed away peacefully in the comfort of his home on March 26, 2016. He was born in Burlington, N.C., to the late Dr. Carroll Crescent Lupton, Sr. and Clara Mae (McAdams) Lupton on April 10, 1938. Carroll is survived by his wife, Michael Mae Roberts Lupton, whom he married on October 15, 1983, and often called his soulmate. He felt that God had put her in his path. He is also survived by his children, Carroll Crescent Lupton III, Laura Lake Lupton, and Richard Scott Barnes.

Carroll attended Greensboro public schools, the Julliard School of Music, Wake Forest University, and Guilford College. He obtained his Bachelor of Arts degree from Elon University in 1964 and received his master's degree from Duke Divinity School in 2000. Licensed to preach in 1993, Carroll was admitted to the Western North Carolina Conference in 2000, ordained a full connection elder in 2003. He served the Saint Paul's charge starting in 1994, which converted to the Mountain Grove-Wesley Chapel charge in January 1996, until 1997. After a break in service while a student at Duke, he served Shiloh (Greensboro), 2000-2003, and Friendship (Lexington), 2003-2009. Retiring in 2009, Carrol served a part time interim position at Level Cross, beginning in 2012, until his declining health forced him to fully retire in 2015.

Prior to his career in ministry, Carroll was a great pitcher and once pitched batting practice with the New York Yankees, which included greats like Mickey Mantle, Yogi Berra, and Whitey Ford. All through his youth, he took voice lessons and was admitted to Julliard School of Music for voice. While there, he sang as an extra with The Metropolitan Opera. His beautiful tenor voice served him well in ministry, as well as in private life. He sang at countless weddings and funeral services. He was a tenor soloist in the annual performance of The Messiah almost every year that he lived in Greensboro.

Carroll was also in the construction business, once owning his own company building homes, and later working with large commercial construction companies, including Brown and Root, on large projects, some of which were at Shaw Air Force Base in Cheraw, S.C. He was also the project manager involved in the construction of Emerald Pointe water park in Greensboro, N.C. He built many schools, churches, and upscale homes over the years.

His memorial service was held at Level Cross UMC on April 2, 2016, where the pews were filled with family, high school classmates, friends, and colleagues. The Revs. Nathan Snider and Jason Stanley presided. During the witness testimony, two men, one in bib overalls and one in a suit and tie, gave testimony as to how God had placed Carroll in their lives and turned their lives around. The most fitting tribute was that every church where Carroll had served was represented at his memorial.

Although Carroll answered his call late in life, all the things listed above prepared him for the ministering that he did. Thanks be to God.

JAMES EDWARD MADDOX

SEPTEMBER 9, 1945 – OCTOBER 14, 2015

After a courageous battle with cancer, the Rev. Dr. James Edward Maddox died on Wednesday, October 14, 2015. His life was honored in a service held on Sunday, October 18, at Denver United Methodist Church, in which cemetery he now rests.

Born September 9, 1945, in Marshall, Mo., Ed was the son of James Wesley and Joan Dawson Maddox. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by a son, Edward Saunders Maddox. Ed is survived by his wife, Brenda Faulkner Maddox; two sons, Gregory Scott Maddox and James Michael Maddox; two granddaughters, Emma Kathryn and Ashley Michelle; and one grandson, Coleman Benedict. Ed and Brenda were special guardians of foster children: Abby and Alyssa Watkins, and Scottie and Landa Heavner. Ed and Brenda were married on June 12, 1965.

Ed received a Bachelor of Arts degree from N.C. Wesleyan in 1967, a Master of Divinity degree from Princeton University in 1970, and a Doctor of Ministry degree from Drew University in 1976. He served churches in the Northern New Jersey Conference, where he was licensed to preach in 1965, ordained deacon in 1969, and ordained elder in 1971. He served churches in the Northern New Jersey Conference until June 1979, when he requested and received transfer to the Western NC Conference because of the need to be near his father who was seriously ill.

His ministerial service in the Western NC Conference included the Midway Circuit, 1979-October 1982; Mt. Olivet: (Thomasville), October 1982-1985; Covenant (Gastonia) 1985-1987; Asbury (Lincolnton), 1987-1994; Hill's Chapel, 1994-2000; Rehobeth (Terrell), 2000-2006; and Boger City, 2006-2011; retiring in 2011.

While Ed's primary focus of ministry was always in the local church, he was effectively involved in numerous conference and district ministries. He served as conference chair of evangelism in the Northern New Jersey Conference. After transferring to western North Carolina, he was a pioneer in development of the Hispanic Ministries, in partnership with the Duke Endowment. In 1983, he and his family participated in a conference-sponsored ministerial exchange with a pastor in Mexico. Throughout his ministry, Ed was involved in numerous short-term mission building team experiences.

His pastoral ministry focused on enabling persons in his care in the discovery and utilization of God-given gifts and talents. He was a faithful example of witnessing to the importance of ministerial camaraderie, offering support and generous friendship to the retired clergy who were a part of his church families. Examples of his ministry included both regular expansion of physical facilities in his churches and, more importantly, development of mission-oriented ministries. The fruit of his caring demeanor was witnessed in his last months by the large number of clergy and former church members who ministered faithfully to him and his family. His ministry also extended to involvement in community activities. He was a Rotarian at several points in his life, serving as president of the Sherrills Ford Club, 2014-2015.

A loving and caring person whose life was blessed with the gift of generous laughter, Ed will be missed by all persons who knew him.

JOHN JAMES MILLER

AUGUST 11, 1920 – MAY 11, 2015

The Rev. John James Miller was born to John Wister Miller and the former Harriet Elizabeth Pearson on August 11, 1920, in Easley, S.C. Harriet was the second wife of J.W. Miller, a merchant operating a small grocery store at the time. They were members of Easley Mill Wesleyan Methodist Church.

At birth, John was a half-sibling to six other children, and within three years another sister and brother were born. His sister, Mary, eventually, became the wife of the Rev. Charles Bruce of the Western North Carolina Conference. Both are now deceased.

Following his father's call to pastoral ministry in The Wesleyan Methodist Church, the Miller family moved to Greer, S.C., in 1924 where his father served Greer Wesleyan Methodist Church. As a 5-year-old, John met his future wife, the former Opal Henderson, a daughter born to a couple in the congregation. Eventually, the Millers moved to Spartanburg, S.C., where John's father became the pastor of Spartanburg Wesleyan Methodist Church. His mother was appointed as assistant pastor.

John's education included public schools in Greer and Spartanburg, with his final two years of high school at Wesleyan Methodist College in Central, S.C. (now Southern Wesleyan University). Continuing at Wesleyan for an associate's degree, he completed a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1947 at Wofford College. He enrolled at Asbury Theological Seminary for the first two years of his Bachelor of Divinity (now Master of Divinity) degree, transferring to the Candler School of Theology at Emory University for his final year and graduation in 1950.

John's young adult life was influenced by the unexpected death of his father in 1940, his mother's ongoing ill health, and the burning of the family home when he was 25. These events extended the time needed to complete his preparation for pastoral ministry, a calling he had experienced early in life through licensing and ordination in The Wesleyan Methodist Church.

After completing seminary at Candler, John transitioned to the Methodist Church, by accepting an appointment as pastor of the Gonzales Methodist Circuit in the Louisiana Conference. As an ordained elder and member of that conference, he transferred to the Western North Carolina Conference in 1951. He served the following appointments: Triplett, 1951-1955; Westford, 1955-1960; Gibsonville, 1960-1964; Dallas, 1964-1966; Maiden, 1966-1968; First UMC (Charlotte), associate, 1968-1972; Mt. Zion (Cornelius), 1972-1976; St. James (Charlotte), 1976-1978; Stanley, 1978-1983; and Commonwealth, 1983-1986.

After retiring in 1986, he lived in Charlotte until Opal's retirement in 1988. They had been married on June 14, 1952, at Bethel Methodist Church in Spartanburg and had shared more than 62 years of marriage at John's death. Their retirement home was at Lake Junaluska, N.C., where they experienced an active life in both church and community. Among his many retirement pursuits, John enjoyed assisting Opal with the television ministry team at First United Methodist Church (Waynesville). At Lake Junaluska Assembly, he founded the monthly vespers service, co-founded the Lake Junaluska Property Owners Organization; and served as a life member of the Junaluska Associates as well as other support groups for the assembly.

During retirement, he wrote three books, Down the Road from Eden, More of Down the Road from Eden, and Being Right with God. The first two books consisted of stories, both humorous and serious, from personal experiences in more than 45 years of pastoral ministry. Being Right with God was his expression of our Wesleyan theological heritage, the foundation for his living, preaching, and evangelistic outreach. With a love for people and his desire to "offer Christ," John's greatest memories from ministry were the experiences of lives changed through faith in Christ.

For fun, John not only enjoyed laughter and good stories. He also played golf, tennis, shuffleboard, and racquetball. He won several medals participating in the N.C. Senior Olympics. At the Junaluska Golf Club and the Haywood Fitness Center, he shared in good fellowship with friends. During football and basketball seasons, he was a fan of the Duke Blue Devils and Wofford Terriers. At home, he enjoyed writing and video productions.

John's life with Opal and the family was a source of joy and gratitude. John and Opal are parents of two sons, the Rev. Dr. Perry Miller, a clergy member of the Western North Carolina Conference (born July 29, 1956), and Kevin Miller, an attorney in Winston-Salem, N.C., (born May 13, 1959). The family also includes the Rev. Karen Farish Miller, who is Perry's wife, Lisa Funderburk Miller, who is Kevin's wife, and five grandchildren.

Following his death on May 11, 2015, a funeral service was held May 16, at First United Methodist Church (Waynesville) with burial at Garrett-Hillcrest Memorial Park. To God Be the Glory!

JOHN KERMIT MILLER

SEPTEMBER 21, 1919 – FEBRUARY 27, 2016

The Rev. John Kermit Miller entered into his eternal rest on February 27, 2016, in Rutherfordton, N.C., at age 96, after several years of declining health. A celebration of his life was held March 5, 2016, at Mays Chapel United Methodist Church in Maiden, N.C., with burial in the church cemetery. The funeral was conducted by the Revs. Byron Alexander and Cecelia Miller Beck. A time of visitation and celebration followed in the church fellowship hall.

The Rev. Miller was born on September 21, 1919, in Statesville, N.C., to Stamey Lee and Martha Beckham Miller. He grew up in Newton, N.C., with his three brothers and three sisters who are now all reunited in their heavenly home. Miller and his brothers and sisters grew up helping in the family bakery in Newton, and many special memories were shared about those times. From an early age, Miller felt called to preach the Gospel and was encouraged by his family in this calling.

On October 16, 1936, John was married to Margaret (Peggy) Douglass of Maiden, N.C. Early in their marriage, he was employed in business but was often called upon to preach in his church. He was a lay leader and was frequently and providentially encouraged to pursue vocational ministry by those who recognized his gift of proclamation. It was while he was serving in the U.S. Navy during World War II, as he was recovering from a severe head injury, that he surrendered to God's call on his life. After several years of exploring the specific direction of this call, a journey began that included graduating with an Artium Baccalaureus degree in 1952, from Lenoir-Rhyne College, and a Bachelor of Divinity degree with honors, in 1954 from Candler School of Theology at Emory University. He then served for 33 years in the Western NC Conference of The United Methodist Church.

Miller was ordained as a deacon in 1953 and an elder in 1955. While a student at Lenoir-Rhyne, he served a charge in Iredell County that included Rocky Mount UMC, McKendree's Chapel, and Williamson's Chapel and at Fairgrove UMC (Hickory). Following this, his appointments included: Hayesville, 1953-1956; Unity (Thomasville), 1956-1960; Race Street (Statesville), 1960-1965; First (Rutherfordton), 1965-1967; Mount Tabor (Winston-Salem), 1967-1972; Epworth (Concord), 1972-1975; Grace (Charlotte), 1975-1979; and First (Franklin), 1979-1983; retiring in 1983. He was often called upon to preach revivals throughout the conference during his ministry and into retirement and was thankful for those opportunities.

Believing his call to include service beyond his church, Miller served as district director of evangelism in the Thomasville, Salisbury, Charlotte and Waynesville districts, was a member of the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications, treasurer of the Conference Board of Evangelism, and a member of the Conference Boards of Missions and Communications. Two of his most treasured experiences were a month-long preaching mission to South America in 1969 and serving as a tour host to the Holy Land in 1972.

After retirement Miller and his wife moved to Troutman, where they enjoyed hosting family gatherings, gardening, and other activities. Miller and his beloved wife, Peggy, also enjoyed several years of camping before Mrs. Miller's health declined. While living in Troutman, he served as interim pastor at Wesley Memorial UMC (Statesville). In recent years, Miller resided at White Oak Manor in Rutherfordton, due to a declining ability to walk. While a resident at the facility, he maintained his joy, warmth, and kindness, and he was a favorite resident among the staff who were greeted by him on most mornings with, "This is the day the Lord has made, we will rejoice and be glad in it." He also formed close relationships with other godly men in the facility and was always called upon to pray on special occasions at the facility.

Miller was a loving father, grandfather, and great-grandfather whose love of God, sense of humor, and love for life is affectionately remembered by all of his family and friends. Those left to treasure his memory are two daughters, Rebecca Hargett and Cecelia Beck, as well as two sons, John Mark Miller and Timothy Miller. With his joyful spirit, he delighted in his six granddaughters and one grandson, as well as his five great-granddaughters and seven great-grandsons. He enjoyed the honor and blessing of baptizing all of his grandchildren and all of his great-grandchildren except one.

Thanks be to God for the life of the Rev. John K. Miller. "This is the day that the Lord has made. We will rejoice and be glad in it."

BILLIE JOAN STUBBLEFIELD MORRISON

JANUARY 17, 1936 – NOVEMBER 2, 2015

The Rev. Billie Joan Stubblefield Morrison was called to be with the Lord on November 2, 2015. Born January 17, 1936, in Greensboro, N.C., Billie was the oldest of three children born to the late John Cecil Stubblefield and Virginia White Stubblefield Toomes. She grew up on the family farm in Pleasant Garden, N.C.

Billie contracted polio during the epidemic of 1948 and spent one year in the temporary polio hospital in Greensboro. During her stay, she spent about two and a half months in an "iron lung" to enable her breathing. She nearly died on more than one occasion. After her release from the hospital, she underwent surgery to fuse her severely damaged left shoulder and spent nine months in an upper body cast. Even after rehabilitation, her left arm was paralyzed and the rest of her body was left with about 40 percent of normal strength and function. Because of the effects of polio, she was told she would never be able to attend school, hold a job, or raise a family.

Billie was home-tutored through ninth grade and then attended and graduated from Pleasant Garden High School as class valedictorian in 1954. She attended and graduated from The Women's College at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro in 1958, earning a Bachelor of Arts degree in sociology and education. Billie worked many years as a social worker in High Point, N.C. There, she met the brother of a co-worker and later married John Slate Morrison on December 30, 1960. Their marriage lasted 40 years until John's death in 2001. Together, they raised two sons: John, Jr., born December 17, 1961, and Barry Stephen, born May 5, 1968.

Billie was an active member of Rehobeth United Methodist Church in Greensboro and led Bible study meetings out of the home for many years.

Billie was called to the ministry at age 47 when she returned to school at Greensboro College, majoring in religion and philosophy. She earned a Master of Divinity degree from Duke Divinity School in 1988. Billie was a summer intern at Moriah United Methodist Church in Greensboro during the summer of 1986. She was admitted to provisional membership in the Western North Carolina Conference in 1987 and ordained as a deacon that same year. She served Antioch and Oak Grove, 1988-1993 (Winston-Salem District). She was ordained as an elder in 1990.

For many years, membership at Oak Grove UMC had been in decline, but after less than two years into Billie's ministry there, the church's membership nearly doubled. In April 1990, the church building caught fire, and it was declared a total loss. Arson was suspected, and it devastated the community. Instead of joining other churches, members of the congregation held together under Billie's leadership. They lost the building, but according to Billie, "We have the people and we have the 'Word.' That is what we need." She continued to lead the congregation in services and activities temporarily at the local 4-H Club building until 14 months later, when a new permanent home for Oak Grove was purchased.

After experiencing the weakening effects of Post Polio Syndrome, Billie became no longer able physically to meet the demands of an active ministry and went on disability leave in June 1993. Prior to that, she told a local newspaper that her aim had been simply, "To preach and live God's word among [her] parishioners. I suppose my emphasis in ministry has been that Christ brings joy, and I want to let folks know there's happiness and joy in spite of our problems and pains in life."

Billie continued to serve as minister in residence at Moriah UMC in Greensboro, and as chaplain to the USS Maddox Destroyer Association. Billie officially retired in 2001, but continued to be friend, confidant, and counselor to many, including former parishioners and fellow clergy, until her passing.

In spite of her physical impairment, for most of her adult life Billie cooked, kept house, sewed, was an artist (pencil and charcoal), drove a car, gardened, and entertained four grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. She never complained about her misfortune and always had a smile for everyone. Her quiet confidence and determination was a shining example to all who knew her. She conveyed the unspoken message that no matter how bad the situation may be, it could be worse and obstacles can be overcome.

A Celebration of Life service was held for Billie on November 14, 2015, at Rehobeth UMC in Greensboro, conducted by the Revs. Vance Lowe and Paul McClure.

ANNE WILLSON COLLINS MUSSELMAN

SEPTEMBER 8, 1939 – DECEMBER 12, 2015

The Rev. Anne Willson Collins Musselman, 76, of Kannapolis, passed away peacefully in her sleep on December 12, 2015, after a long struggle with cancer. Anne was born on September 8, 1939, in Baltimore, Md., to Ezekiel and Margaret Pherigo, and had four siblings, Richard, Lindsey, Elizabeth, and Charles.

Anne was a talented musician who earned her undergraduate degree in music from Western Maryland College in 1961 and her Master of Arts in teaching from the University of Vermont in 1974. Anne was very much a child of the 1960s, and she attended the Woodstock Music Festival in 1969. After receiving her teaching degree, she shared her love for music with the children she taught, first in Vermont, and then in North Carolina.

While working as a music teacher, she also began working in churches as an organist and choir director. Through her church music work, she began to experience a call to ordained ministry. In 1994, she enrolled in the Candler School of Theology at Emory University in Atlanta, Ga., and graduated with her Master of Divinity in 1997. After graduation, she was appointed to the Denton Circuit in the Lexington District and began serving as a licensed local pastor. She was commissioned as a probationary deacon in the Western North Carolina Conference in June 1998. Unfortunately, cancer was discovered in her body in the fall of 1998, and she had to take a medical leave of absence at that time. She finally retired in 2006.

After leaving the pulpit, Anne returned to the organ bench as often as her health allowed. She served as an interim organist and choir director at a number of churches in the Concord and Kannapolis area, and eventually came to call Trinity United Methodist Church in Kannapolis her church family. While at Trinity, she assisted with visitation ministry, filled in as guest organist, and headed up the team who took Communion to Trinity members who were no longer able to attend church. During the last few years of her life, she also served as the organist at Wittenburg Lutheran Church in Granite Quarry, where she provided service music twice a month.

Anne was both a person of faith and a person of rare openness. Never forgetting that she was a child of the 1960s, she carried within her no prejudices based on ethnicity, gender, or orientation. She did, however, speak her mind, especially when lifting up the oppressed and forgotten. She was a very social person, and she enjoyed spending time with her friends from both the community and the churches in which she was involved. She was very insightful and had the ability to offer and examine multiple perspectives on any given issue.

She is survived by two sons, Austin Wheeler and Brendan Martin, and five grandchildren. A memorial service was held in her memory at Trinity UMC in Kannapolis on December 31, 2015, led by the Rev. Kim Trebold of Wittenburg Lutheran Church, along with the Rev. Tracy Love and the Rev. Kirk Tutterow of Trinity UMC. She is missed greatly by her friends both at Trinity UMC and Wittenburg Lutheran Church, but they also know that heaven's eternal choir has added another member.

ZANE GREY NORTON

APRIL 16, 1924 – OCTOBER 27, 2015

Bearing the name of one of the most colorful and celebrated novelists of the American Wild West, Zane Grey Norton lived among us for 91 years, 38 of them as a Methodist traveling preacher in churches and communities of Piedmont North Carolina. His namesake's Riders of the Purple Sage was, however, not his story. We do not understand "our" Zane Grey by studying Wild West romanticism! Rather, his focus and earnest desire were simply to do what Father Wesley admonished us: "Offer them Christ." He did it in complete commitment to the God who had called him to serve.

His life began April 16, 1924, in the Hoke County, N.C., town of Raeford. Zane Grey was the son of the late Manly and Harriet Norton, and he served in the U.S. Navy during World War II. His first formal steps into ministry came in 1946, as he was licensed to preach while studying at Duke University, where he earned his Artium Baccalaureus degree in 1949 and his Bachelor of Divinity degree in 1952. While at Duke, he and his beloved Elizabeth Lee Clark were united in marriage on March 25, 1951. They were a formidable pair in devotion to each other and to the people placed in their care.

Zane Grey's clergy membership in the Western NC Conference began in 1952, after his second Duke graduation, as he was received "on trial" and ordained as a deacon. Admission to full-connection membership and ordination as an elder followed in 1954.

Listing the pastorates served by any clergy person can seem routine. But for all of us who have been blessed to serve, our pastoral records represent countless sermons preached, weddings conducted, baptisms and services of Holy Communion celebrated, lives helped in finding faith or facing difficulty, and administrative decisions made for the cause of Christ. All of these Zane Grey did faithfully and well. Having known the terrible reality of war, he brought the Prince of Peace to folks who responded to his preaching and wise counsel. Never did he report a "barren" year, when no persons were received into the Christian church. He served these appointments: Hoyle Memorial (Shelby), 1952-1954; Hoyle Memorial-Clover Hill, 1954-1955; Crouse, 1955-1959; Fairgrove (Hickory), 1959-1960; Union Ridge (Winston-Salem), 1960-1964; Asbury-Huntersville, 1964-1968; Maylo (Gastonia), 1968-1972; Broad Street-Jones Memorial (Mooresville), 1972-1977; Calvary (Charlotte), 1977-1981; Wesley Memorial-Hanes (Winston-Salem), 1981-1983; Wesley Memorial (Winston-Salem), 1983-1986; Pleasant Garden, 1986-1987; and Rose Chapel (Statesville), 1987-1990. He retired in 1990 and remained in that relationship until his death.

On October 27, 2015, at First Assembly Living Center in Concord, Zane Grey's earthly life found its completion. His funeral service was conducted October 31, at Raymer-Kepner Funeral Home, Huntersville, with interment in Harrisburg Presbyterian Church cemetery, Harrisburg.

Living as he did to a good old age, Zane Grey experienced the deaths of his parents and his wife, Elizabeth (January 4, 2015); their older son, Edward Zane Norton; their daughters, Alisa Norton Ault and Sharon Janelle Norton; and both a brother and a sister. He is survived by his younger son, Laron Clark Norton (Patricia), and four grandchildren, Alexandra Ault, and Nicholas, Logan, and Matthew Norton.

Each of God's children is unique. But as the saying goes, some are more unique than others. Such was the case with Zane Grey. He was, in some ways, a bit of a legend in the Western North Carolina Conference. To be around him was to know that things would probably get very interesting sooner, rather than later. I got to know him in the 1950s. And I can never forget the sight of this tall, slender, smiling, laughing, story-telling friend, who always seemed to have a story to tell or an unexpected question to ask. He seemed to know and care about nearly everybody, and his infectious, knee-slapping laugh and recounting of special stories that had come to his attention were endearing.

One of the special ways in which Zane Grey affected the annual conference came in his work with John James Powell, J. Alton Fitzgerald, and Mrs. Sarah Ruffy in member registration at the annual sessions. He served on the staff of the conference secretary as a member of the registration team for many years, going back to when registration happened in the cross-aisle of Stuart Auditorium and in the area behind the auditorium stage. It was nothing like the computerized operation we experience today. It was pure pen-and-paper, administered with a smile, a welcoming word, and the issuance of a per-diem check. Zane Grey and his colleagues made countless folk feel welcome as they came to Lake Junaluska for "conference week." Even as a teenager, I had the great joy of working with J.J., Zane, Alton, and Sarah, and to this day I treasure a blessing given by me by Zane Grey, as he wrote in the front of a gift book on the occasion of my graduation from high school: "May your sermons in their power be exceeded only by your girl friends in their beauty." That kind of comment was quite typical of him. It was pure Zane Grey!

But if you ask most of his colleagues and friends what they remember most about Zane Grey in the context of the conference, there can be only one answer: His ability to make pastoral appointments. He was never sentenced to serve a term on the bishop's cabinet, but he was forever figuring out what at least most of the pastoral appointments would be each year before the members of the cabinet themselves knew! It was uncanny to watch his mind at work in that regard. He knew the churches. He knew the preachers. He knew how a given bishop's mind worked. And he could put all of that together and in straightforward fashion tell you "where everybody was going." I always thought of it as a grace note placed in his life as always a curiosity and usually a blessing.

And so we mark the closing of Zane Grey's life and ministry among us and give him back to God. He was one of those whom Tom Brokaw has named "the greatest generation." He was faithful in things both great and small. Thanks be to God for lending us this unique Christian servant!

VERNON JEROME RAMSEY

MAY 17, 1923 – OCTOBER 29, 2015

Retired Lt. Cmdr. Vernon Jerome Ramsey, 92, of Jacksonville, N.C., passed away Thursday, October 29, 2015, at the North Carolina State Veterans Home in Kinston, after several years of declining health.

Vernon was born May 17, 1923, in Salisbury, N.C., to the late Reginald E. Ramsey, Sr. and Nancy Belle Kesler Ramsey. In addition to his parents, he was also preceded in death by his siblings, Reginald E. Ramsey, Jr., Helen Ramsey Haggart, James Warren Ramsey, Bonnie Ramsey Curlee, Jack Ramsey, Sr., Nancy Ramsey, Betty Rose Ramsey Ferguson, and Patricia Ramsey Meadows.

Vernon was a 1941 graduate of Boyden High School in Salisbury, where he was student body president during his senior year. He attended Appalachian College in Boone, N.C., before joining the U.S. Marines Corps during World War II. After the war, Vernon graduated in 1948 from Catawba College in Salisbury and in 1953 from Duke Divinity School where he became an avid Duke Blue Devil fan.

During his ministerial career, Vernon served the Weddington five-point charge, 1951-1953; the Webster Charge, 1953-1954; and as a U.S. Navy chaplain, March 1954-1974. His 20 years in the military were spent providing ministry and counseling to our service men and women in many parts of the United States and around the world, including Danang, Vietnam, Dominican Republic, Argentina, and Okinawa, Japan. He received many medals and citations, retiring with the rank of lieutenant commander.

After retiring from the Navy in 1974, Vernon moved to Jacksonville, N.C., where he enjoyed playing golf, fishing, crabbing, doing yard work, and shopping. He loved a good sale and was known as "Red Tag Ramsey" at the PX in Camp Lejeune. Vernon loved his family with whom he enjoyed annual vacations at North Myrtle Beach, S.C., and Christmas family gatherings in Salisbury. He also enjoyed many years spent with his special friend, Jane Hunter, who Vernon cared for until her death in 2011. In 2014, Vernon moved to the North Carolina State Veterans Home in Kinston.

Funeral services for Vernon were held November 2, 2015, at Jones Funeral Home of Jacksonville, with the Rev. Thurman Horney officiating. Burial with full military honors was at Chestnut Hill Cemetery in Salisbury on November 3, 2015.

JAMES DAVID REEP*FEBRUARY 6, 1945 – MAY 24, 2015

The Rev. James David Reep was born February 6, 1945 in Forest City in Rutherford County, N.C., son of the late Ray and Ann Newton Reep.

After a long battle with brain tumors, David departed the Church Militant for the Church Triumphant on Sunday, May 24, 2015, at his home in Troutman, N.C., surrounded by his loving family. Funeral services were held May 30, 2015, at Beulah Heights Wesleyan Church in Troutman and were led by the Revs. David C. Noyes and Trent Patterson.

David married the love of his life, Faye Harris Reep, on March 2, 1963, and was happily married 52 years. David and Faye had three children: Amanda Reep Mitchell and husband Kyle, David Shawn Reep and wife Debbie, and John Mark Reep and wife Michelle. They also had seven grandchildren, Zeke, Zoe, Zaria, and Zane, children of Shawn and Debbie, and Dustin, Caleb, and Jack, children of John Mark and Michelle. David was preceded in death by his sister, Shirley Cash; his brother, Michael Reep; and three grandchildren. David cared for and loved his family deeply. He faithfully ministered and cared for and was always there for them in the same way he cared for the churches he served.

David graduated from East Rutherford High School near Forest City in 1964. He started his education at Isothermal Community College and felt the call to ministry. Then, he and Faye were attending Glenwood Baptist Church in Forest City. He began his lay ministry for about five years, first at Glenwood Baptist Church and then continued at Main Street Baptist Church in Spindale, N.C. It was during this time he felt there was something more that the Lord was calling him to do, other than his work in the Baptist Church. He and Faye began to attend Providence United Methodist Church. There, David felt the call to ministry in The United Methodist Church. He transferred his membership to Providence UMC in Forest City in 1971 and began his journey of ministry in United Methodism.

David was licensed to preach in 1974 in the Western North Carolina Conference. He began his college work at Appalachian State University as a student pastor and graduated in 1976 with a bachelor's degree. He continued at Candler School of Theology at Emory University as a student pastor and graduated in 1980 with Master of Divinity degree. He was ordained as deacon and welcomed as a probationary member in 1979 and ordained elder and welcomed in full connection in 1982 by the Western North Carolina Conference.

David gave dedicated service to the Lord and the churches he served for more than 40 years. He served: Avery Parish, assistant, 1974-1977; North Georgia Conference, 1977-1978; Mill Spring, 1978-1980; Old Fort-Ebenezer, 1980-1984; Waxhaw, 1984-1988; Mount Bethel (North Wilkesboro), 1988-1993; Kerr Street, 1993-1994; Liberty-Concord (Lexington), 1994-1998; Lawndale-Double Shoals, 1998-2004; Bethany (High Point), 2004-2005; and Shiloh-Wesley Chapel (Statesville), 2005-2011. He retired in 2011.

David and Faye were instrumental in starting the Emmaus Walk program of The Upper Room in North Carolina. This ministry began in 1987 and remains very active. The first walk, Immanuel, began in 1987 at Camp Loy White. David felt called to begin the Emmaus Walk in our conference because there was a deep desire within the congregations he served to have a deeper walk with Jesus Christ. Many, many ministers and lay persons have had their lives changed forever by participating in the Emmaus Walk. It has changed this writer's life, and I will eternally grateful.

One of David's favorite scriptures was Joshua 24:14-15: "Choose for yourself this day who you will serve ... but as for me and my household, we will serve the Lord." Serve he did. He was a faithful servant of God. David was a man of integrity. He was a man of God. He stood up for what he believed. He was known for his unwavering preaching of the Bible and the Good News and his loving pastoral care to the congregations he served. Each congregation knew he cared about them. David will long be remembered for his faithful service to God and the churches he served. David never pastored a large church; he did not want to. He knew the folks in small churches needed someone who really cared about them. David was a good friend and brother in Christ whom I have known for 41 years, who helped me be a better minister and follower of Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior.

JOSEPH MACDONALD REEVES*JULY 27, 1929 – MAY 19, 2015

Raised as one of 11 children farming the hillsides of Walnut, N.C., Joe Reeves divided his boyhood between the potato patch and the baseball diamond, stealing minutes from both to read as much as he could, especially when mountain rains left the field too wet to farm and second base too wet to field.

As a young man, having followed his brothers' path to the U.S. military (U.S. Air Force/Korea) and cleared his own path back to Madison County, N.C., Joe traded the plow for the pulpit, answering a 'call' that he insisted is more easily heard behind two mules in a stifling August cornfield. That call led him to Mars Hill College, the University of Tennessee (Artium Baccalaureus, 1959), and Duke Divinity School (Master of Divinity degree, 1963), before yielding a 40-year career as a minister in the Western NC Conference. Born a Freewill Baptist, and with tongue in cheek, he often said "Baptists make great Methodists," which he affirmed by earning his Doctor of Divinity from Drew University in 1982.

At Duke, he met his wife of 54 years, Betty Proctor, who had arrived from the much less hilly lowcountry in Olanta, S.C. They raised two sons, Stack and Shawn, who as fathers themselves made Joe a beloved "Papa Joe" five times over. Devoted to his faith, his family, and his congregations, Joe served Brevard-St. Timothy (Asheville), 1963-1971; Christ (Charlotte), 1971-1976; First (Elkin), 1976-1981; Central (Shelby), 1981-1988; and Central (Monroe), 1988-1992; where he aimed to be reliably present, meeting parishioners wherever they needed him, in or out of the Sunday worship pew.

A service to remember Joe was held on May 23, at Central UMC in Shelby, officiated by the Rev. Dr. Joe Collins, followed by burial at Sunset Cemetery with military honors.

Throughout his ministry, the Rev. Dr. Joseph Reeves championed a personal relationship with Christ – the Word become flesh – and a grace as freely offered as the showers that softened the hardened hillsides of his youth.

THOMAS EDGAR RUTLEDGE, JR.
MAY 21, 1920 – SEPTEMBER 23, 2015

The Rev. Thomas Edgar Rutledge, Jr. (Tom), a 20-year resident of Arbor Acres Retirement Community in Winston-Salem, died peacefully on September 23, 2015, at his home in Arbor Acres. The strong and loving community he created throughout his 95 years deeply mourned, but also celebrated a life well lived.

Tom Rutledge was born in Childress County, Tex., in 1920 to Thomas Edgar Rutledge, Sr. and Verdie Mae Holt Rutledge. He wasn't the oldest son, but he was the first to have his father's blue eyes, so he became the Junior. He drove a Model-A Ford as a young boy, marveled at the inventions of radio and flight, and in his 90's was totally adept with Googling on his computer and sending e-mail messages! Tom attended Texas Tech in Lubbock, Tex., after his high school graduation, but finished his bachelor's degree at Trinity College in San Antonio in 1941. During this time, he was called to the ministry, which led him to Duke University, in Durham, N.C.

On August 31, 1945, Tom married the love of his life, the beautiful Mary Luke, at Duke Chapel. Both he and Mary attended Duke University Divinity School, met and fell in love there, and were loyal Blue Devil fans throughout their entire lives. Tom completed his divinity degree at Duke in 1947 and later completed a master's degree in social work at the University of Tennessee, Nashville, in 1957.

Tom was first licensed to preach in 1943, ordained as a deacon and admitted into the North West Texas Conference in 1947, and ordained an as elder in 1948. Having begun in Texas, for several years, Tom and Mary traveled throughout various conferences as they helped small, young churches grow, even as they were starting their own family. Tom's appointments included Southland, 1947-48, and Wolfforth, 1948-49, both in northwest Texas; in the West Virginia Conference, Cross Lanes, 1949-51, and Powellton, 1951-52; in the Holston Conference, Holston Methodist Home, Tenn., 1952-53, White Pine, 1953-54, and Parrottsville, 1954-55; and through the Tenn. Conference, Salem, 1955-56. In 1956, Tom went back to school to complete his degree in social work. During this time, his family, which then included four young children, lived in Nashville, Tenn., in a Wesley House Center, serving the inner city with resources of food, clothes, counseling, and safe places to play and meet. When he finished his degree, he applied to work in a foreign mission. Amazingly enough, that "foreign mission" was Alaska, which at that time was still a territory, not a state.

Adventurous, inventive, deeply religious, and full of fun, Tom later wrote of his move to Alaska as one of the high points of his life. In Seward, Alaska, he was the superintendent of Jesse Lee Home, a Methodist Children's Home. Always a family man, during his three years at Jesse Lee, his "family" grew considerably! When his appointment at Jesse Lee ended, Tom elected to stay in Alaska and homestead. He and his children built the sprawling house, raised the garden, and lived off the land as true homesteaders, while chasing away bears and moose. During his homestead years, he was a social worker at the newly-reorganized Seward Tuberculosis Sanitarium in Seward, Alaska. He helped out with giving X-rays at the sanitarium, in addition to reading to patients, helping them write letters, and no doubt regaling them with funny stories.

In 1962, Tom transferred from the Tennessee Conference to the Western North Carolina Conference, and left his homestead to return to the "lower 48." His appointments in this conference included Newdale, 1962-1965, and Boonville-Mitchell's Chapel, 1965-1968. His appointment to Newdale included three churches. The entire family enjoyed Tom's being a "circuit rider" as he preached on alternate Sundays at churches in Newdale, Celo, and Windom. In 1968, Tom went on disability leave, due to health challenges which lasted for many years. He became fully retired from the church in 1985.

Even after health issues meant he could no longer be an active minister, he continued his ministry and social work in a myriad of ways. He wrote impassioned letters to the editor about causes he deemed important, organized transportation for voters and led "get out and vote" campaigns, and maintained continuous correspondence with spiritual leaders and writers. One of his favorite writers was Leo Buscaglia, and the two of them exchanged letters about their favorite subject: love.

In 1995, Tom and Mary moved to Arbor Acres in Winston-Salem, where Tom continued to keep all the residents and staff laughing, praying, learning, and engaging in sprightly conversations. Well into their late 80's, both Tom and Mary led Sunday school lessons and prayer meetings, and were constant supporters of churches in the area. They were both very enthusiastic members of Mt. Tabor United Methodist Church. In his 80's, Tom began an online ministry. Each day, he sent out a Daily Devotional to a dozen or so people at first, then more and more as people asked to receive his writings. For more than 15 years, he inspired, comforted, and gave joy to the community of people on his e-mail list, which now numbers in the hundreds. He wrote his last devotional just after his 95th birthday, then supervised his daughters as they continued his legacy.

Tom and Mary raised five children. The list of children and their spouses include: Juliamae Rutledge Harris of Carrboro, N.C., Susan Rutledge Giles and John Giles of Winston-Salem, N.C., Thomas Edgar Rutledge III and Louella Whicker Rutledge of Hillsborough, N.C., Alan Monroe Rutledge and Sheila Ringle Rutledge of Raleigh, N.C., and William Robert Rutledge of Heredia, Costa Rica. In addition to Tom's five children, he is survived by 13 of his 14 grandchildren and all of his nine great-grandchildren. Tom's legacy of love and giving to the community is continued by a family which includes a large number of teachers, ministers, musicians, and writers.

Family, friends, and his large community honored Tom Rutledge at a memorial service on September 28, 2015, in the assembly hall in the Berrier Building at Arbor Acres. His ashes were scattered later that same day at Arbor Acres under a tree his children had planted in his honor years before. His legacy lives on as his daughters continue his Daily Devotional. He is remembered and celebrated daily in the thoughts of those who loved him.

KERMIT ELVIN SHOAF*DECEMBER 28, 1931 – MAY 11, 2015

The Rev. Kermit "Ebb" Elvin Shoaf, 83, loving father and grandfather, was welcomed into the arms of Jesus on Monday, May 11, 2015, at Gordon's Hospice House of Iredell County, after a brave battle with cancer. He was surrounded by his family.

Born December 28, 1931, in Davie County, he was the seventh child of Gerome and Lydia Shoaf. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by several siblings: Samuel Shoaf, Harold Shoaf, Sadie Barnhardt, Alene Jones, and Theodore Shoaf. On January 20, 1951, he married Delia Sadie Marie Allen, and they had three children: Sherri Lynn Shoaf Stout, Donna Marie Shoaf Wright, and Kermit Elizabeth Shoaf Phelps, and two grandchildren, Kara Marie Stout and Jenna Elizabeth Stout.

Shoaf joined Liberty Methodist Church in Davie County and attended there until his marriage to Marie Allen. They both attended Cornatzer Methodist Church. Shoaf was drafted into the U.S. Army and served in Korea, attaining the rank of sergeant. He worked at R.J. Reynolds for 30 years. During those years, he attended Winston-Salem State College for one year. He then attended Charlotte College for three years, graduating in 1958.

Entering the ministry in 1972, Shoaf was ordained a deacon in 1975, while serving the Sheffield Charge, 1973-1985; Shiloh-Olivet Charge, 1985-1989; Elbaton Charge, 1989-1990; and the Harmony-Mt. Carmel Charge, 1990-1995. He retired in 1995.

In 1973, while serving at Sheffield United Methodist Church, Shoaf started a home ministry by recording his messages on cassette and sending them into homes for shut-ins. Later in his ministry, he produced videos and did this until 1990.

Celebrating the conference's 200th anniversary, 1776-1996, Shoaf had the privilege of presenting a flag to the Western North Carolina Conference in Lexington, N.C., on behalf of the oldest church, Zion Chapel, in the Thomasville District.

Shoaf and wife Marie traveled and lived at their home on Lake Norman in Iredell County. While there, Shoaf started a radio ministry for eight years, using his recorded cassettes. He also wrote 150 Bible studies. Shoaf and wife Marie raised three children in a Christian home and have been blessed for it. He always loved the Lord.

A celebration of his life was held at the Davie Service Chapel in Mocksville, N.C., on May 13. Burial was at Cornatzer UMC cemetery with full military honors accorded by the VFW Memorial Honor Guard and the N.C. National Guard.

Shoaf will be missed by his family and friends very much.

ROY WAYNE SIDES*MARCH 17, 1943 – NOVEMBER 6, 2015

The Rev. Roy Wayne Sides loved God, his family, and the Church. Born on March 17, 1943, and raised in Kannapolis, N.C., he was the younger of two sons born to Charles Luther Sides and Mary Elizabeth Brigman Sides. He loved telling stories from his childhood – growing up with his cousins and extended family. His stories often included his time living at The Children's Home in Winston-Salem, N.C.

He first heard his call to ministry in high school but tried to ignore it. He graduated from A.L. Brown High School and worked as a printer at The Charlotte Observer and The Washington Post. He met Irene Quinn, and they married on August 14, 1966. Together, they raised five children: Janice Michelle Quinn, Dewey Wayne, Elizabeth Ann, Timothy Paul, and Lynda Ruth. They also were blessed with six grandchildren.

Roy answered his call to ministry and acquired his license to preach in 1976. He served the Webster Circuit, 1977-1978; North Macon Charge, 1978-1980; Elizabeth Chapel and Maple Grove, 1980-1985; Friendship and Browns Summit, 1985-1987; Oteen and Azalea, 1987-1999; Bethany, 1999-2001; Friendship and Oak Grove, 2001-2003; and Crowell Memorial and Palm Tree, 2003-2005.

He received an Associate in Arts degree from Central Piedmont Community College in 1977. He later attended Western Carolina University and graduated in 1983 with a Bachelor of Arts degree. He attended the summer Course of Studies at Duke University and was ordained as a deacon in 1991. He retired to Lincolnton, N.C., in 2006, and attended McKendree UMC with his wife, who passed away on Christmas Day, 2009. He enjoyed serving as a Sunday school teacher at McKendree, helping visit shut-ins, and preaching as needed.

Roy loved life, and his laugh was contagious. He loved camping and woodworking, and he was always telling stories, whether they focused on his childhood, camping trips with his family, or fun times at the churches he served. He treasured helping others understand Scripture and grow in their faith.

His children and extended family, made up of both relatives and friends, miss him greatly but have so many wonderful memories to cherish. He passed away at home, November 6, 2015. His life was celebrated at McKendree UMC, November 10, 2015.

MARION MILTON SWANN

JULY 19, 1939 – OCTOBER 5, 2015

The Rev. Marion Milton Swann died at home on October 5, 2015, after a lengthy illness. Born on July 19, 1939, in Mitchell County, N.C., to the late Norman Lee Swann and Bessie Knight Swann, the Rev. Swann was one of four children.

Raised in Spruce Pine, N.C., Marion excelled in his studies and was a star football player for his high school team. He was called to the ministry at an early age, and he was licensed to preach in April 1956, at age 16. He received a Bachelor of Arts degree with a major in history and a minor in secondary education from Pfeiffer University in 1961 and was ordained as a deacon in 1962. He received his Master of Divinity degree from Duke University in 1965, and was admitted to the Western North Carolina Conference as an elder in 1965. While he was completing his graduate studies, Marion served as student minister at the Prospect Charge in the Albemarle District. He also served Friendship United Methodist Church and Oak Grove UMC in the Albemarle District, and he served Wade UMC and Grace UMC in Wadesboro, N.C.

In 1966, he was called to serve Memorial Methodist Church (Kannapolis), followed by Colliers-Cedar Valley (Lenoir), 1967-1969. He also served Colliers-Baton (Lenoir), 1969-1972; Rocky Mount-McKendree Chapel (Mooresville), 1972-1978; Monticello-Midway (Statesville), 1978-1982; Deerfield (Boone), 1982-1995; and Boonville-Mitchell's Chapel (Boonville), 1995-2000. When Boonville and Mitchell's Chapel became station churches in 2000, he remained pastor of Boonville, where he served until his retirement in June 2005. The opportunity to preach to his congregations was one of the major joys of the Rev. Swann's life. He enjoyed using his education in history to help him prepare and deliver his sermons.

The Rev. Swann was very active in every community he called home. He was delighted to be called to various mission programs reaching out into the communities. Over the years, he was a member of various civic groups such as Ruritan, Kiwanis, and Lions. He also supported Boy Scout and Girl Scout troops in his churches. His booming laughter was matched only by his strong bass singing voice, and he was active in a number of church choirs, frequently being called upon to provide a solo. He never turned down those requests. After retirement, he continued to be active in the life of the church, preaching at revivals, preaching homecomings, and participating in United Methodist Men. A lover of all types of cuisine, he particularly enjoyed the homemade treats given to him by his friends and parishioners, and enjoyed visits to the beach for Calabash seafood.

A lifelong sports enthusiast, Marion remained a devotee of Duke University athletics, a fan of the Washington Redskins, the Atlanta Braves, and the Boston Red Sox.

Marion is survived by his wife of 52 years, Helen Osteen Swann. Together, they raised two children, Doshia Swann Teachey (married to James Teachey), and Ramelle Martha Swann. Their infant son, Norman Willis Swann, died shortly after birth. Two grandchildren, Lydia Lynn Teachey and Granger Lee Teachey, were among the greatest joys of his life after retirement. He is also survived by two sisters, Bettie Lou Gunter and Julia Swann Pittman. One sister, Amanda Ruth Phelps, preceded him in death.

Friends and family honored his life with a service October 10, 2015, at Boonville UMC, conducted by the Revs. Mark Barden, David Rorie, and Jenny Stewart. Special music was provided by the Rev. Carol Flack. The church was filled with fond reminiscences by friends and family. Burial was at Spruce Pine City Cemetery in Mitchell County, N.C.

HARLEY MORRISON WILLIAMS

OCTOBER 24, 1920 – MARCH 4, 2016

The Rev. Dr. Harley Morrison Williams was born to become an extraordinary churchman. He lived the fullness of his long life in commitment to the Great Commission of Christ and firm belief in the ultimate victory of the church's mission. His life personified the theology of hope expressed poignantly in these exuberant lines we are so fond of singing: "Till with the vision glorious/Our longing eyes are blest, And the great church victorious/Shall be the church at rest."

Harley was born on October 24, 1920, in Cabarrus County, near Concord, N.C. He was the son of the late Rev. Neil C. Williams, Sr. and Virginia Harris Williams. He was also preceded in death by two brothers, the Rev. Neil C. Williams, Jr. (an elder in the Western North Carolina Conference) and Lester H. Williams. Harley graduated from high school in High Point in 1938, attended Wofford College, and received his Artium Baccalaureus degree from High Point College in 1942. In his senior year at Duke Divinity School, in 1944-1945, he served as president of the student body. At the commencement of High Point University in 1970, the ministry of this favorite son of the school was gratefully acknowledged through the presentation of an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree.

Admitted on trial as a member of the Western North Carolina Conference in October 1944, Harley was ordained as a deacon in 1944, and as an elder in 1946. He faithfully served as a pastor in these eight congregations over a period of 31 years: West Market Street (Greensboro), student assistant pastor, 1944-1945; Oak Ridge, 1945-1948; Davidson-Fairview Charge, 1948-1951; Davidson, 1951-1953; Park Street (Belmont), 1953-1955; Central Terrace (Winston-Salem), 1955-1960; Central (Monroe), 1960-1965; Memorial (Thomasville), 1965-1969; and West Market Street (Greensboro), senior pastor, 1969-1975.

With this vast experience of serving parishes of various sizes within a diversity of locations, Harley was appointed to positions that utilized his considerable administrative gifts. He effectively rendered managerial leadership to the Greensboro District for six years, 1975-1981, and was subsequently appointed to provide visionary guidance and organizational clarity to a relatively new position, the Director of the WNCC Council on Ministries, 1981-1984. He returned as a veteran superintendent to the Gastonia District, 1984-1986, in his last appointment before retirement. Harley's long period of retirement at Lake Junaluska and Givens Estates was interrupted by an interim superintendency in the Waynesville District, 1988-1989, and an energetic involvement as a part-time real estate agent who guided several of his grateful colleagues into a fulfilling retirement within an adequate and affordable home.

Harley especially enjoyed his work as a trustee of Greensboro College, the Triad Home in Winston-Salem, the Methodist Home in Charlotte, The Children's Home in Winston-Salem, Givens Estates, and Goodwill Industries. He was instrumental in creating the solid financial and organizational structure of The United Methodist Foundation. He was a key mover in promoting the studies that led to the establishment of group UMAR homes for the mentally-disabled in the Western North Carolina Conference.

Discovering the love of his life when he met Ethel Louisa Campbell, they were married in 1946, and recently celebrated their 70th anniversary. On April 23, 2016, shortly after losing Harley, his beloved wife passed away. Harley and Ethel were a team in ministry to others. They were especially devoted to their family – daughter Virginia Alice “Ginger” Rutland and her husband, John, of Waynesville, and Marie Williams Paschal and her husband, Jim, of Asheville and Panama City Beach, Fla.; four grandchildren; and one great-grandchild.

A memorial service was held on March 7, 2016, at First United Methodist Church of Waynesville with the Rev. Sanford L. Giles, Jr. presiding. The Rev. Dr. Robert M. Blackburn, Jr. and Bishop J. Lawrence McCleskey rendered eulogies. An additional memorial service was held at Givens Estates on March 12, 2016.

Harley was a superbly gifted pastor and a consummate church administrator. But he was never regarded to be a faceless, impersonal bureaucrat carrying out a perfunctory function. To the contrary, he truly became a pastor to pastors throughout his several appointments to the role of district superintendent. One of my most cherished family memories is the vivid recollection of a scene in the sanctuary of Hinshaw Memorial United Methodist Church. My wife and I stood before the altar and beside the baptismal font. Harley gently held our infant daughter, placing the water of baptism upon her head, and welcoming her into the Family of God.

On the occasions that Harley summoned me to his office in Greensboro for consultation, I always blocked out an entire afternoon. He listened with genuine interest, asking relevant questions about my parish and my vision for its mission. He responded with an inexhaustible supply of relevant stories from his rich experiences as a pastor. During one of these sessions, I noted that he had mounted on the wall behind his right shoulder a framed tribute to him presented lovingly by one of his two daughters. I was reminded of a chapter in a biography that I had read regarding another great churchman, Harry Emerson Fosdick. One of Fosdick’s two daughters had also written a tender letter of affectionate tribute that read, “You may be the ‘savior of the masses’ and the ‘greatest minister in the world’ [and that’s quite in line with my thoughts too] but to me you’re my Daddy first and foremost, and I love you!”

With comparable gratitude, I submit to these official Journal records of the Western North Carolina Conference this tribute to the Rev. Dr. Harley Morrison Williams – churchman, pastor, administrator, mentor, husband, Daddy, and pastor to pastors.

MARK FLUNORY WIMMER

JULY 2, 1934 – APRIL 14, 2016

The Rev. Mark Flunory Wimmer, born July 2, 1934 in Dry Fork, Va. (near Danville), was the tenth of 11 children born to Carl C. Wimmer and Laura Hoskins Wimmer. Mark grew up walking to the Wimmer family church, Whitnell Methodist, just one mile from their home. Most Sundays, the family walked together. As a teenager, Mark’s religious convictions were so strong that one of his teen-aged friends said to him, “Mark, you ought to be a preacher.” Mark took that challenge seriously and, after high school, began studies toward ministry at nearby Ferrum College, then a two-year college, where he also played on the college’s basketball team. After graduating from Ferrum, Mark continued studies at High Point College, followed by studies at Arkansas College where he received his Artium Baccalaureus degree in 1954. From there, Mark entered Candler School of Theology and received his Bachelor of Divinity degree in 1957.

On May 1, 1954, just before turning 20, Mark married his sweetheart, who became his companion in ministry for nearly six decades. Helen Paige Williamson, was the daughter of the Rev. Thomas Paige Williamson, a Methodist minister of the Virginia Conference, and his wife, Helen. To Mark and Paige, three sons were born.

Mark began serving as a licensed pastor in 1953, while attending Arkansas College. His charge included three Methodist churches in the North Arkansas Conference: Bethesda, Cushman, and Concord. While attending Candler School of Theology, Mark served as pastor of Shannon Methodist Church of the North Georgia Conference. Mark transferred from the North Georgia Conference to the Western NC Conference in 1960, where he continued as a pastor until retirement, in 1997.

Mark was ordained as a deacon in 1959, ordained as an elder in 1960, and faithfully served the following appointments: Avery’s Creek-Sardis (Asheville), 1960-1964; Ruffin, 1964-1969; Indian Trail-Stallings, 1969-1974; Purcell (Charlotte), 1974-1978; Madison, 1978-1982; Pine Grove (Winston-Salem), 1982-1986; Bessemer (Greensboro), 1986-1990; and Fairgrove (Thomasville), 1990-1997.

At a height of 6 feet, 6 inches, Mark stood tall in the pulpit. Not only was he tall physically, he stood “tall” as a preacher. His sermons were often laced with stories, poetry, and humor. He also stood “tall” in his pastoral ministry, relating to his parishioners with a relaxed and loving style that showed his genuine care and concern for each person and each family. I saw this in my own family. Mark was pastor to my parents from 1969-1974. They so appreciated his caring ministry that upon my mother’s death 16 years later, in 1990, my father requested that Mark give the eulogy at her funeral. When my father died in 1997, upon request, Mark gave the eulogy at his funeral as well.

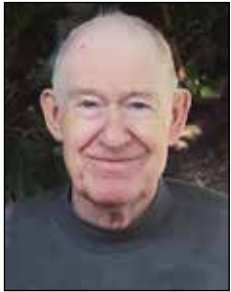

In retirement, Mark returned to his homeland at Dry Fork, where he enjoyed cattle farming, raising more than 100 Santa Gertrudis cattle on his 300 acres of pasture land, and, as an avid sports fan, enjoying televised sports. For 10 years in retirement, Mark also served as pastor of nearby churches, Anderson Chapel United Methodist for seven years and Schoolfield United Methodist for three years. One of Mark’s lifelong passionate interests, and of which he collected much memorabilia, was a famed train wreck about which songs and stories have been written. This was the “Wreck of Old 97,” a steam engine train that wrecked leaving Danville, Va., while “trying to make Spencer (N.C.) on time.” In retirement, Mark also wrote four books, three of which are related to ministry.

Throughout his retirement, Mark dealt with increasing health issues, including diabetes and a failing heart. In his last few months, the seriousness of these issues increased rapidly and took a final toll on Mark’s physical life. Physical death came quietly on April 14, at Forsyth Medical Center in Winston-Salem, as Mark moved from this world into God’s eternal Kingdom. A celebration of Mark’s life was held in the chapel of Swicegood Funeral Home in Danville, Va., on Sunday, April 17. Leading the service was the Rev. Wayne Moore, pastor of Mark’s home church. Burial followed at Highland Burial Park in Danville.

Mark is survived by Paige, his wife of nearly 62 years; his sons and their wives, Sterling Leon Wimmer of Denver, N.C., Robert Nelson Wimmer and wife Xochitl of Atlanta, Ga., and Grier C. Wimmer and wife Mary of Winston-Salem; five grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; and one sister, Clara Bowman of Danville.

Mark felt a special connection to God through Psalm 23, so much so that at the close of every day he would repeat the psalm to himself. Thus it is fitting that Mark's memoir closes with these words from that psalm: "The Lord is my shepherd ... and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever." (Psalm 23:1,6)

WAYNE WILLIAM WOODWARD

MAY 4, 1930 – DECEMBER 3, 2015

The Rev. Wayne William Woodward, 85, was called home to be with His Lord on December 3, 2015, after complications from a stroke.

Wayne was born on May 4, 1930, in Greensburg, Ind., to Arthur and Hazel Woodward. He was the second youngest of four brothers and one sister. When he was four years old, at the height of the Great Depression, his father moved the family to Visalia, Calif. While he was in high school, Wayne attended a Methodist Youth Camp, where he surrendered to the ministry.

In 1950, Wayne received his associate's degree from College of the Sequoias in Visalia, and was licensed to preach.

Wayne never stopped learning, receiving an Artium Baccalaureus degree from Taylor University in Upland, Ind., in 1952; and, in 1955, earned his Bachelor of Divinity degree from Asbury Theological Seminary in Wilmore, Ky., continuing his education into the 1960s. Wayne was admitted on trial to the Western North Carolina Conference in 1955, and he became youth pastor of St. Marks Methodist Church (Belmont). Later that fall, he was appointed to the four-church Shoals Circuit (Winston-Salem), 1955-57.

Wayne met his bride-to-be, Corinne Vaughn, while serving Asbury, and while serving at Shoals, they were married on January 17, 1956.

In 1957, Wayne was ordained as a deacon and in 1959 as an elder, book-ending his service to the Todd Circuit, where he served five churches in the North Wilkesboro District, 1957-59. From 1959 to 1961, Wayne taught Bible classes at Mount Pleasant High School in Mount Pleasant, N.C., while working on a Master of Arts in education at Appalachian State University, obtaining his degree in 1960. And 1961-65, Wayne was appointed to the Elkin Circuit.

He was led by the Lord in 1965 to return to Wilmore, Ky., where he served as assistant librarian at Asbury's seminary library. At the same time, he began working on his Master of Library Science at the University of Kentucky. After he received his degree in 1967, he became director of library services for Asbury College, a position he held until 1978. While at Asbury, he was president of the National Christian Librarians' Fellowship. Wayne and his family attended Wilmore United Methodist Church, where Wayne served as a children's Sunday school teacher.

Wayne received a call to Wesley Biblical Seminary in 1978, in Jackson, Miss., to help them prepare their library for accreditation. He continued to serve Wesley as director of library services, until his retirement in 1990. While in Jackson, he taught an adult Sunday school class at Alta Woods United Methodist Church for 37 years. He also taught English to foreign students at the seminary, frequently read to children at a local elementary school, and was president of the Mississippi Family Research Association.

In October 2015, Wayne suffered a massive stroke in his home in Jackson, Miss. He passed away two months later at Hospice Ministries in Ridgeland, Miss. Wayne is survived by his wife of 59 years, Corinne; two daughters, Gail and Karen; one brother, Louis; four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. He is preceded in death by two other children, Miriam and Joel, and four siblings, Charles, Margaret, Paul, and Fred.

Wayne's life and service to the Lord were celebrated in a time of remembrance during the December 20, 2015, Sunday morning service of Alta Woods UMC, Jackson, Miss., led by the Rev. Eric Sanford. Wayne's ashes will be buried at the family's cemetery in Baxter, Tenn., after a private funeral service for the family, on June 25, 2016.

My father, Wayne, had a true servant's heart and showed the love and grace of God to everyone, from the homeless people in Jackson, to his co-laborers in the ministry. It has been my honor to share his life in this memoir.

Gail Woodward Magee

A special thank you to the Rev. G. Craig Allen, Jr., Marsha Bradley, and Sandra Hargett for their work in editing the memoirs.
